

WOMAN'S SERVICE LEAGUE STUDIES

To Learn Proper Cooking and Purchase of Food in Wholesale Lots for the Army.

The commissary department of the National League for Woman's Service, is now being organized for the study of proper cooking and purchasing of food in wholesale lots for the army.

In the absence of Mrs. R. B. Howell, captain of the division, Mrs. E. M. Siefert called a meeting of the staff Tuesday afternoon at Hotel Fontenelle to appoint lieutenants and commandants who will organize the 140 women enrolled in this branch of the league work into detachments.

Mrs. Joseph Polcar, Mrs. E. M. Siefert, Mrs. Robert Hollister, Mrs. Charles Anderson and Mrs. C. M. Fowler were chosen lieutenants.

Commandants appointed to superintend the cooking detachments are Mrs. Harriet MacMurphy, Mrs. C. W. Axtell and Mrs. Jay Burris, while those in charge of the purchasing of supplies are Mrs. C. M. Fowler, Mrs. Mary Conant and Miss Verda E. Williams, head of the household arts department at Central High school and supervisor of the lunch rooms at both Central and Commercial High schools.

As soon as the organization of the women into detachments of twenty is completed, Mrs. Mary Conant will give a talk on the wholesale purchasing of food and Mrs. Harriet MacMurphy will talk on the preparation of food. Other lectures will be given during the summer by people versed in home economics subjects.

At the Theaters. Attractions in Omaha. Robinson Crusoe, Jr. The Great Escape, The Last Days of Pompeii, The Last Days of Pompeii, The Last Days of Pompeii.

Coming to See Al Jolson at the Boyd. When the curtain goes up on "Robinson Crusoe, Jr." at the Boyd theater this evening, seated in the audience will be at least 300 people from the towns nearby, for at least that many have bought seats for the first night's performance. Forty-four of these come from Fremont. The engagement, which closes the Boyd season, bids fair to be the most successful of the year, too, for seats are practically all sold now for the four performances. It is one of the biggest attractions ever sent out from the Winter Garden, and with Al Jolson at its head, Lawrence D'O'Connell and other star entertainers in the ranks, and a Winter Garden equipment of chorus and scenery, it ought to be worth the attention it is getting.

Promises of the Press Agents.

Empress—An exceptional bill makes up the vaudeville to be offered at this theater for the last half of the week. The Ad Group and Roy Harrah and the two skating girls headline the bill. The first act of four people, presents a turn of magic, mystery, singing and dancing. The second is a novelty in the way of skating by a man and two dashing young women, who will present many stunts on roller skates. Grand Gardner will dispense a goodly amount of fun with an original blackface act, while Thordmike and Barnes will entertain with a playlet, "Join the Navy." William Courtenay will again furnish the photoplay portion of the bill in his latest success, "The Record."

Hard—The Winter Garden's latest offering, "Robinson Crusoe, Jr.," is the irrefragable Al Jolson, star entertainer of that institution of music, beauty and presentation, popular music, comes to the Boyd theater for four performances beginning tonight. An unusually large crowd of out-of-town people are taking advantage of this the best and last show of the season. Many parties are coming from Fremont, who come fifty strong; also Missouri Valley, Leota, Ia.; Valley, Neb.; Nebraska, Ia.; Columbus, Neb., and Craig, Neb.

In the Silent Drama.

Sun—George Walsh will dispense fun to the audiences of this theater today, Friday and Saturday in his latest William Fox offering, "The Book Agent." He is supported by our own Nebraska product, Doris Dawn, who at one time really resided in Norfolk. Walsh just romps and frolics his way through this delightful comedy-drama with that contagious smile of his very much in evidence all the time. The fun starts with an escapade he has in a seminar and keeps up all the way through. It is certain to prove one of the best attractions this show-biz has presented for some time. Edward Horton will, of course, "catch" all the effects on the big Sun organ.

Strand—Clara Kimball Young, in "The East Way," is the strand offering today and the remainder of the week. This picture affords Miss Young wonderful opportunity to display her ability as a wonderful screen star. Matinee prices are the same as night during the engagement of this feature.

Muse—For the last time today Edith Storey and Antonio Moreno will be seen at the Muse in "The Captain of the Gray Horse Troop." The author has written a story, swift in its dramatic action, tense with the conflict of the uncurbed passions of the frontier, that has thrilled thousands by the sheer boldness of its conception and vitality.

Hipp—Nancy O'Neill will be at this theater for today only in a Vitaphone film, "The Flames of Johanna." It is a play which is replete with many thrilling and dramatic moments that will hold the attention throughout the entire presentation. Friday and Saturday comes Miss Anderson, Betty Malone and Howard Mack in a Butterfly production, "The Phantom Secret."

Dundee—Dorothy Gish will hold forth at this pretty theater today only in the Tri-plex photoplay, "Stage Struck." A faith-colored scenic real is also on the bill. Friday a Metro Wonderplay, "The Pretenders," features Betty Hobbent. The story is one that presents ample opportunity for her to display her acting ability. Saturday Alice Jones and Harry May in a standard Vitaphone feature, "The Courage of Silence."

