Omaha Women Win Praise for Work.

At the request of the National Surgical Dressings Committee of America Mrs. O. C. Redick has accepted the position of state chairman of the organization for Nebraska. This request came as a result of Mrs. Redick's splendid work in connection with the Omaha organization.

So carefully has all the work sent to the national headquarters by the Omaha women been done that in a letter of recent date the committee stated that it had nothing but the highest praise for them and that they would be sent one of the shipping books which is allotted to those societies who do perfect work.

Not all the bandages and dressings made by the Surgical Dressings committee women are like the Red Cross bandages. The ones they now make are for the use of foreign surgeons.

Omaha Masons have been most generous in their donations of money for the purchase of materials. One hundred dollars does not go very far in these days of increased prices.

Hamlin-Streight Wedding.

This evening at 8 o'clock the marriage of Miss Helen Streight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Streight of this city, to Mr. George Eldridge Hamlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamlin of Chicago, will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Edwin Hart Jenks.

Sweet peas will set the predominant note of color for the wedding. They will be used throughout the house and will appear in the colors of the gowns of the three bridal attendants.

The bride will wear a gown of white satin made en traine and embroidered with pearls. Her veil will be held in place with a bandeau. She will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The ushers, Mr. Jack Hamlin of Chicago and Mr. Harold Streight of Omaha, will stretch ribbons for the bride party to the bank of palms, where the ceremony will be performed.

Young Mr. Hamlin and his bride will leave for the east after the ceremony and will be at home in Chicago about June 11.

Mr. Hamlin's parents and his brother and sister will return to Chicago tonight. Mr. Hamlin, Jr., will be in Galesburg, Ill., Monday, and then will go with all haste to New York, where he is rehearsing several parts. He has appeared in concert on several occasions.

Hiles-Jones Wedding.

Illness seemed to conspire against the wedding of Miss Cora Jones and Mr. Bradford Hiles of Lincoln, which took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Jones, in Benson.

Waist with a Breath of Spring

Nothing is so freshly springlike as a blouse with a lace collar like this at the right. But blouses with good lace are indeed hard to find at reasonable prices.

Here is the very waist you want to wear with the spring suit. It is of a particularly good looking crepe de chine, and may be had in ecru, white flesh color or navy blue.

What a small sum will buy when you put your mind to searching out values is shown in this pretty waist of white voile, well made, and of a type one need not hesitate to wear anywhere.

electric machinery. A great disadvantage is the gloom prevailing under the sea surface. The submarine must feel its way about as best it can, guided by indications gathered from above.

The Winter Dancing club will give a formal party at Hartle hall Tuesday evening.

Friday Mrs. B. H. Dunham will have a luncheon of six at the Blackstone. Saturday Mrs. Emil Ganz has made reservations for sixty at luncheon and cards and for the Saturday evening dinner-dance.

What Society Has in Prospect. Mrs. T. F. Hanley and Miss Margaret Cullen will entertain Saturday of this week and Wednesday next week for Mrs. J. A. Cullen and Mrs. Frank J. Cullen.

Idea of a Submarine is at Least Three Hundred Years Old. When history is making itself as swiftly as today, past conditions retreat like the shrinking track of a railroad seen from the rear platform of an express train.

Biography itself could not furnish a better example of the necessity of a proper environment for the development of new forms, or of the quickness with which such forms may multiply when all the needed conditions are present.

As a farewell to her old home, the Edward Kennedy place at 2224 Dodge street, Mrs. W. W. Grigor is entertaining at tea tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6.
