

CASH WHEAT GOES UP EIGHTEEN CENTS

Two Eighty-Five Per Bushel is Paid by Millers to Grind Into Flour.

CORN AND OATS FOLLOW

Cash wheat on the Omaha market made a rapid climb toward the $3 mark, selling all the way from $2.78 up to $2.85 per bushel, an advance of 12 to 18 cents over night. A new top was marked up and even at the high prices the tables were cleared of all the offerings and buyers clamored for more, the demand coming largely from mills. Receipts were fifteen carloads. A new top price was marked up on corn when the cereal advanced 3 to 4 1/2 cents and sold at $1.53@1.64 1/2 a bushel. Receipts were sixty-five carloads and nothing remained unsold when the market closed. Oats shot up 2 1/2@2 1/2 cents, establishing a new high and selling at around 73 1/2 cents per bushel, with fifty-three carloads on the market. The option was fully as strong as the cash and the advance nearly as great.

May Wheat Up Too. On the Omaha exchange the May wheat sold at $2.60@2.72 1/2, as against $2.52@2.61 Wednesday, while Chicago May sold at $2.53 1/2@2.60, as against $2.44@2.52 Wednesday. Omaha July sold at $2.19@2.27 1/2, as against $2.09 1/2@2.18 1/2 on the previous day.

The Omaha May option on corn was $1.50@1.52 and July $1.45@1.46, as against $1.45@1.46 1/2 for May and $1.41@1.44 yesterday.

The Chicago corn option was under Omaha, May selling at $1.49 1/2@1.52 and July at $1.44 @ 1.45 1/2.

Most of the local dealers are in a bullish mood on account of the increased demand for all kinds of grain, while others see lower prices on account of what they assert will result in improved crop conditions by reason of the precipitation reported to be pretty general over the central grain belt.

Daylight Robbers Given Long Terms in the Pen

Joseph Turner and Frank Lake, alleged grocery store "ice box robbers," were sentenced to fourteen years and fifteen years, respectively, in the penitentiary by Judge Sears, sitting in criminal court. A jury returned a verdict of "guilty" Wednesday, after deliberating less than thirty minutes.

The men were charged with having locked Fred Hawkins, a grocer, in his ice box and then robbed his store. The robbery occurred on February 23.

Turner, the older of the duo, was given the longer sentence, so Judge Sears said, "they would not get out of the penitentiary at the same time and continue their life of crime."

Omaha Militiaman Dies On Duty at Plattsmouth

Roy Peters, an Omaha volunteer, who joined Company C of the Fourth Nebraska National Guard when the first call was issued four weeks ago, died of heart trouble Thursday morning at Plattsmouth, where he had been on guard duty.

Miss Oda Mafie, 1025 West Fourteenth avenue, Denver, was named by Peters as his beneficiary and closest friend or relative when he enlisted. She has been notified, and the body is held at Plattsmouth until word from her is received.

Peters was middle aged and had served four terms in the regular army before joining the Guard, Major Todd said.

Former Farmer Loses Part Of Roll to New Found Friend

John Prouel, former farmer of Mullen, saved $4,000, but lost $370 to a new found friend.

Prouel came to Omaha yesterday afternoon after selling his homestead at Mullen, which he had farmed for four years. It was mighty lonely on the little farm, he said, so when he arrived he made up his mind to make up for all that he had sacrificed in the way of pleasure there. In a saloon on lower Douglas street he met a man who said he knew him. The friend took Prouel about the city and in the evening invited himself to share Prouel's room at the Paxton.

Prouel hung his coat on the back of a chair and left the room for a few minutes. When he returned the friend was gone. Likewise the $370, but the $4,000 was safe.

Lignite Coal Briquettes Are Made in North Dakota

The Johnson Fuel company's briquetting plant at Scranton, N. D., made its first trial run yesterday with splendid success, making 100 lignite coal briquettes without the use of a binder per minute during the entire run.

The Johnson Fuel company expects to build on other lines of railroad where there are large beds of lignite coal, and thus distribute this manufactured fuel to the entire middle west.