Magic (South Side)—Popular Harry Carey will be the headline attraction at this theater today in a sensational picture, "Hair Trigger Bark." Ben Wilson and Nick Geber are also on the same bill in the fifth chapter of "The Voice on the Wire," and a Fox film comedy, "The Last Days of Pompeii." Saturday Harry Carey in a clever, Bluebird comedy-drama, "Little Miss Nobody." Saturday Harry Carey in a clever, Bluebird comedy-drama, "Little Miss Nobody."

Entirely New Way to Banish Superfluous Hair

Why should any woman continue to wear an ugly, humiliating growth of hair on her face, nose, chin, upper lip, neck, and all, by the new electrolytic process? The process is not to be compared at all with the depilatory, electrical or shaving methods. Phaeoline is non-odoriferous, non-irritating, non-poisonous—non-harmful. It could be eaten without any bad effect. Best of all, the hairs come out entire, even the roots, before they ever grow. The skin is left so smooth and hair-free as a child's.

Woman's Press Club Players Score Big Hit With Their Own Playlets

Mrs. Martin Harris and Miss Henrietta Rees, two Omaha young women, tried out their playlets on the home folks Tuesday evening at the Blackstone hotel, when "The Upper Crust" and "A Record Romance" had their premieres, sponsored by the Omaha Woman's Press club, for whose prize contest last year the plays were written.

The playwright herself took the leading role in "The Upper Crust," the other parts being taken by Mrs. Grant Williams, John W. Kennedy and Homer Conant. Mr. Kennedy's eleventh hour appearance in the playlet was a distinct feat. As an old-time actor, he had watched the rehearsals with interest and when Martin W. Dimery, who was originally cast for the role, was unable to fill it, on account of pressure of business, Mr. Kennedy stepped right into the art and carried it off with great eclat.

The musical theme in the play of Miss Rees, who is musical editor of

Friday Jean Fether in an art-drama production, "The Good Name."

Grand—Genevieve Hamper and Robert Grandin will be the William Fox offering at this theater today in "Angled Love." "Pearl of the Army" and a "shorty" Hamilton feature will also be shown. "Musical Marvels" will also be shown. Saturday is a comedy day. Charlie Chaplin will be seen in his latest screen, "The Cure," and a Fox film comedy, "The Bath House Trunk" will also be shown and the Sult-Triplex completes the bill.

Alhambra—Maurice Costello and Ethel Grandin will be the headline attraction at this theater today in the latest offering of the "Crimson Stain Mystery." A Vogue comedy and a Triangle comedy will be presented on the same bill. Friday Mrs. Petrova, in a Metro Wonderplay, "My Madonna," said to be the best she has appeared in. The last of the "Sult-Triplex" comedy will also be offered. Saturday Douglas Fairbanks in a typical Fairbanks play, "The Last Days of Pompeii," and a comedy complete the bill.

Diamond—Gail Kane will be the stellar attraction at this theater today in the World feature, "The Scarlet Oath." Friday will be Ben Wilson and Neva Geber in the fifth chapter of "The Voice on the Wire" and a funny I-KO comedy called "Ring Rivals." Saturday Jackie Saunders in a cheerful play, "Sunny Jane."

Boulevard—Today will mark the last showing of Theda Bara at this theater in her latest Metro Wonderplay, "The Tiger Woman." Friday and Saturday, Dorothy Gish in her latest Tri-plex success, "Stage Struck," she depicts the role of a country girl who has theatrical aspirations and longs to see her name in flaming lights along dear old Broadway.

Park—Helen Holmes will hold forth at this theater today in the seventh chapter of "The Loss of the Lumberjack." Kinsey Benedict in "The Crimson Blade," the latest happening of the series, "Perils of the Secret Service," and "Cartel De Haven" in "The Topsy Turvy Twins" complete this day's program. Friday an exciting Road-Feather photoplay, "The Flames of Johanna," features Lois Wilson. Saturday Harry Carey in another of his western plays, "Hair Trigger Bark." A good comedy will also be shown.

Lithrop—Lionel Barrymore will be the attraction at this popular theater today in a Metro Wonderplay, "The Quitter." Friday Baby Marie Osborne in her latest, "Told at Twilight," even better than "Sunshine and Shadows" and her other successes. A Paula Blackton's country life story is also on the bill. Saturday, Miss Petrova in "The Black Butterfly" from the story by herself.

Apollo—Delightful Vivian Martin holds forth at this theater today in a Paramount offering, "The Wax Model." Friday, Peggy Ryan and Marc McDermott in a Vitaphone Blue Ribbon play, "Habetta." Saturday, "The Wax Model."

