

BAR PAYS HOMAGE TO T. J. MAHONEY

Second Memorial Service Is Held in Honor of Deceased
Prominent Omaha Barrister.

Judges of the state supreme court joined with district, federal, municipal and county judges and members of the Omaha and Nebraska bar in honoring the memory of the late Timothy J. Mahoney at services held at the court house. The principal court room was crowded with lawyers and friends of the late barrister, who died in Washington, D. C., April 19.

Members of the bench and bar paid tributes to the memory of the lawyer who came to Omaha unknown thirty years ago and died one of the leaders of his profession in this part of the country.

Leading Judges Pay Tribute.

Occupying seats on the bench were Chief Justice Morrissey of the state supreme court and Associate Justices Letton, Dean and Hamer, District Judges Sears, Estelle, Redick, Day, Wakeley, Troup and Leslie, Federal Judge Woodrough, County Judge Crawford and Municipal Judges Britt, Baldwin and Holmes.

Judge Estelle, who became acquainted with Mr. Mahoney the day the latter arrived in Omaha in 1887, presided.

Warren Switzler read a short history of the life of the late member of the bar, who in his time was county attorney, twice president of the Nebraska State Bar association and dean and dean emeritus of the Creighton University law school. He told of Mr. Mahoney's high type of intelligence and character, his usefulness and his courage.

"Strong Personality," Says Dunn.
L. J. Dunn eulogized the memory of the late attorney, putting particular stress upon what he termed his "strong and masterful" personality. "In his active and serviceable life he gave all he had and claimed no special credit for it," Mr. Dunn said.

I. E. Congdon said that Mr. Mahoney's greatest legacy was his impress of personality. He spoke of his being "big and clean and intelligent in every sense of the word."

Dean Martin of the Creighton law school told the members of the bench and bar that the story of Mr. Mahoney's achievements deserves to live as a shining example of ideals.

"Thoroughness was the keynote of all he did. He had no sympathy with the superficial. He was a fit exemplar for members of his profession."

Robert Cowell, Omaha business man, referred to Judge Estelle as a man who knew Mr. Mahoney, not as a lawyer, but as a citizen, said that he always lent dignity to everything he did.

Gave Respect to Law.

Chief Justice Morrissey said that in speaking of Mr. Mahoney he was paying a tribute to the memory of one who had done much to make the profession of law respectful and respected. He said that he was a man because of his conviction to the right and his determination to do the right as he saw it.

"Mr. Mahoney was an inspiration to the young men of the profession," said the chief justice. "He brought to the law the best there was in it."

Judge Estelle's voice broke down when he told of his friendship with Mr. Mahoney and testified to the character of the late barrister's life and deeds.

He said that Mr. Mahoney advised young men to be honest, not because it was the best policy, but because it was right to be right. The judge mentioned the fact that Mr. Mahoney often told young men that the person who was honest just because it was the best policy, often landed in jail.

Musical Event at Court House Thursday Evening

The musical event of this week will be the patriotic concert in the rotunda of the court house Thursday evening at 8 o'clock under the direction of the Omaha Elks. All numbers on the program have been contributed and the requests made upon the several musical organizations received immediate and favorable response. The Omaha Musicians' association will furnish a concert band; the Omaha Symphony Study orchestra, under the personal direction of Henry Cox; the Menoma chorus, the Armour Glee club and together with a chorus of sixteen and a double male quartet by Mrs. Millie Ryan form the nucleus of the program, to which other features will be added.

The people of Omaha have never had an opportunity of hearing all of these several musical organizations on one program. All of them can be heard at the court house next Thursday evening for $1. The Elks desire it to be understood that in asking the public to buy these tickets they are offering to every ticket purchaser full entertainment value for the price of a ticket.

The rotunda of the court house and the balconies will be comfortably seated and it is expected that 3,000 people can attend this concert. Red Cross nurses will take the tickets at the doors and boy scouts will usher the audience to their seats.

A. W. Jefferis will deliver a brief patriotic address.

Bargain in Shoes Are Held For Police Investigation

George Sina, 3008 North Fifty-fourth, and George Pape, 17 years old, 3001 North Fifty-sixth street, were arrested and are being held for investigation because they tried to sell a pair of new shoes valued at $5 for $2. When they offered the bargain to a grocer, the merchant called the police. Both men are employed at the American Hand Sewed Shoe company. They said they purchased the footwear for $3.

