

GLOOM INVADES CAMP OF MATHER

Action of Congress in Turning
Down Roosevelt Jipples
Enlistment Plans of Lincoln Man.

A pall of gloom has been spread over the war-like ambitions of Colonel Mather. He had signed up to recruit a regiment of Nebraskans, join Colonel Roosevelt and, after an overseas voyage, lead his men into the trenches to face the Germans.

The action of congress, when it threw into the discard the proposition of Colonel Roosevelt to enlist a full division for overseas service, put a crimp in the enlistment plans of Colonel Mather.

For more than a month Colonel Mather had been signing up men to go to France and according to his statement something more than 700 had signed up. Among them were Rough Riders, cowboys, veterans of the Spanish-American war, expert rifle shots and scouts who had served along the Mexican border.

"With congress against the proposition," said Colonel Mather, "I am unable to figure out a way by which Colonel Roosevelt can raise an independent army unit for service in Europe, or elsewhere. It is hard to say what effect the action of congress will have upon our men. We have not decided to disband the organization because of the hope that later on some favorable action may be taken."

"It is likely that some of our men will enlist in the volunteer army, but they will not be happy. They had determined to follow Colonel Roosevelt and the old flag and the action of congress is very disappointing."

Cruelty is Popular Charge When Domestic Woe is Told

Cruelty was the popular charge in divorce court Friday morning. Gladys Palmitag is suing Fred L. Palmitag. They were married in Omaha August 1, 1912. She asks the court to restore her maiden name of Gladys Elliot.

Thomas C. Bevers, suing Blanche Bevers, says they were married at Shawnee, Okla., November 10, 1913, alleging that he "can't stand her cruelty any longer."

Mary M. Phillips and Frank J. Phillips were married in Omaha August 8, 1914. The wife wants her maiden name, Mary M. McElroy, restored and asks the custody of a daughter, Wilhelmina.

George E. Jackson brought divorce suit against Catherine S. Jackson.

Desmond Bound Over On Two More Charges

Harold Desmond, alias Harold Johnson, of 3009 Pacific street, was bound over to the district court Friday on two more charges of breaking and entering. On each count his bond was set for $750. Albert T. Danielson, 1624 Cuming street, and John J. Freytag, 524 North Twenty-fourth street, were the complainants in the cases. It is alleged that Desmond robbed their places.

WROTE BARS BEHIND BARS

Atlanta Prisoner Composed Waltz Said to Rival the "Beautiful Danube."

Raleigh wrote his history of the world in the Tower of London. Morse made a million while he was confined in the penitentiary, at least he laid the foundation for his financial rehabilitation that has since been one of the wonders of the commercial world.

Sing Sing convicts have kept in touch with the stock market and won fortunes, and confinement in jail has time and again, stimulated literary production in this country and in England, but one does not usually think of a cell as the birthplace of music. There is something about the cold gray walls, the handcuffs and ball and chain that would seem to be too much for Orpheus, and yet Eddie Foy once found that there was poetry in the lockstep glide, that was in comic opera, where everything may happen.

But now a prisoner at Atlanta has written a waltz that has been named "Adlyn" that is heralded as a "rhythmic swaying refrain, the greatest waltz since the 'Beautiful Danube,' and it swept a great audience of 2,000 men off their feet when it was played for the first time the other day by the prison orchestra, making the self-conscious convicts forget themselves.

Submitted by the author to a New York publishing house, the piece was instantly accepted, and it is predicted that this winter every one will be whistling the melody that was born in a convict's mind. Truly, "stone walls do not a prison make, nor iron bars a cage."—Boston Transcript.

Obituary Notes

MRS. KATHERINE KERRIGAN, a resident of Omaha for thirty years, died at her home, 1731 Sprague street. She was 75 years old. She is survived by two sons, James of Omaha and Thomas of Pueblo, and two daughters, Mrs. Michael Spellman and Mary Kerrigan. The funeral will be held from the residence Monday morning at 8:30 to Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock, with interment in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

DR. LOUIS LANDOUZY, dean of the faculty of medicine of the University of Paris, is dead.

How Simple It Is.
An Oklahoma young man devoted to maternal affairs of life, Senator Robert L. Owen of that state, related, separated himself from business to attend a reception one evening. In the course of which he was introduced to a pretty girl, felt the sting of admiration and set out to do his best for a favorable impression.

"I scarcely have a moment to play or read," said he, "nor to apply myself to the study of certain interesting problems. For instance, I am utterly ignorant as to how the incandescent light is produced."

"Why, that is very simple," the girl replied with a radiant smile. "You just turn a button."—Washington Post.

Why Pat Belked.
Fittingly the nurse smoothed the sufferer's pillow. He had been admitted only that morning, and now he looked up pleadingly at the nurse who stood at his bedside.

"An' shwa did ye say the doctor's name was, nurse, dear?" he asked.

"Dr. Kilpatrick," was the reply. "It's the senior house surgeon."

"That satchel," he muttered, firmly, "that doctor won't get a chance to operate on me."

"Why not?" asked the nurse in surprise.

"He's a very clever man."

"That's as may be," the patient said. "But me name happens to be Patrick."—New York Globe.

Omaha Scots Propose to Equip Bagpipe Band for Public Use

Omaha Scots are moving along a new line for a fuller part in the life of the community.

They propose to form a pipe band and have a dozen pipers all ready to go on parade as soon as the equipment can be secured. To get this an entertainment is to be given at the Swedish auditorium on Tuesday evening next, the proceeds of which will go to the new organization.

It is the intention of the promoters to make the pipe band a feature of Ak-Sar-Ben parades and like demonstrations.

Surgical Stupidity.

A French soldier had been shot in the leg and was taken to the hospital for treatment. For some time the surgeon probed the wound, until at last the sufferer demanded impatiently what he was doing.

"I am trying to find the bullet," was the reply.

"What stupidity!" cried his patient.

"Why, I have it in my pocket!"—London Mail.