Nuxated Iron Makes Strong, Vigorous, Iron Men and Beautiful Healthy Rosy Cheeked Women

Dr. Howard James, late of the Manhattan State Hospital of New York, and formerly Assistant Physician, Brooklyn State Hospital, says: "Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. A patient of mine remarked to me (after having been on a six weeks' course of Nuxated Iron): 'Say, Doctor, that there stuff is like magic.' 'If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. From my own experience with Nuxated Iron, I feel it is such a valuable remedy that it should be kept in every hospital and prescribed by every physician in this country.' Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. James, is for sale by Sheridan & McConnell Drug Stores and all good druggists on an absolute guarantee of success and satisfaction or your money refunded.

BUY A RED CROSS BUTTON AT SIGHT

Women Should Be Saying "Don't All Try to Buy at Once," to Help Out Deserving Cause.

By A. R. GROH. Those Red Cross buttons ought to sell like the proverbial "hot cakes." In fact they are selling faster than any hot cakes I ever heard of.

But what we want to say is that it shouldn't be necessary for the women to ask you to buy a button. There ought to be a long line of applicants at every Red Cross "recruiting station." The women ought to be saying, "Please don't push. Take your time. Have your money ready. We will sign you up as fast as possible."

For it is an honor to belong to the American National Red Cross society, an honor out of all proportion to the dollar or two you pay for membership.

It is the society of humanity and mercy. Its active workers fight hunger and distress, sickness and wounds wherever they occur. Its nurses are ministering angels, its field workers face dangers on the battlefields to bring in the wounded and care for the dying.

Women as Leaders. The two great figures which loom up in the splendid history of the Red Cross are women, Florence Nightingale, who was the ministering angel of the bloody battlefields of the Crimea, and our own Clara Barton, who did a similar work during the Civil war.

The Red Cross is organized and actively at work today in all the nations engaged in the great war. And in all the wars of the last fifty years the organization has rendered invaluable service.

The first war in which it came into prominence was that of 1866 between Germany, Austria and Italy. In the Franco-Prussian war of 1870 the Red Cross in France cared for 100,000 wounded and in Germany there were 2,000 Red Cross committees.

In the Russian-Japanese war the "white trains" supplied by wealthy nobles to the Red Cross carried 3,000 cars of material and food to the front.

The Russian Red Cross stands higher than that of any other country. That of Italy is best organized for war work. The French Red Cross, like that of the United States, contains the best trained nurses of the land. In Japan one person out of every forty is a member of the Red Cross.

The American National Red Cross society is active in relief in national disasters of all kinds. It did great work, for instance, in the Michigan fires of 1881; the Florida yellow fever of 1888; the Johnstown flood of 1889; the Russian famine of 1891; the South Carolina tidal wave of 1893; the Armenian massacres of 1896; the Spanish-American war particularly in relief of Cubans; the Galveston tidal wave of 1900; the Mount Pelee eruption of 1902; the San Francisco earthquake of 1906. And its work in the present war is well known. The work it has been preparing to do since we entered the war is on a colossal scale.

The Red Cross has proved its value. All nations support it liberally. The noble souls of Florence Nightingale and Clara Barton go marching on. Hurry up and bestow this honor on yourself by joining the Red Cross.

Wise, Not Retarded, Outlay Is Good War Time Economy. Wise spending, not retarded spending, as a war-time measure, was advocated by Miss Alice M. Loomis in her talk to representatives of all local women's organizations at the Commercial club Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Loomis, who is head of the home economics department of the state university, will have charge of the woman's program on conservation in the home at the state meeting May 22-25.

The women's conference does not open until May 23 at 9 o'clock, when demonstrations in canning vegetables and meats will be given and several exhibits will be shown.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS. You have swollen feet and hands? Stiff, achy joints? Sharp-shooting rheumatic pains torture you? You have aching back, pain in the lower abdomen, difficulty when urinating? Look out! These are danger signals. Trouble is with your kidneys. Uric acid poisoning, in one form or another, has set in. It may lead to dropsy or fatal Bright's disease if not checked.

Get some GOLD MEDAL Haartem Oil Capsules immediately. They are an old preparation, used all over the world for centuries, combining natural healing oil and herbs, well-known to physicians and used by thousands in their daily practice. The capsules are not an experimental, make-shift "patent medicine," or "quack," whose effect is only temporary. They are a standard remedy, and act naturally, gently and quickly.

But when you go to the druggist, insist on getting the pure, original Haartem Oil in Capsules. Be sure the name GOLD MEDAL is on the box, and thus protect yourself against counterfeits.—Advertisement.

Don't wait for time to heal your skin. "Oh it will get well anyhow!" you say? Perhaps it will, and perhaps it won't. Maybe it will get worse instead. And think of the discomfort and embarrassment it causes you even now.

It would be very convenient not to have to pay extra to talk to neighboring towns. If we gave free long distance service, however, it would mean that all telephone subscribers would pay the cost of maintaining the long distance lines which are used generally by only a few.

The Reason for Toll Charges. Less than one-fourth of our subscribers make three-fourths of all the long distance telephone calls.

The long distance lines are used only occasionally by the large majority of telephone subscribers.

For this reason a charge is made for each long distance call rather than cover the expense of providing this service by increasing the local telephone rates.
