If Kidneys and Bladder Bother

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast; continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Adv.

Hair Often Ruined By Washing With Soap

Soap should be used very carefully if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Adv.

HOUSE MEMBERS READY TO QUIT

Taylor Urges Members to Wind Up Business as Soon as Possible.

MANY BILLS DEFECTIVE

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, April 11.—(Special.)—With only a few bills remaining to be acted upon, as compared with 135 in the senate, the house worked in very leisurely fashion today. It met at 10 o'clock—an hour later than usual—acted on three or four bills and then recessed at 11:45 to 2 p. m., where it has been in the habit of keeping at it right up to the noon hour and then quitting only until 1:30.

Some of the members even wanted to adjourn over at noon until Thursday morning, and talk was heard of quitting on Thursday and having no session again until the following Monday. But a majority voted to work again Wednesday afternoon, and in all probability the house will remain in session every day until the windup.

Taylor Is Through.

Mr. Taylor, a leader of the farmer element in the house, frankly wants to get through as soon as possible and adjourn sine die. He doesn't care how many bills are killed, inasmuch as all of those he was especially interested in have been executed already. He is willing to help assassinate a few of the remaining senate bills in the hope that the senate will slaughter a lot of house bills in reprisal, thus hastening the end.

On Mr. Cronin's motion, the house substituted his bill allowing National Guardsmen to vote when called outside the state for federal service, instead of a senate bill on the same subject. Cronin called attention to the fact that his bill had passed the house about the middle of March, but had been held back in the senate, while the upper branch went ahead and passed its own bill. He quoted Adjutant General Hall as saying that he would rather have the house than the senate bill.

A bill making corrective amendments to the Torrens land title law was put through to third reading, but the house killed the Hammond bill regulating the purchase and sale of automobiles.

Bills Found Defective.

The special committee on revision of bills, consisting of Speaker Jackson, Chief Clerk Potts and Director Sheldon of the legislative reference bureau, has made a report to the house on its work during the session. The report says that out of 803 house bills introduced 114 were defective in form or wording. This was 14 per cent, or one out of every seven bills introduced.

Among 331 senate bills, 137 were found to be defective, this being 41 per cent. The average of defective measures for the two branches was 22 per cent.

The report strongly recommends the adoption of some system by the next legislature which will insure a more careful revision of bills, if possible, before they are introduced.

Legislative Notes

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, April 11.—(Special.)—Prominent Omaha citizens wired Senator Sawyer today to save House Bill No. 24, the anti-bribe corrupting bill. The telegram was read in the senate this morning, after Senator Sawyer Tuesday afternoon failed to get the bill lifted from the sifting committee, where it automatically died. Those signing the telegram were: H. S. Main, J. H. Millard, John L. Kennedy, John Lee Webster, John B. Ringwalt and Gould Dietz.

The senate concurred in minor house amendments today to Senate File No. 120, raising the salary of the public defender in Omaha from $1,200 to $2,400; Senate File No. 29, Senator Beal's visiting nurse bill, and Senate File No. 4, Senator Bushor's bill regarding filing fees with the county clerk.

An informal conference between Union Pacific and Northwestern officials, the Nebraska Railway commission, citizens of Norfolk and Madison on one hand, and citizens of Alton and other towns on the Northwestern on the other, was held today in the office of the railway commission. Citizens of Madison and Norfolk are protesting a new train schedule the commission ordered put in operation on the Alton branch of the Union Pacific.
