FORSYTHE'S LEAP CRIPPLES ROURKES

May Get Away to Bad Start Owing to Hole in the Right Garden.

REST OF TEAM LOOKS GOOD

By FRED S. HUNTER.

Cy Forsythe's unexpected and unannounced brodie to the Arizona Topper league may so seriously handicap the Rourkes that Pa's hopefuls will get away to a bad start on the 1917 flight for the well known pen-

The absence of the eccentric Cy makes a bad hole in the outer garden. Forsythe had been playing the sun held in the Western league for half a dozen years and he knew how to nattle old Sol to a fare-you-well. As a result he made a pretty fair right-fielder even though he could not be placed in the sensational class and he occasionally committed mental mis-

It is the offensive strength, however, which has been weakened by Cy's desertion. John McGraw once said of Forsythe that he could hit right. During his long career in the Zehrung loop Cy never failed to land below the coveted mark.

TAYLOR FRIDAY EVE

Omaha Heavyweight and Canadian Champion Battle for Right to Meet Caddoock.

Shag Goes Good.

Shag Thompson played great ball both games. He staged some incatches, hit the ball hard and ran bases like a second edition of Ty Cobb. He swiped four bases all told, but the Denyer official scorers overlooked one of them and he only got credit for three.

Earl Smith scems to be better than ever, while Burg and Krug are playing the same consistent game that characterized their work last year. Harold Irelan is playing great ball at second, fielding sensationally and slugging the grenade at all times.

Omaha fans are likely to forget Ernic Kreuger after they watch Tony Brottem a while. He certainly is a sweet catcher. He is like a mechinal ship of learning opposition batters weeknesses. Few bases will be stolen at Tony this year. And he hits emits used a hone run over the left field fence in Denver and that left field wall in the Mile High city is a long way out. The hurlers appear to be in good.

Throws Michaloff Twice

Louisville, Ky., April 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Earl Caddock, winner over Joe Stecher, had little trouble in flopping Ivan Michaloff, a Russian wrestler, here tonight.

Caddock slammed the Russian for the first fall.

The second fall required but ten minutes and fifty seconds and the work was done with a leg scissors and a half Nelson.

Michaloff weighed in at 220 pounds, while Caddock tipped the beam around 180 pounds. Weight did not make any difference, however, for Caddock went around the Russian like a wheel around the hub.

Once during the first fall Michaloff got behind Caddock, but just for a moment.

Omaha Wins Opening Battle of Series With Wolves by Score of Seven to Six.

SECURES AN EARLY LEAD

Wichita, Kas., April 21 .- (Special Telegram.)-Omaha won the opening game of the series here today by a 7 to 6 score. The Rourke's secured a seven-run lead in the first six innings. Barham pitched shutout ball for six innings, getting out of two holes when the bases were full. He weak-ened in the seventh and two walks and a single and sacrifice fly scored and a single and sacrifice fly scored two runs.

Four runs scored on four hits in the eighth. Yaryan opened with a home run. Barham had two balls on Rapp's, who batting for Lyons and Curry, was sent to the mound.

Curry walked Rapps and Goodwin.

C. Thompson replaced Curry, Harvey was safe when Brokaw dropped Irelan's throw. Rapps scored on a wild nitch.

ROURKES WILL TRY FOR THE CAPPER CUP

President Zehrung Will Address Commercial Club and Rotarians Here.

DENVER IS STARTING FAST

President Frank Zehrung of the Western League, will speak before he Rotary club in Omaha, Wedneshe Rotary club in Omaha Wednesday to arouse the interest of the members in the opening of the league season for Omaha May 1. He will also speak before the Omaha Commercial club the next day to tell the husiness men what it will mean to Omaha for them to get behind the champion Rourkes.

In the Western there is always a contest among the various cities for the Capper cup which is given to the city which has the largest crowd at the opening game. Last year this was won by Omaha through the activity of the Rotary club, which paid the entrance fee for several thousand of the larger kiddies of the public schools.

The Rourkes got away to a bad start on the championship season and

The Rourkes got away to a bad start on the championship season and although Pa Rourke has sent no excuses this probably is accounted for by the snow storms in which the games were played before small crowds at Denver. Now the Rourkes are in sunny Kansas and they hope to give a better account of themselves. Pa Rourke is now hustling for a hard hitting outfielder to take the place of Cy Forsythe, who jumped the team at Denver Thursday to go to a smaller league where he evidently thinks he has a better chance to be a king.

St. Joseph Pitchers Strong.

St. Joseph Pitchers Strong.

Des Moines seems to have gathered together a great club in spite of their bad start at St. Joseph. Jack Coffey is managing the club this year and that alone is sufficient to give the fans of the Iowa town reason to believe that they will be well up in the race throughout the season.

Over in Lincoln the fans are building strong hopes and mainly because of the fact that Ducky Holmes never has a team which is not in the running.

Schedules for the Year

The first golf schedule to be issued by the Omaha Women's Golf association is now in the hands of the members. Since its formation in 1913 the association has steadily grown until now it has to its credit one city tournament, one state tournament and many games at the different clubs. The officers for this year are Mrs. Walter G. Silver, president; Mrs. Felix J. Despecher, vice president; Mrs. Harry L. Arnold, vice president; Mrs. Allan Parmer, secretary; and Mrs. Karl Lininger, treasurer. Under their direction the best schedules of golf events ever planned for Omaha women has been arranged. The schedule with dates, places and style of play is as follows:

April 30, Monday, 12:30 p. m. Field club, handicap match against blind bogey.
