STAGE IS ALL SET FOR BIG MAT TILT

Both Stecher and Caddock Eagerly Await Word for Titular Clash Tonight.

BETTING IS VERY LIGHT

With the stage all set and every detail arranged, Joe Stecher, the pride of Nebraska, and Earl Caddock, the hope of Iowa, stand ready to lock horns on the mat at the municipal Auditorium tonight in a joust for the wrestling supremacy of the world.

Both gladiators are eagerly awaiting the fray. Caddock, an undefeated contender, obstructs Stecher's clear path to the title. Joe is anxious to remove him. For Caddock it is the opportunity of a lifetime. Fame and fortune are his if he can defeat the Dodge phenom.

Caddock promises to mix it the minute the referee says "go." Speed is Caddock's greatest asset. It is upon his speed that he depends. For that reason he declares he will tear into Joe at the start and make a match of it from gun to gun.

Frank Gotch, former champion and said by many to be the greatest wrestler the world ever saw, will be in Caddock's corner tonight. Gotch has been training Caddock in Chicago. He expresses firm confidence in his charge, averring that if Caddock stays thirty minutes with Stecher he will win the match.

Iowans Back Caddock. Iowa mat fans who will arrive in Omaha by the hundreds today, have expressed a similar confidence in the Anita lad. They all expect Caddock to win. Nebraskans, of course, lean toward Joe.

Boosters from Cass county, of which Caddock is the hero, will come to Omaha in a special train of twelve or fifteen coaches. The train leaves Stuart, Ia., at 2 o'clock this afternoon and arrives in Omaha at 5:45. The Caddock boosters will march from the depot uptown, headed by a brass band of thirty pieces.

That record-breaking crowd will see the event is assured. Not a seat is available today except at speculators' prices. Standing room will not be sold until after 9 o'clock tonight, at which hour it is presumed all holders of seats will have occupied them. This is done to prevent persons from buying standing room and usurping squatters' rights on choice seats.

It is estimated the house will total over $15,000 and that half of the people who will witness the go will be from out of town.

Very Little Betting. Very little betting has been done on the match. Some of the Iowans are backing Caddock, but they are mostly odds-on bets. Some time bets, forty minutes, an hour and the like, have also been recorded. But on the whole, the betting has been light and unless plungers get in their work today little money is likely to change hands on the result this evening.

Carl Marfisi has arranged for several good preliminaries. They will all be run off quickly, so the main event will start not later than 10 o'clock. The doors of the Auditorium will be opened at 7 o'clock and the first preliminary starts at 8. Holders of tickets are urged to arrive as early as possible to avoid confusion at the doors. Gene Melady has issued the following instructions for holders of tickets:

Holders of balcony tickets, north side, Sections A, B, C, D, E, F and G, will enter at North entrance of Auditorium only.

Holders of balcony tickets, south side, Sections H, J, K, L, M, N, O and P will enter South entrance of Auditorium only.

Ticket boxes, Arena floor and holders of stage tickets will enter center doors of Auditorium only.

New York Giants Lose To the Detroit Tigers

Kansas City, April 8.—Snow covered right field today as the Detroit Americans evened the exhibition series with the New York Nationals, by defeating the Giants, 6 to 1. Each team has won four games. Detroit pounded Benton for four runs in the first inning and their lead never was headed. Kauff got two of New Yorks five hits. Score:

Detroit.....4 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 0-4 10 11 New York.....0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0-1 5 1

Batteries: James, Bolland, Cunningham and Teller; Benton, Anderson and McCarty, Hardin.

Gardner Released to Lincoln. St. Louis, April 8.—Roy Gardner, a pitcher, was released by the St. Louis Nationals to the Lincoln club of the Western league.

A Bilious Attack. When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They cost a quarter.—Adv.

Open Season With Banquet

In order to commence the season with harmony leading the parade, the Rambler base ball team held a pre-season banquet at the Loyal hotel. Approximately thirty attended, which included the base ball team, members of the Rambler Social club and a few invited guests. For two consecutive seasons the Ramblers won the flag of the National league, and at the expiration of each season, made a strong bid for the city championship. The general sentiment of the players is that they will have a rocky road to travel, but as they have fortified the weak departments, they will give the opposition bitter competition.

The principal amusement outside of the May day sparkles that were intermingled with the fodder, was the music and songs by Hazel Reed, Hilda Rice and Irma Podalek. Speeches were made by Frank Quigley, Jake Isaacson, Otto Pecha and members of the club.

Wireless Plant on Roof of Fashionable New York City Home

New York, April 8.—United States secret service agents have discovered, it was learned tonight, that until a few weeks ago a wireless receiving plant of the most expensive type was operated on the roof of the Fifth avenue home of Mrs. Hugo Reisinger, daughter of the late Adolph Busch, millionaire brewer of St. Louis. Mrs. Reisinger, it was said, insisted that she had caused the apparatus to be removed the moment she learned of its existence.

