Governor Neville did not set out any trees, but he appointed M. R. Sullivan, of O'Neill, state bank examiner, to succeed M. C. Wilds, of Norfolk, who resigned to become a national bank examiner a short time ago. Mr. Sullivan has been county treasurer of Holt county and with banking institutions at O'Neill and Atkinson.

The proud little King, first monarch of his time, King of all England, in rags, beaten, threatened, had but one friend, Miles Hendon—and he thought the child mad and was good to him in pity. And the ragged street child, dressed in the King's fine robes, bewildered and terrified, sat in the Palace. What a reckoning when the truth came out! What an amazed Miles Hendon! Was ever beloved and gallant Knight more gloriously rewarded?
Who of us so lucky as to have a friend like Miles Hendon—so wronged, so loyal, so kind and so gallant! And the little street child in the King's Palace—what man does not wish to help him—what mother would not like him for a son?
