Mexican On Trial for Killing Special Officer Cross

Macario Peres Romers, 25-year-old Mexican, is on trial in Judge Sears' district court, charged with the murder of Cornelius E. Cross, a special officer for the Northwestern railroad.

When the jurors were being impanneled each was asked if he favored the death penalty. Only three replied in the negative.

Romers, together with Miguel Aguirre and ulian Lopez, alias Julian Gonzales, were surprised in the act of robbing a freight car in the Omaha railroad yards on the night of January 21. Special Officer Cross ordered the Mexicans to surrender and they opened fire with revolvers, mortally wounding him.

Though weak from loss of blood, Cross gave chase, pumping several bullets into the darkness in the direction of the fleeing freight car robbers.

Romers, said by the police to be the leader of the trio and the man who fired the shot that killed Cross, was captured shortly afterward. He had three bullets in him. The Mexican is still weak from his wounds.

Lopez, alias Gonzales, pleaded guilty to a charge of second degree murder several weeks ago and was sentenced to twenty years in the state penitentiary by Judge Sears. He will be brought to Omaha to testify at Romers' trial. Aguirre, the third member of the band, is to be tried next week.

Chief Deputy Attorney Abbott and Deputy Attorney O'Sullivan are representing the state.

Associated Charities Plan for an Outing

A committee to co-ordinate the work of instituting summer outing camps this year was appointed at the noon meeting of the Associated Charities. The committee consists of Major McCormick of the Volunteers of America, Miss Magee of the City Mission, Gus Miller of the Juvenile Court and Captain Patten of the Salvation Army.

Some time was given in the meeting to a discussion of how to meet the problem of the winter floaters who annually come to Omaha and who have hitherto made headquarters largely in the saloons. The Associated Charities wishes to substitute some form of amusement house, or lounging house, to accommodate fellows of this type. No definite plan was agreed upon.

ANOTHER OMAHA GIRL ENLISTS—Miss Erna Hadra joins wireless branch of the service

MISS ERNA HADRA.

Miss Erna Hadra, a pretty Omaha girl, today enlisted in the wireless telegraphy corps of the National League for Woman Service. She is versatile and no novice in telegraphy. Miss Hadra mastered the Morse code several years ago when she and Hugo Heyn had an amateur wireless outfit. She can "splice wires" and do a lot of other practical things.

The new recruit offered her services as instructor in physical drill classes soon to be formed. She held a similar position in Central High school and is the first to offer to serve in this capacity. She also is an expert swimmer.

Miss Hadra is known for the "different" things she does. When pink teas and social diversions palled on her, she went into her father's insurance offices and learned the business. Now she sells insurance to women and is one of the few women in Omaha engaged in that line of work.

Business Houses Taking Best of the Young Men

Physical, moral and mental examinations are required of applicants for jobs in a certain large oil plant in Texas, according to N. M. Hite of Houston, Tex., who spoke to the Salesmanship club of Omaha at the Hotel Fontenelle Monday night. "Confidence in Salesmen" was his subject. He said one must build real manhood all the time and that with every business house today scouring the country for real men, the outlook for the army, which is also looking for real men, is not so bright. J. L. Ferciot of the Western Union and N. P. Sass of the Thomas Kilpatrick company were the other speakers of the evening. President Joseph Barker was in the chair. The next meeting is to be held at the Commercial club rooms next Monday evening, when moving pictures are to be shown and another lecture on salesmanship delivered.

Holden Urges Employes Of Burlington to "Do Bit"

Hale Holden, president of the Burlington, in a letter addressed to officials and employes of the company, after setting forth the resolution adopted by the Council of National Defense, adopted in Washington, at a conference held April 11, urges the co-operation of all forces of the company in supporting the government "to our utmost in this crisis and to lend in every way our services to a successful termination of the war that is upon us."

In urging action upon officials and employes, Mr. Holden adds:

The men required for the army and in the production, manufacture and assembling of munitions and supplies will limit the number available for railroad service, and at a time when more service will be required of the railroads than ever before. So to "do our bit" we must all work harder and more efficiently, not only that the military forces and supplies may be handled expeditiously, but so that foodstuffs, material and supplies of all kinds directly and indirectly necessary in the carrying on of the preparations our government has undertaken, may be handled with the minimum of friction and delay.

SEVEN BILLION WAR BILL UP IN SENATE

Stone Sounds Discordant Note, but Says He Will Accept Judgment of Committee.

SIMMONS URGES UNITY

Washington, April 17.—Consideration of the $7,000,000,000 war finance bill was begun today in the senate.

Senator Stone, opponent of most of the administration war measures, announced that he would vote for its passage, but thought it should have been framed along different lines and reserved the right to state his views later.

"This is a war measure, however, and I accept the judgment of the committee," said Senator Stone.

Senator Simmons predicted that after the present issue another issue probably will be necessary.

"This bill represents all we can do now," he said, "all they are asking us to do. In the name of America, of patriotism, of liberty and democracy, let us do it now, quickly, without carping or hesitation, in the spirit of men inspired by the cause for which we are fighting. Let us give to the German kaiser and his people and to all their innuendoes that we are obsessed with wealth and that the canker of riches has taken possession of the American people, this answer.

"The conversion privilege has been found absolutely necessary by all the European governments. Probably we will have to pay more for money within a very short time."

Senator Penrose, senior republican of the committee, also said the conversion privilege was necessary.
