

JUNKERS PUSHING FIGHT ON HOLLWEG

Organ Says Kaiser Must Eliminate Chancellor if He Would Save His Throne.

Copenhagen (Via London), May 12.—The Germania, organ of the clerical party, indicates that Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg does not intend to make a statement with regard to peace terms before the Reichstag, having finally decided that it was inadvisable at the present time.

Meanwhile the conservatives are growing more desperate as the work of the constitutional revision committee proceeds without any intervention from the government to dam the wave of reform which threatens the political influence of the junkers.

"Where is Hindenburg to raise the fallen kaiser's banner again and defend the rights of the throne?" cries Prince Zu Salm-Horstmar in the Prussian House of Lords. The prince is president of the German naval league and one of the war horses of the conservative old guard.

The South German Gazette, the organ of the south German conservatives, suggests sending a deputation to the emperor to warn him that his throne is in danger unless he dismisses Von Bethmann-Hollweg.

The suggestion is taken up by the Kreuz Zeitung, representing the Prussian junkers and the military aristocracy, the Deutsche Zeitung and the Reichshot.

Other conservative papers echo the cry that the Hohenzollern throne is tottering unless a new chancellor comes to suppress the reform movement with an iron hand. In spite of all Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg still seems very strong and there is no indication that the emperor's confidence in him is seriously shaken.

Burglar, Surprised in Act, Fights Way to Freedom

As Edward Criss, 1901 South Thirtieth street, entered the front door of his home at 10:30 Friday night, a negro prowler entered the back door. Criss hurried to the kitchen and the two men grappled. Around the room they swung, knocking chairs and other furniture over. The intruder wrestled free and ran away.

"He was a powerful fellow," said Criss, who is nursing facial and bodily bruises as the result of the encounter.

Hawk a Garden Cop.
A. R. Rathmill, a retired druggist, who lives on a farm near Romeville, Pa., has a novel policeman to keep the chickens out of his garden. Last winter Rathmill set a trap for muskrats. An inquisitive squirrel got in the trap and drove a wooden peg into the ground. A hawk swooped an immense hawk to eat the unfortunate squirrel, but while thus engaged the hawk got fast in the trap and since has been caught.

The hawk was not seriously injured, and on being taken to the Rathmill home, where he was fed and kindly treated, he soon became a pet of the family. As long as he is furnished plenty of fresh meat the hawk seems happy and contented in his confinement. He is prevented from flying away by a small chain fastened to one of his legs and fastened to a post.

Recently chickens got into Mrs. Rathmill's garden and threatened to destroy her crops. Then a bright idea occurred to her. She stalked the hawk out in the garden making him policeman, and after that not a hen, not even a brave old rooster, set foot in the garden again.—Philadelphia Record.

The Same Offense.
There was recently brought before a police magistrate in the south an old dorky who had fallen foul of a bulldog while in the act of entering the hen house of the dog's owner.

"Didn't I give you ten days last month for the same offense?" asked the magistrate. "It was the same hen house you were trying to get into. What have you got to say for yourself?"

"The dorky seemed perplexed. 'Yo' honah,' he said, 'yo' sent me to the chain gang for trying to steal some chickens, didn't yo'?"

"Yes, that was the charge."

"An, don't do it any yo' can't be charged twice with de same offense?"

"That no man shall be twice placed in jeopardy for the identical act, yo'?"

"Yo', yo' honah, yo' gotta let me go, sub. I was after de same chickens, sub."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Britain Serves Warning On Munitions Strikers

London, May 12.—The government issued a grave warning to munition workers tonight, saying that it cannot permit strikes to continue and aggravate the delay in the production of munitions. Engineers are striking in various parts of England.

All loyal citizens, therefore, are called upon to resume work immediately and the government gives notice that all persons inciting to the stoppage of work on munitions are liable to conviction for an offense entailing life servitude.

The notice says the stoppage of work was clearly unauthorized by the trade unions.

MAY WHEAT PRICE PUT AT $3.18 BY CHICAGO BOARD

ago. They had wanted the actual grain, but finding that the bottoms necessary to carry it abroad were not available, they reduced their holdings and by force of circumstances took a handsome speculative profit.

They contracted for delivery of further wheat in July and September and the status of their deals in these months is not definitely known, save that they already have a big profit on paper in both options.

Does Not Stop Speculation.
The elimination of May contracts by no means eliminates speculation in grains. The action of the board, while not interfering with the freedom of contracts on the part of either individuals or governments, compels those requiring wheat for immediate consumption to make purchases from farmers or grain dealers rather than through the medium of a contract for future delivery on the floor of the exchange.

Mr. Patten was asked what action was contemplated to prevent a repetition in July of the May situation. "That remains for the future to decide," he said.

Kansas City Stops May Trading.
Kansas City, May 12.—New trading in May wheat on the local board of trade has been discontinued under the terms of a resolution adopted today by the board of directors. It was explained that the action was taken solely as a patriotic move and with the idea of co-operating with the government in the national crisis.

Minneapolis Continues.
Minneapolis, May 12.—The board of directors of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, at a special meeting today, decided to continue trading in May wheat.

CONTINUE ATTACK ON WAR TAX BILL

General Offensive of Affected Interests Against Measure Still Under Way in Congress.

Washington, May 12.—The general attack on the war tax bill continued today before the senate finance committee.

Taxation of parcel post packages was advocated by representatives of railroads and express companies who contended it would be only fair to tax packages sent by parcel post which competes with the express companies.

The cent a pound tax and higher duty on coffee was assailed by Frank R. Seelye of Chicago, president of the National Coffee Roasters' association.

He suggested a flat 2 cent tax instead and declared many large retailers, such as mail order houses and chain stores would escape the proposed tax. Lower retail coffee prices because of a prospective large crop, probably the greatest in the world's history, were predicted by Seelye.

Representing interurban electric roads, Arthur R. Brady of Anderson, Ind., said the proposed taxes discriminates in favor of automobile lines having established routes competing with electric roads.

The proposed tax on electric power was opposed by Z. V. Taylor of the Indian Public Utility company as amounting to 5 per cent of gross revenues.

The advertising taxes of the house bill were attacked by E. A. Frost of Chicago, representing poster and

CARDINAL FARLEY UNDERGOES OPERATION.

CARDINAL FARLEY.

Considerable concern for Cardinal Farley has been felt as a result of the reports that he has been compelled to undergo an operation. These reports, coupled with his age and the fact that for several weeks his health has not been of the best, has caused some anxiety.

The exact nature of the operation has not been made public. It is said to have been an abscess of outdoor advertising interests. The tax, he asserted, discriminates against poster interests, by exempting newspaper and magazine advertising.

WHAT REASONABLE MEANS IN DRY LAW

Attorney General Reed Has Real Puzzling Question Put Up to Him From Thurston County.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, Neb., May 12.—(Special.)—Will some good tried and true patriot who knows what a "reasonable amount" of liquor is as set forth in the new prohibition law, inform the attorney general of Nebraska, so he can answer correspondence received covering that question.

Mr. Reed, not being an imbibor, does not consider himself competent to judge. He said today that in his opinion it would depend a great deal on the age of an individual. Using the insurance tables, a man 25 years of age would naturally be expected to live longer than a man 50 or 75 years of age and therefore it would require more liquor because of the longer duration of life.

The county attorney of Thurston county writes that there is a certain farmer in that county who since April 27 is said to have stored in his home 150 gallons of whiskey and twenty-six barrels of beer. He desires to know if that may be considered a "reasonable" amount under the law.

The attorney general is willing to admit that it would be plenty for him, but it might not even be a "reasonable" amount for some other people.