While the secret service agents maintained strict silence, it was understood they had information that a German who had been employed as butler in the Reisinger home constructed and operated the plant.

Camp of Company B "Some Place," According to Rumor

Visitors to the temporary guard station of Company B of the National Guard, "somewhere in America," and not far from Omaha, are telling wondrous tales concerning it. According to these, the camp has all the comforts of home, and then some. The company became famous on the border for its mess, which visitors now describe as "regular Waldorf-Astoria chuck." In addition, the company recently acquired shower baths and a special tent for reading and writing purposes.

But the climax was reached Saturday. It is said, when a sure-enough barber shop and an honest-to-goodness tailor shop were installed at the company camp.

Hustling by the officers also secured a weekly block of eight tickets to the Gayety from Manager Johnson. These will be awarded each week to the squad making the best camp record. The Nebraska Clothing company donated a lot of playing cards. The barber chair was given the company by A. L. Ueland.

Kills Self on Porch of House Where Wife Works

Because his wife would not return to him, Gust Carlson, 35, a laborer, living at Des Moines hotel, Thirteenth and Howard streets, drank an ounce of carbolic acid on the rear porch of the home of Mrs. Charles G. Trimble, 4643 Dodge street, Saturday afternoon, where his wife, Cristina was employed as a domestic.

KAWS MAKE TRIP TO OMAHA FOR NOTHING

Easter Combat Is Called Off Because Diamond Holds Water Too Well.

MILWAUKEE COMES TODAY

By equipping the athletes with some of Henry Ford's one-man submarines, the Rourke and Kansas City club might have tangled in their combat scheduled for Easter afternoon, but Henry will only give his subs to the government, so the fray had to be called off. Even the gentle Easter sun failed to make an impression on the diamond at Rourke park and the lot was almost as wet as it was Saturday.

Thus the Kansas Cityans had their 400-mile trip all for nothing. Today Milwaukee will clash with Pa's hopefuls on the local lot. It is believed the diamond will be in shape this afternoon. The Milwaukee club looks pretty strong this year. Among its stars are Beall, former Denverite, who was one of the best outfielders the Western ever saw, and George Anderson, the outfielder Pa Rourke obtained from Cincinnati last year, but who broke his leg and could not report. Anderson's leg mended during the season and Cincy sent him to Milwaukee, where he has been proving something of a sensation.

Otto Merz and Murphy Currie, who were carded to hurl against the Kawes yesterday, will probably throw up the sponges for the Milwaukee lads to swing on. The teams will line up as follows:

OMAHA.....MILWAUKEE.....

Omaha College Boys Would Enlist For War Service

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Loomis have received a telegram from their son, Arthur, a junior at Cornell university, stating that he has enlisted in the Coast Guard service.

He is now at Newport, in training to join the "mosquito fleet," which will patrol the Atlantic coast from Chatham to New London. The college authorities granted him full credit for his present year of work there.

Jabin Caldwell, son of Mrs. Victor B. Caldwell of this city, is another Omaha collegian to volunteer for war service. He raised a corps of twenty-five naval reserves among his classmates at Yale, and they will train for service on a submarine.

Half a dozen other Omaha college youths are now on leave visiting their parents here, for the purpose of securing consent from the latter, so that they may join military organizations for war service. These include Fritz Bucholz, Mac Baldrige, John Hanighen and Casper Offutt.

Robs Boy Who Jingles Money And Chases Him to City Jail

Arthur Brown 114 South, Tenth street, colored, was walking up Douglas street Saturday evening jingling twelve silver dollars in his pocket, so his week's wages. A highwayman with a gun stopped Arthur and took the jingling coins away. Arthur started to holler. Whereupon the robber chased Brown almost to the doorsteps of the jail.

Buzzings of Belligerency Will Sound Around Auditorium Tonight

Belligerent buzzings by bellicose bone-crushers promise to pervade the Auditorium tonight when Joe Stecher and Earl Caddock tangle in their wrestling tilt for the championship of the world.

Chris Jordan, ex-middleweight champion, who is now making Omaha his headquarters, is hot on the trail of Ben Rueben, the Chicago grappler, who has entered a claim to the title and will wrestle in one of the preliminaries tonight.

Rueben recently threw Johnny Meyers in Chicago in a bout advertised as for the middleweight title. Jordan once held that honor and wears another crack at it.

"I'm confident I can throw Rueben," declared Jordan, "and I'll wrestle him any place. His own home, Chicago, suits me. If he's the middleweight champion, let him defend his title against me."

