Smith Weakens in Last Round and Boston Carries Off the Game by Two-Four.

U. S. FLAG GIVEN NEW YORK

New York, April 20.—New York lost to Boston today in a brilliant fourteen-inning game, 4 to 2. It was a splendid pitchers' battle. Smith, a former Columbia pitcher, weakened in the fourteenth, when singles by Massey and Collins and a pass to Konetchy filled the bases. J. Smith forced Massey at the plate, but Kelly's single sent in Collins and Konetchy with the winning run.

Before the game a large floral American flag was presented to the Giants by the Lambs' club, Digby Bell, the actor, making the presentation. The game was preceded by a parade by three men impersonating the spirit of 1776. The Boston team, led by Manager Stallings, gave a short military drill. Score:

Storm Prevents Creighton From Playing Nebraska

Dick Rutherford with University of Nebraska base ball squad arrived in Omaha Thursday night, but because of wet grounds and cold weather, the base ball contest with Creighton was postponed. The Nebraska team left for Lincoln last night and will not play today as had been planned.

Coach Rutherford said that there was small possibility of Creighton meeting the Cornhuskers this season as he had his schedule practically full.

It has been ten years since Creighton and Nebraska teams have met.

Bloomer Girls And U. P. League Open Season Today

If climatic conditions show a tendency to permit humans to frolic on the green this afternoon, the Union Pacific base ball league and the Omaha Bloomer Girls' league will open their seasons with great pomp.

For several years the Union Pacific has always been represented in local base ball warfare by teams representing various department, but this season the ink splashers decided to organize a league of their own. It will be christened this afternoon. Many of the Union Pacific employes dug their jeans and unearthed a few jitneys to start the league. Anyway, the job is finished and here is how and when the different teams will be seen in action: Signal Department against M. P. A., Fontenelle park, 4 p. m.; Engineers against Nebraska Division, Miller park, 4 p. m.; Superintendent of Transportation against Traffic Department, Elmwood park, west diamond, 4 p. m.; Auditors against Passenger Department, Thirty-second and Dewey avenue, 4 p. m.
