BEARS MAKE ONE HIT OFF CURRIE

Scratchy Single by Moose Mc-Cormick in Final Frame Robs Murphy of Place in Hall of Fame.

One lone bingle, and a scratchy one at that, by Moose McCormick robbed at that, by Moose McCormick robbed Murphy Currie on a no-run, no-hit game yesterday afternoon. Omaha won the fray, 4 to 1, which is some consolation.

For eight innings Murphy had the pesky Grizzites eating out of his hand. Not the semblance of a hit had been made off him and the several hundred lady bugs were pulling for him strorg. But Moese McCormick, first man up in the ninth, slammed a drive at Currie's feet. Currie touched the hall, but couldn't hold it. It caromed off between third and short for a single. This hit also gave the Bears their
