

"MAC" BALDRIGE IS TAPPED AT OLD ELI

Omaha Student One of the Few of the Country to Be So Highly Honored.

LUTHER KOUNTZE IN LIST

Malcolm Baldrige, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Baldrige, was one of the Yale men honored at the annual "tap day" exercises held at Yale college Thursday, being tapped for the famous Skull and Bones. It was one of the honors that could be conferred upon a Yale undergraduate.

Young Baldrige was a member of the Yale foot ball team last season. He is ranked as one of the prominent athletes of the eastern university and has won fame as wrestler as well as other branches of sport.

The Omaha young man is probably the only son of old Eli from this city honored at the "tap day" exercises in recent years. Most of the Yale graduates of the younger generation here were "tech" students and therefore not eligible to societies like Skull and Bones and Scroll and Keys.

L. L. Kountze of the well known Omaha family was tapped for Scroll and Key when he was a student at Yale years ago.

Welkins Rustin, Omaha High school '89, was killed during an instance at Yale, having been run into a wagon tongue on the street. Younger former Yale men here could not recall an instance of another Omahan being honored at the "tap day" exercises in the last few years.

Exercises Earlier. "Tap day" exercises were held at Yale college Thursday, six weeks in advance of the customary day the last Thursday in May, because of the extraordinary conditions created by the war. Eleven of the undergraduates elected to the senior societies were tapped at Palm Beach, Fla. where they are serving with the Yale aerial coast patrol unit. Among these five were tapped for Skull and Bones and six for Scroll and Keys.

A feature of the exercises was the tapping of Charles P. Tait, 24, son of former President Tait, as the fifteenth, or last, man to Skull and Bones—the highest honor that could be accorded. Newell Garfield of West Mentor, O., a grandson of the martyred president, was the first man tapped for "Bones," the next honorary choice.

Robert B. Deans of Phoenixville, Pa., refused a tender from Keys and was tapped by Skull and Bones. Ethan A. Shepley of St. Louis was tapped by Scroll and Keys after he had refused an election to Wolf's Head. Among others tapped by the three societies were:

Skull and Bones—Charles J. Stewart, Dallas, Tex.
Tapped at Palm Beach—Artemus L. Gates, Clinton, Ia.
Scroll and Keys—Wilmarth S. Lewis, Alameda, Cal.

ALLIES MAKE BIG PROFITS IN WHEAT

Deals Through Chicago Brokers Result in Gains of Many Millions in Two Months.

BIG JUMP IN PRICES

Chicago, April 20.—The allied governments, dealing through Chicago brokers, are credited today with having made a profit of more than $3,500,000 in the last two months in turns on the grain market by changing from one option to the other. This profit, it is said, was made by selling a line of July wheat and buying the September option at a price approximately 30 cents below the July option. The allies, it is said, for a year have simply had speculative profits forced on them. They had no desire to speculate, but bought for future delivery with the desire to obtain actual wheat. Car shortages, embargoes and the inadequacy of ocean shipping prevented deliveries at specified times and the contracts were sold out at profits running well into the millions. At the opening of the market today July wheat shot up 7 cents to $2.11, and September 13 1/4 cents to $1.89.

Omaha Women Rejoice at Progress Of Suffrage Bill in State Senate

Mrs. Anna C. Metcalf Gives Credit to Co-Workers for Prospective Enfranchisement in Nebraska.

NOT RESULT OF WAR SPIRIT

War and the way Nebraska women are organizing to "do their bit" had nothing to do with the favorable report on the suffrage bill by the senate committee, Omaha women believe. "It was Mrs. Barkley of Lincoln working away at the senate, sitting there day after day and watching the status of the bill, to whom credit is due," said Mrs. Anna Cornish Metcalf, president of the Equal Franchise league. Mrs. Metcalf said the greatest joy she had ever experienced was when she notified her board members Thursday of the suffrage victory. "Their surprise and joy was touching," she said. "The progress of the prohibition bill during the last week made the outcome of the suffrage bill certain," was Mrs. H. C. Sumney's comment. "It was bound to come. Any set of men with a sense of justice and fair play would see it." Mrs. Sumney, with Mrs. James Richardson, Mrs. Edward Burke and Mrs. T. E. Brady, worked unceasingly in the campaign, deluging members of the legislature with telegrams, telephone calls and suffrage literature. Mrs. E. M. Fairfield, formerly city central suffrage chairman, was not inclined to rejoice prematurely. "I can't believe it until the governor signs the bill," she said. "The assurance of the franchise for women in England and Russia, President Wilson's stand that the democratic party was pledged to give women the vote and the six or seven states which recently have given whole or partial suffrage to women this winter must have had some weight with the Nebraska legislators," she said. "The anti's have helped, too, in the way they have rallied to do patriotic service as the suffragists also have done. The anti's have demonstrated that woman's place is not in the home." When there is work to be done out of the home it must be done," she added.

Stecher Throws Linow In Two Easy Falls

Kansas City, Mo., April 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Joe Stecher has again displayed his ability to apply the body scissor hold. With his use he defeated Ivan Linow, a giant Russian, last night. He won in straight falls, the first being gained in eighteen minutes and the second in thirteen minutes. Stecher's physical condition was not what it had been in former contests here, due to a strenuous campaign. But he was too powerful for the Russian, although Linow out weighed him by about twenty pounds. Frank Gotch refereed.

ANTI-AMERICAN RIOT AT CHICAGO

Five Italians Who Refused to Shout for Germany Set Upon by Mob and Badly Beaten.

ONE DIES IN HOSPITAL

Chicago, April 20.—Five alleged anti-American rioters are under arrest today, following the death of Gregario Inquandi, who was beaten to death because he shouted "Vive America." Inquandi, with four others, was set upon by twenty men while walking along West Grand avenue singing American songs and waving American flags. Four of the men assailed escaped, but with broken ribs and bruises. Inquandi was knocked down and kicked and beaten and his skull fractured. He died at a hospital. The victims were walking along the street when accosted by their assailants and ordered to throw down their flags and shout for Germany. This they refused to do and a fight ensued in which four were badly beaten and Inquandi suffered fatal injuries. All of the five were of Italian blood. Alleged Traitor Arrested. Steamboat Springs, Colo., April 20.—Nick Eiloff, a Bulgarian, was held in jail today on a charge of treason, having been arrested by county officers yesterday while a crowd was threatening to attack him for threats he was alleged to have made against the life of the president. William Sikis, a commissioner, argued with the crowd until the sheriff arrived.
