HAPPENINGS IN THE MAGIC CITY

Work on Morton Park Swimming Pool Pushed to Maximum Speed.

MARKET TOPPLES OVER

Morton park's big swimming pool ordered by the city some weeks ago as a result of a campaign for park equipment by residents of the West Q and West L street districts, is well under course of construction. John Schultz, assistant to Park Commissioner Hummel, has a gang of twenty men at work since April 1. The major part of the excavation has been done.

The pool will be the largest on the South Side. It is in round numbers forty by eighty feet in size and is constructed of concrete filling. A bath house will be built alongside. Concrete filling will start Monday.

Six weeks will be required to finish the job. The park department also plans to build bleachers at the new base ball diamond in Maple avenue. Two games were played there last Sunday under the auspices of city leagues.

Market Topples Over.

With Chicago top hogs at $15.70 and Omaha tops a bare 10 cents less in comparison with the $16.20 and $16.25 tops of a week ago, local shippers believe the market is "on the run." Cattle also declined earlier in the week at a rapid rate, but steadied yesterday and held to $12.85 as a top. The average sold from $9.50 up.

Local commission men say packers in offering their plants to the government are mainly responsible for the decline. High priced feed also cuts a figure.

Florist Dies Suddenly.

John Krawczyk, aged 35 years, Austrian born, a florist in the employ of Henderson florist gardens, died while at work at 9:
