What is Going On in Society Circles

Dick Barkalow, who, with the late Mr. Barkalow, formerly lived in Omaha. Miss Barkalow is active in Red Cross work in Denver. She is very musical, not only plays the piano, but has composed a number of things for the piano.

Mrs. C. M. Swender is expected from California in a few weeks to join her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Mc-Creary, and little son, Jack, at the home of her brother, Mr. Gurdon W. Wattles. Mrs. McCreary, who is a charming young woman, will prove a popular addition to Omaha society circles if her uncle can persuade her to remain here while her husband is in active service. Mr. Wattles gave a dinner-dance party at the Country club Saturday evening in her honor. Mrs. Charles A. Dawley of Providence, R. I., has arrived in Omaha to spend a month with her sister, Mrs. Ralph W. Emerson.

Mrs. F. E. A. Smith of Portland, Ore., arrived in Omaha Friday to be the guest over Sunday of Miss Grace Lillie at the Lincoln apartments. Mrs. Smith will be remembered here as Miss Dora Cady, the first general secretary of the Young Women's Christian association, from 1895 to 1900. She is on her way to Cleveland to attend the annual meeting of the board of the American Woman's Baptist Missionary society, from May 8 to 22.

Mrs. Llewellyn Jones of Tacoma, Mrs. C. M. Swender is expected

Mrs. Llewellyn Jones of Tacoma, Wash, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Robert Doherty for several weeks, leaves Tuesday for her home. Mrs. Jones, who was formerly Miss Louise Doherty, is extremely popular and has been the center of much gayety since her arrival.

Mrs. J. Moses and children, Freida and Hilda, of Los Angeles, Cal., have arrived to visit Mrs. Jones' father, Mr. M. Levinson, and Mrs. Levinson.

Mrs. Henry Cox was re-elected president of the local alumnae Pi Beta Phi sorority at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. Anan Raymond Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Paul Wadsworth is vice president; Miss Gertrude Branch, treasurer, and Mrs. Clay Thomas, secretary, are the other officers. The society plans to begin Red Cross work as soon as it can secure a room and will devote its time once a week during the summer to that work.

Menck-Wilson Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson announce the marriage of their daughter, Evelyn B., to Mr. Roy A. Menck, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Menck of Grand Island, Neb., on Sunday, April 29. The wedding took place at the home of the bride at 6 in the afternoon. Rev. Edwin Hart Jenks of the First Presbyterian church officiated.

The bride's gown was of white satin and georgeite crepe, made short and very full. Over it fell a tulle veil which was caught around the head with a hand of lilies of the valley. She carried bride's roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. T. M. Carlisle, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Carlisle, best man. Mrs. Carlisle wore a gown of flesh colored tulle and silver cloth, caught with tiny rosebuds. She wore a corsage of Mrs. Ward roses.

Decorations throughout the house

Decorations throughout the house were in pink and white, with a back-

MAY 15th ALL DETROIT ELECTRIC CAR PRICES ADVANCE $100

You Need An Automobile and the Detroit Electric Is the Most Practical and Economical Type to Buy

Prices of materials and labor of all types have been steadily advancing for months past. This fact naturally affects the automobile manufacturer.

We have exhausted every effort to keep down the sales price of Detroit Electric Cars—but the time has now come when we, too, must advance prices, but before we advance, we offer you an opportunity to buy at present price.

When you buy a Detroit Electric before May 15th, you not only save $100, but you insure yourself against prohibitive operating expenses for the future-for if you own a Detroit Electric, you will not have to pay the excessive price for gasoline and oils which are mounting sky high. Where they will go to, no one can tell.

Further, the car is so simple to operate and so free from mechanical complication that you need no chauffeur nor mechanical services. Surely here is an opportunity for a big saving in your automobile service. The Detroit Electric, with windows lowered, is a perfect car for summer driving-with windows raised, it affords protection from rain, dust and wind, and offers the privacy of a limousine.

Your cost of current is but $5 to $7 per month. Tire mileage is double that of the gasoline car. Replacement and adjustment charges are Surely the modern Detroit is the practical, economical car to meet your motoring requirements of today.

By buying now you save $100. Don't delay! Make up your mind now and place your order before it is too late.