Following which declaration of war Jordan made a sweeping offer to wrestle any middleweight extant. "I don't bar anybody," he said. "I'll wrestle any middleweight in the world."

Eats 42 Raw Eggs in 17 Minutes

Because he stowed away forty-two raw eggs in seventeen minutes flat, eating them out of the shell, John Redan, Thirty-first and Ames avenue, claims to be the champion raw egg eater in the city. Over a score of young men were matched in the annual Easter egg eating contest given by the Boys' club of the First Memorial church last evening. Redan was runner up last year, when Carl D. Evans, 3624 Grand avenue, got away with forty-four raw eggs. The eggs were furnished by the young women of the church.

Latest Thrillers Are Embodied in Lakeview Resort

Work on Lakeview, Omaha's newest addition to the ranks of amusement parks, is being rushed with a view of opening next month. The site of the new park is the plot of ground formerly occupied by the Young Men's Christian association for a summer camp and bungalow village. This land was purchased last fall by Munchoff Bros., who formerly operated Krug park, from the East Omaha Land company.

The chief feature now under construction is the large jack rabbit, under-rotation coaster, the newest thing of its kind in the country. This coaster is said to be a great deal more exciting and thrilling than the old style, so well known by the lovers of this park amusement. The jack rabbit is quite unlike other coasters, due to the fact that cars are run in trains, with three cars to the train.

Other buildings now in the course of construction include the new dance pavilion, the skating pavilion, the new bath house, with its individual locker system, and the Old Mill, which will house a lot of twentieth century surprises.

At the rate the construction work is being pushed, Lakeview should be in ample readiness to open in about sixty days. J. W. and H. F. Munchoff will be the active managers.

"The Colonel's New Boots" Furnishes Guard Comedy

"The Colonel New Boots, or a Near Court Martial," would be a good subject for a little skit that might be written about an incident, which furnished much comedy among National Guard officers Saturday.

Colonel W. E. Baehr, anticipating active war service, telephoned his order for a new pair of boots to a local shoe store. Captain C. W. Hamilton, jr., anticipating the same, happened to go to the same store to buy a pair of the same kind of boots.

One clerk had set aside the boots for the colonel. Another clerk, waiting upon the captain, found the boots reserved for the colonel fitted the captain to a T, and he made the sale to Hamilton, not knowing that the boots had been reserved for Baehr.

When the colonel discovered the situation, upon calling at the shop to get his boots, much suave explanation and earnest persuasion was necessary all around, before Captain Hamilton and the shoe store got set right in the colonel's estimation.

The upshot of the matter was that a special order was wired, to provide Colonel Baehr with the necessary kicks, and then peace reigned again in guard circles.

Incidentally, it might be said that all officers of the guard here are outfitting themselves for an anticipated period of active service. Colonel Baehr is even thinking of disposing of his suburban home property, as it will be too large for his wife to use and care for, while he is away on war service.

HAPPENINGS IN THE MAGIC CITY

Cudady Workman Knocked by Pavement Unconscious by Auto That Does Not Stop.

DELEGATES FOR EXCHANGE

Run down and perhaps fatally injured by an automobile that did not stop, Stanley Kaluz, laborer, 3954 South Thirty-ninth street, is at the South Omaha hospital in a state of coma. The accident occurred at 6:15 o'clock, at the corner of Thirtieth and L streets. Kaluz, according to witnesses, was standing in the street, when the automobile went by, knocking him to the pavement.

Relatives were notified and hurried to the bedside. Assistant City Physician Shanahan attended the man. The doctor thinks that internal injuries were suffered. The man is 58 years of age. He was working in the sheep killing gang at the Cudady Packing plant.

Emil Perkins, the young man who was internally injured in an automobile smashup on the Ralston road at Fifty-sixth and Q streets, Thursday night, is still in a state of coma. Until his brain clears the chances for his complete recovery will be unknown.

Frank Zelen, a saloon keeper, who suffered cuts and face bruises when his automobile dashed into a ditch at 3 o'clock Saturday morning near Papillion, is recovering nicely.

Elect Delegates. Delegates to the annual National Live Stock Exchange congress at Louisville, Ky., May 17, 18 and 19, were elected from the local exchange Friday afternoon. Eight men will represent this market, while eight others were elected as alternates.

Unusual interest is shown here in the national meeting. With the country at war it seems necessary to provide for the new conditions that are inevitable should the conflict continue for any length of time.

The Omaha market, as the undisputed second largest in the world, will hold a prominent part in the meeting. President Tagg of the Omaha exchange and G. J. Ingwerson, former president of the Union Stock Yards company, will attend.

