

What is Going On in Society Circles

Council Bluffs left Saturday for Memphis, Tenn., to visit their daughter, Mrs. Donald McFerron, who have had a house in Memphis for several months.

Mrs. Richard Carrier, who went to Vancouver, B. C., a year ago for the summer and then to San Diego, Cal., for the winter, returned to Omaha Tuesday and is at the Blackstone.

Mrs. Wilson Austin and little daughter Evelyn arrived Saturday from Pelham Manor, New York, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McGrew.

Miss Jean Barkalow, who is on her way home after attending a large Chicago wedding, arrives this morning for a short visit with her aunt, Mrs. B. B. Wood.

Wedding Surprise.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruth Kinsley of Kansas City, Kan., and Mr. Edwin Joos of the South Side was made in a unique fashion at an evening party given Tuesday by Mrs. Mary Joos. A wedding march was played by Mrs. Edith Sturgill, and the young couple, led by Rev. Charles F. Holler of Trinity Baptist church, took their places before the astonished guests. Instead of proceeding with the ceremony, however, their marriage certificate was produced and explanations followed. Eighty guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Joos are graduates of the local high school and are well known on the South Side.

Notes of Interest.

Mrs. Justus Lowe, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harding, goes from here to Minneapolis, her new home.

Miss Josephine Congdon left Baton Rouge Friday for Chicago, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Robert Forgan, before coming home. Miss Congdon has been south since February with her sister, Mrs. Herbert French.

Mrs. John A. Kuhn and Miss Marian Kuhn left Thursday for New York to see the latter's fiancé, Clarence Griffin, before his departure for the Plattsburgh training camp on May 8. Mrs. Kuhn and her daughter had expected to go east later, but Mr. Griffin's enlistment for the training camp hurried their departure.

Mrs. W. E. Barkley of Lincoln, president of the State Suffrage association, was in Omaha Thursday.

Mrs. Charles D. Beaton is expecting her mother, Mrs. E. A. Wurster, to arrive from Milwaukee to visit her.

Mrs. Edward Holyoke, who has been here with her children, returns this week to Madrid, Neb.

Mrs. Brinker, mother of Lawrence Brinker, comes from Chicago this week for the marriage of her son and Miss Mary Burkeley. Mrs. C. K. Coutant came from Chicago Monday and is the guest of Mrs. Frank Colpeter until after the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boyle have arrived in Omaha to make their home here. They are stopping temporarily at the Fontenelle.

Miss Helen Ingwersen will return tomorrow from St. Louis, where she has been visiting since her departure from Chicago. Miss Ingwersen served as bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Gertrude Leavitt to Mr. Harold Boyle of Omaha in the latter city.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Baldwin have returned from the western part of the state, where Mr. Baldwin has been under the care of his son, Dr. B. B. Baldwin, for the past month. As he was en route to his ranch near Dunning, Neb., Mr. Baldwin fell in Aurora, injuring his hip, so that he has been unable to walk. His condition is now much improved.

Mrs. Walter Hopewell of Tekamah and Mrs. Leonard Slansburg and Mrs. Earl Foster of Lincoln spent Saturday in Omaha, having come to attend the luncheon given by Mrs. Robert Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. Hopewell were in Lincoln for the Phi Gamma banquet and dance.

Miss Frances Barnhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Barnhart, has accepted a scholarship in Chicago university for the school year 1917-18. Miss Barnhart will secure her B. A. degree at Iowa university this June and the coming year in Chicago will be spent working upon a master's degree in science.
