Champions of Draft Measure Certain of Success in Congress Washington, April 23.—The administration's war army bill will be under debate in both houses of congress tomorrow with right of way over all other legislation until passed. Interest centers upon the house, where spokesmen for President Wilson will oppose the majority of the military committee over the selective draft plan. A vote may be reached Wednesday. In the senate, it is regarded as certain that the measure, as drawn by the general staff and approved by the president will be passed there by a substantial majority. Champions of the bill believe it will pass the house also. Chairman Dent of the house military committee and nine other committeemen will make the fight for the bill as reported by them, which proposes that the army shall be raised by calls for volunteers in increments of 500,000 and that the draft shall be resorted to only after that system has failed.

TODAY'S AID TO BEAUTY Hair is by far the most conspicuous thing about us, and is probably the most easily damaged by bad or careless treatment. If we are very careful in hair washing we will have virtually no hair troubles. An especially fine shampoo for this weather, one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair, that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be used at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of canthox (which you can get at any druggist) in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. This chemically dissolves all impurities and creates a soothing, cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a softness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After a canthox shampoo, arranging the hair is a pleasure.—Advertisement.

Kaiser Says Allied Offensive a Failure

Amsterdam (Via London), April 23.—An official dispatch from Berlin says Emperor William has sent the following telegram to the crown prince: "The troops of all the German tribes under your command, with total hard determination and strongly led, have brought to failure the great French attempt to break through on the Aisne and in Champagne. "There, also, the infantry again has to bear the brunt, and, thanks to the indefatigable assistance of the artillery and other arms, has accomplished great things in its death-defying perseverance and irresistible attacks. "Convey my and the fatherland's thanks to the leaders and men. The battle on the Aisne and in the Champagne is not yet over, but all who fight and bleed there shall know that the whole of Germany will remember their deeds and is as one with them to carry through the fight for existence to a vigorous end. God grant it."

Alkali in Soap Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary maligned coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly and it leaves the scalp soft and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get maligned coconut oil at any pharmacy; it's very cheap and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Adv.

MUSTN'T YIELD FOR FEW BITES OF BREAD

Manifesto to German People Urges Them to Hold Out for While Longer.

EVERYTHING IS AT STAKE

Amsterdam (Via London), April 23.—An appeal to the German people not to give in for the sake of a mouthful of bread, but "to hold out only a little while longer" is printed in the Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung. "America found out," says the statement, "that England will be beaten and she entered the war to save what she could of the money put in the munition business. Shall we let America reap the profits? Set your teeth and it will soon be over. Remember all is at stake." The association of Christian trades unions of Berlin in a manifesto couples an affirmation of loyalty to the German emperor and empire with a strong condemnation of strikes, which it says "do not provide a single grain more bread and the enemy, like a drowning man, is grasping at the straw, eagerly watching for the least sign of disunion in Germany." "Therefore," says the manifesto, "all must stand pat."