The personnel of the committee follows: Delegates—G. J. Ingwerson, W. B. Tagg, W. T. Cox, J. H. Bull, Frank Anderson, C. L. Peterson, A. E. Rogers, Will H. Wood, Alton W. Melady, Al Powell, R. L. Dixon, Dave Rosenstock, Charles Burke, L. Reynolds, T. H. Fonda, Jr.

Man Disappears

Fear that his brother had jumped in the Missouri river prompted Roy Jaworski, 4621 South Thirty-second street, to notify the police Saturday. The brother, Stanley Jaworski, is 21 years of age and has been ill with rheumatism for several weeks. He disappeared suddenly from home Friday morning.

Jaworski was well known among South Side Polish young folk. During his affliction with a severe attack of rheumatism he had taken daily baths at a local bath house. When he disappeared Friday he was said to be on his way to the bath house. Unless relief from illness came, he threatened to drown himself in the river, his brother said.

At the time of disappearance he was dressed in a blue overcoat, a grey pair of trousers and a soft green shaded hat. He is 5 feet 5 inches tall, smooth shaven and has dark hair.

Junior Prom

The annual Junior Prom of the South High school, in charge this year of Ray Wilson and Wayne and Guy Emigh, will be given Friday evening, April 13, at the Hanscom park pavilion. The Dezerax Saxophone orchestra will play for the evening, the dancing starting at 7:30 o'clock and continuing until 11 o'clock. Patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Ruser.

Grace Ringer Dead

Miss Grace Ringer, aged 17 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Ringer, 422 South Twenty-sixth street, died last Friday night at the home of her parents. The funeral will be held Monday afternoon from the residence. Rev. Robert L. Wheeler will officiate. Burial will be in the Graceland Park cemetery.

Funeral of Former Eagles' Head. The funeral of Thomas J. Cogan, aged 62 years, past grand worthy president of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, who died Saturday morning at his home in Cincinnati, is to be held Tuesday morning. Mr. Cogan was grand worthy president during the year 1914 and is considered one of the best officials ever elected to that office. He visited Omaha during his term as president of the national fraternity.

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Van Ness died Saturday afternoon at her home, 2014 K street. She was 48 years old. She is survived by her husband, W. G. Van Ness, and two daughters, Mrs. J. S. Roak of Thayer, Ia., and Mrs. W. G. Small of St. Joseph, Mo. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the residence with Rev. Robert Wheeler officiating.

Want Newspaper Man for Censor

Chicago, April 8.—A resolution urging that governmental censorship of the press be placed under the supervision of a man of newspaper experience, known to the newspapers of the country and appointed to the necessary military rank was adopted by the American Association of Teachers of Journalism at a meeting here today.

The W. S. W. club will celebrate at their Thursday night's meeting, an entertainment at the home of Mrs. Van Howard, 414 South Forty-third street, Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid society of the Wheeler Memorial church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Tagg, 4114 South Twenty-second street. Mrs. Cudady will assist.

Japanese Headquarters At North Platte Burns

Mitchell, Neb., April 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The Japanese headquarters and boarding house for the Japanese farmers and beet men of the North Platte valley, was entirely destroyed by fire this afternoon. The property was valued at $10,000 and was owned by Frank Ikeno, George Sasacki and Harry Ishida. Over $2,000 in jewelry and money belonging to the residents, was burned. Other personal property valued at over $3,000. The entire business portion of Mitchell was threatened and but for the valuable work done by the Mitchell volunteer fire department, assisted by the citizens, it would have been entirely destroyed, as the wind was in that direction. A call for help to the Scottsbluff fire department was responded, but the fire was under control on their arrival.

Sailors Who Mutinied Now Fight for England

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Sydney, Australia, March 30.—Norfolk Island, which is peopled by descendants of the mutineers of the British ship Bounty, English sailors, who married Tahitian women and fled with them to escape British justice after the seizure of the Bounty, has just furnished several more recruits for the Australian forces. At least four Norfolk Islanders who were direct descendants of the Bounty's mutineers have been killed in action.

Bread Must Age a While Before Britishers Buy

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) London, March 30.—The latest order of the food controller is that no baker can sell bread less than twelve hours old. It means that in the majority of cases the bread delivered to the householder is from eighteen to thirty hours old, while at the week-end unless Sunday baking is adopted, the bread delivered on the Monday may be from forty to fifty hours old.

Mexican Voted Patriotism

Salt Lake City, Utah, April 7.—Addressing voters further to the patriotism of Americans as being one of the essentials of the Mormon church, Senator Stewart yesterday and physical efficiency by adopting the lessons of Europe in banishing liquor, predicting the approach of the millennium and appealing to members to fight and die for the nation, marked today's session of the second day of the eighty-seventh annual general conference of the Mormon church.
