LEGISLATURE FAILS TO PROVIDE FOR PAY

Appropriation Bill Fails to Provide Any Salary for State Bacteriologist.

UP TO ATTORNEY GENERAL

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Neb., May 2.—(Special).—Two years ago after the legislature adjourned it was discovered that the body had failed to make appropriations for payment of some of the salaries, among them the supreme court commissioners.

The recent legislature, it was discovered today, failed to make an appropriation to pay the salary of the state bacteriologist, Dr. Wild. The entry was in the bill when it went from the house to the senate, but in making changes in the upper body was left out of the bill as finally voted on.

There is an appropriation, however, of $10,000 in the maintenance bill which covers laboratory supplies and expenses, exclusive of office help. It is the opinion of some that the head bacteriologist may be able to get in under that appropriation. He draws $2,400 a year. The state auditor is not able to give an opinion as to whether the salary can be paid from the item, and will put it up to the attorney general for his opinion.