Various Forms Of Headache

"It is necessary in order to treat headaches properly to understand the causes which produce the affection," says Dr. J. W. Kay, of Blockton, Ala. Continuing, he says, "Physicians cannot even begin the treatment of a disease without knowing what causes give rise to it, and we must remember that headache is to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to counteract the cause which produces the headache, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of the trouble has been removed. To secure this purpose anti-kamnia tablets will be found a most convenient and satisfactory remedy. One tablet every one to three hours gives comfort and rest in the most severe cases of headache, neuralgia, and particularly the headache of women. When we have a patient subject to regular attacks of such headache and when he feels the least sign of an oncoming attack, he should take two A-K Tablets. Obtainable at druggists in any quantity desired."

First Yeomanette to Volunteer Here in Uncle Sam's Navy Service

Woman Enlists and Sworn in to Serve in Omaha Recruiting Office as Stenographer.

MISS RUBY JANE BUSSE.

Omaha's first yeomanette to volunteer for active duty here was enlisted and sworn in to service Wednesday afternoon. She is Miss Ruby Jane Busse, 27, daughter of William H. Busse, 2444 Fontenelle boulevard. "I just want to do my bit in the war," she said modestly. "Please don't say anything about it."

As she is a stenographer in the railway mail service at the federal building, Miss Busse will not assume her new duties at the navy recruiting station for a week. However, she took the enlistment oath before Lieutenant Waddell Wednesday. She volunteered as yeoman, second class, in the naval coast defense reserve.

As soon as she is released from her present civilian position she will take up active yeomanette duty, including stenography and clerical work, at the navy recruiting station in the Paxton block. "No, I don't expect to wear a uniform. I can serve Uncle Sam just as well without that," she said. "I'm glad there is something I can do to help the navy in the war."

Miss Busse has a brother, 21 years of age, who wants to join the army. One of her grandfathers fought in the civil war. She was born in Council Bluffs.

Court House Employee Now is an Army Officer

County court will furnish the first soldier in the court house for the war. He is an officer. For two years has been just plain Joe Fraser, probate clerk. Now it's Lieutenant Joseph Fraser, United States army reserve corps. Fraser's commission has just arrived. The only military training he ever received was at the Plattsmouth, N. Y., camp last summer. When war clouds loomed up Fraser took the examination for the officers' reserve corps and passed with flying colors. He will leave for Fort Snelling, Minn., next week, visiting in Walnut, Ia., where his parents live, a few days before entering upon his active duties as an army man.

The commission lifted him to fame in the court house.

Miss Van Antwerp Says She is Victim of Burglars

Miss Belle Van Antwerp, Clairmont Inn, reports to police the theft of $520 worth of clothing from her room some time Wednesday night. One tan and blue suit coat which she values at $150, one pure silk suit coat worth $95, two dresses worth $100, four silk bloomers valued at $12 are included in the loot.

Mrs. C. F. McGrew, 218 South Thirty-eighth avenue, says that sometime during the last week a valuable diamond brooch was stolen from her room. One large diamond flanked with nine small ones are contained in the brooch.

Packing House Foreman Tries to Kill Himself

Al Harder, 67 years old, 3637 Q streets, shot himself twice in the mouth in an attempt at suicide. He was taken to the county hospital, where it is said he has a fair chance for recovery. He was foreman of Cudaly's tin shop. Fifteen years ago he shot himself in the head in a suicidal attempt. It is believed his present attempt was induced by temporary insanity caused by stomach trouble.

Connell Not Disturbed Over Measles Epidemic

"I am not disturbed over the measles situation in Omaha," said Health Commissioner Connell. In March there were 193 cases in Omaha and 2,210 in Denver.

RED CROSS SOCIETY NEEDS NEW MEMBERS

Crusade for "Minimum a Million" Helpers is Launched Throughout Nation.

GOULD DIETZ IN CHARGE

"The greatest service anyone can do right now for Uncle Sam is to join the Red Cross and help the membership campaign," said Gould Dietz, who has returned from a trip to Chicago, where he went to get pointers from headquarters about the Chicago campaign. The campaign will be launched the middle of May.

Business men in Chicago are lending every possible effort to make their campaign a success, and many of the wealthy ones are giving up their business to work for the cause. Mr. Sprague Warner, chairman of the campaign and a big manufacturer, has offered to come out here and boost ours," said Mr. Dietz.

