With the exception of last week receipts so far this week are the largest in more than a smoth.

The market got off to another draggy start this morning. Shippers were out early, and while they paid $5 ile in higher prices for some hogs, they bought only a very few hoats, and then quit. It took quite a while for the packer buyers to get into action, but advices from all other points were builth, and it was just a case of how large the advance would be.

First packer offers were about like yesterday's close, or a little stronger than yesterday's close, or a little stronger than yesterday's close, or a little stronger than yesterday's average. but sellers who were out for at least 16e higher prices hung on, and in the end came near to getting them, balk of the hosp finally selling fully $9 its above yesterday's average. After a trading basis was agreed on the morement became fately lively, and the big end of the offerings had changed hands by shortly after middresnoon. On the close packers tried to weaken prices, but while late tounds were slow and the tendency a little cauter, values showed little or no quotable change. The uarket was generally $6 pto higher. The butk of the sales was made at $14.70 gt12.80 and choice heavies reached $15.75.

Central High Needs $1,000 For This Year's Annual

For This Year's Annual

More than $150 worth of ads for the Annual were turned in by Central High school pupils by the end of the first day of the "get an ad" campaign. The campaign will be continued until May 16. The mark set is $1.000.

On account of the high cost of print.

On account of the high cost of print supplies the Annual will cost more this year than formerly. Wasting Long Time for Pay Washington, May 3.—(Special Telegram.)—In a claim presented by John T. McKnight of Liucoln, the United States court of claims has decided McKnight was duly appointed second licetenant of Company B, Thirty-first Wisconsin voluncer infantry, October 8, 1863, but was not mustered out until February 7, 1863. During this period he performed his duties as second, licetenant, and was recognized and obeyed as such by his company, but was paid as first sergeant. The difference in pay involved is $231.69.

This decision of the court has been reported to congress and referred to the committee on war claims for proper action looking to an appropriation for payment.
