OMAHA HAS FIELD DAY WITH JOSIES

Rourkes Knock Gover Off Ball and Run Wild on Bases for One-Sided Score.

THREE HITS OFF CURRIE

Colonel Murphy Currie from North Carolina subdued the Drummers with one run and three scattered blows yesterday afternoon and Pa Rourke's de luxe twenty-four cylinder machine breezed home with a 12 to 1 victory in a long and listless pastime which was cut short at the culmination of the seventh stanza on account of despress.

the seventh stanza on account of darkness.

Colonel Currie hurled his first league game for the Rourkes in Omaha yesterday and it was a very auspicious debut. The colonel was as wild as the proverbial March hare except in the pinches. Then he threw some nifty ball. Of the three hits made by the Josies one was very cratchy and the enemy's single tally was the result of a passed ball. The colonel whifted eight men in the seven stanzas.

Young Mr. Hovlik, who throws a smoke ball, started the hurling for St. Joseph, but he made a very disorderly retreat after the fourth round. Thomas, a southpaw youth, succeeded Hovlik and was battered even harder. Both Hovlik*and Thomas were wild, 100.

Both Hovlik and Thomas were wild, too.

Escapes First Round.

Hovlik escaped the first round, but in the second the Rourke artillery found the range said from then on it was all off with Holland's men. Bradley opened the second with a double. After Brottem fanned, Irelan walked and Brokaw singled to center, Bradley was cut down at the plate trying to score on the hit. Hovlik got excited and walked Currie, filling the bases. Joe Burg delivered a safety to left and Irelan and Brokaw scoted home.

Shag Thomason stated the second wind in the broken single, an infield hit by Haley. Curbases. Joe Burg delivered a safety to left and Irelan and Brokaw scooted home.

Shag Thompson started the third with a single and swiped second. He went to third on a passed ball, while Bradley was drawing a pass. Shag and Bill negotiated a double steal. Thompson scoring. Bradley counted on Brottem's single to left.

Krug's single, Thompson's force out, his steal of second, an error by Fusner and Earl Smith's single netted one in the fourth and ended the career of Mr. Hovilk.

The Rourkes greeted Thomas in the fifth by nicking him for three tallies. Brottem went out, but Irelan walked, Brokaw also went out and Currie walked. Burg delivered a hit which counted Irelan and sent Currie to third. Marty Krug cracked a double to right, scoring Currie and Burg.

Smith's single, a fielders' choice, a walk and Irelan's sacrifice fly gave Omaha one more in the sixth.

Seventh Is Field Day.

The Drumners scored their lone-some run in the third on Shaw's single, an infield hit by Haley, Curries error and a passed ball.

The game, although only seven innings, took up two hours and ten minings, took

Notes of the Game

Hurs and Kruz were the sluggers with three safe hits each Smith and Brokaw collected two.

A big growd of the fair fans were out to watch the contest. Few of them were on hand for finish.

When the game finalty halted it was so dark the scorers sould hardly see the hierogrypchics in their scorehooks.

To show the braid of ball Currie hurled not one of the Rourkes outfielders had a single putout. Only two balls were hit out of the field and they were both hits.

Shag Thompson got to his daily stelon base yesterday. In fact, he got it in three times. One was a siteal of home. Earl Smith swiped a bag and Bradley copped

The Rourkes pulled a mental miscue in the opener. Shay was on first. Haley hunted to Burg, whe tried to catch Shay at second. He had plontly of time, but neither Krug nor Irelan was within twenty feet of the bag, both men being safe as a result.