Mr. Dietz had a two hours' conference with H. J. Hill, director of the bureau of membership extension, who is making a membership drive with the slogan, "A Minimum Membership of a Million." He is optimistic enough to believe that number will be raised within next three months, "but Omaha must get to work and do its share," said Mr. Dietz.

Mr. Dietz secured Mr. Hill to manage the Omaha campaign.

The society here is at scarcely any expense, just the salary of a stenographer, and so half of every membership fee goes to the local fund, the other half to the national.

Mr. Dietz has eighty sustaining memberships already, he says. However, many of them wish to get half the money, but these are not accepted. "They must be given entirely for charity or not at all," said Mr. Dietz.

"Everyone in Omaha should be wearing a Red Cross button to show their patriotism and loyalty," he said. While in Chicago he saw Mrs. Joseph Cudaly, formerly of this city, who has a class of 500 girls who are learning home nursing and to make hospital supplies.

The committee will meet the first of the week to make definite plans and to choose a new treasurer to fill the place of the late W. H. Bucholz.

The membership of the local society, according to statistics given out this morning by W. G. Ure, secretary of Omaha chapter, indicate alone the necessity for more money:

Annual members, at $1 each.....102
Sustaining members, at $10 each.....48
Life members, at $25.....1

The subscribing membership fee includes the Red Cross Magazine for a year.

Relief Workers Prepare To Tighten Organization

Mrs. O. C. Redick will speak this evening in agricultural hall, court house, at 8 o'clock to the Sons and Daughters of Civil War Veterans and Garfield circle of the Grand Army leaders on war relief work. The women of the two organizations have offered their services and will meet next week at the new Red Cross rooms in the Baird building to assist in the work there. The exact time of their meetings has not been set.

Mrs. Robert Stoddard is the leader of the Daughters of the Civil War Veterans and Mrs. Frank Parmony is the captain of the Garfield circle.

Beautiful Lawn of Old Turner Home a Garden

No beautiful, sloping lawn will surround the Freshlyman Medical hospital at Thirty-fourth and Farnam streets this year. A plow has already cut into the sod to ruin the lawn and truck garden products are being planted. Thus does beauty fade before stern necessity.

Mrs. Lange Seriously Ill as Result of Fall

Mrs. Margaret Lange, for fifty years a resident of Omaha, lies at the point of death in St. Joseph's hospital, the result of a bad fall. She is a member of the Douglas County Pioneers' association and the original German Kaffee club, the oldest social club in the city.

A son, Frank, was summoned from the east, arriving today. There are two daughters, Mrs. M. A. Nagl and Miss Freda Lange.

Loiterer Fatally Shot by Guard Near N. Y. Bridge

New York, April 26.—Sentries guarding the waterfront under the Brooklyn terminal of the Manhattan bridge, which crosses the East river, today shot and probably fatally wounded a man found loitering near a machinery factory. The victim gave the name of John Smith, Russian laborer.

Hold Memorial Meeting For Late T. J. Mahoney

A memorial meeting for the late Timothy J. Mahoney, prominent Omaha attorney, will be held in the court room in the federal building Friday, May 4, at 10 a. m.

This was ordered by United States Circuit Judge Walter L. Smith and District Judges J. W. Woodrough and T. C. Munger. The following were appointed a special committee to prepare and submit resolutions on the life, character and service of Mr. Mahoney: William F. Gurley, Constantine J. Smyth, Judge Lee S. Estelle, Frank H. Gaines, Edgar H. Scott, N. H. Loomis and Raymond G. Young.

Woman Catches Junk Man In Act of Removing Stove

When James Eggerton, junk dealer, picked up a stove that was lying in the rear of 2504 Emmet street Wednesday he reckoned without Mrs. Minnie Ballard, the owner of the stove. She not only raced down the alley after him, but she plucked the stove from his wagon and had him arrested for attempted larceny and assault. Eggerton paid a $15 fine in police court Thursday.

Just a Gentle Rub Shines

A RAW, SORE THROAT

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain. Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds on the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use.