Chicago Woman Arrested For Theft of Silk Hosiery

Her love for silk stockings caused the arrest of Catherine Miller, Chicago, Ill., Saturday evening by Special Store Detective Finn of the Brandeis Store. Miss Miller told officers that she couldn't bear to wear cotton stockings. Three pair of the silk luxuries were found in her pocket-book. She was booked on the charge of petit larceny.

Just try mixing "BULL" DURHAM with your favorite pipe tobacco—it's like sugar in your coffee.

NOW there are only 5 days left in which you can order a set of the new

Encyclopaedia Britannica

printed on genuine India paper

If you wait until after next Saturday, May 26th, you will NEVER be able to buy it, because by then, and possibly a day before, every set of the Britannica, printed on genuine India paper, in the entire world will have been sold.

NOW a first payment of $1

to be followed by conveniently small monthly payments of as little as $3.00 (for the cloth binding) for a limited period, will secure a set for you.

After Saturday, May 26th, you will NEVER be able to buy a set for any price.

NOW—you can have the entire 29 volumes to use and profit by while you pay for them.

After next Saturday you can NEVER have this work to own and use no matter how much you want it or need the knowledge it contains. Consider the Britannica as an investment—for an investment it is—an investment that will pay dividends in the exact proportion that you use it. The more you use the Britannica the larger dividends it will pay you. Dividends of increased knowledge, increased earning capacity, increased enjoyment, appreciation and understanding of everything you do, see, use, read or come in contact with.

Think what the Britannica in your home will mean in the future. Think what a help it will be to your children in their school work. Right in your own business or occupation KNOWLEDGE is what brings success, and the Britannica is the largest, most complete, most comprehensive, most authoritative library of knowledge in existence. You must decide NOW!

Unless you order on or before next Saturday, May 26th, you will be too late. Unless you order on or before May 26th you will never own the Britannica printed on India paper. Unless you order on or before May 26th you will be depriving yourself and your family of the many advantages of this great library of the world's knowledge in its most beautiful, most popular and most usable form. The end of the sale may come before May 26th. Order NOW and be on the safe side.

Decide today whether or not you want to own the Britannica. We want each one of these last sets to go to those who will use it and get all of the many benefits from it. You must make up your mind for yourself. Do it now. We have arranged with stores in all parts of the country to exhibit sets of the Britannica and receive orders. This gives you the opportunity to examine sets, select the binding you prefer, and decide intelligently whether or not you want to own the Britannica.

Go at once to the store mentioned in this notice. Every day you put it off means one more chance gone. Don't wait. The doors of opportunity are closing, one by one, day by day. Only 5 more to close and then your opportunity will be gone forever.

These final announcements of the close of this great sale are getting shorter every day—just as the last sets on hand are getting fewer every day. This sale must end because no more sets of the Britannica can be printed on genuine India paper—because no more flax from Belgium, Germany or Ireland or hemp from Russia, two necessary raw materials for making genuine India paper, can be secured. You know the whole story. It has been told over and over again. It is not necessary to say more. It's a case of NOW or NEVER.

If you cannot go to the store, fill in the "Reserve" Order Form and send it right away. Then you will be sure of getting one of these last sets that can be printed on India paper. Now is the time to act. Tear out the coupon and get it in the mail as soon as possible. Only 5 days more. Order today.

A NEW VOLUME

THE publishers of The Encyclopaedia Britannica announce that they have made arrangements for the issue, as soon after the end of the war as possible, of a new volume, containing a full and authoritative history of the war.

The new volume will be written by scholars and experts of the same high character as those who wrote for the Britannica itself, and by many of its own contributors. It will be absolutely impartial, excluding all partisan feeling and prejudice. It will contain

1. A judicial account of the real causes of the war, the progress of the struggle, and the results all over the world; with maps, as necessary, to show changes in boundaries.
2. The lives of the new leaders, whether civil, military or naval, in the belligerent countries.
3. The results of the war outside the sphere of fighting, the progress of surgery, the prevention of contagious disease, the new scientific discoveries, etc.

The new volume will bridge the gap between the days of peace before and after the war. It will be printed and bound to match the Britannica and the publishers guarantee that no matter how difficult and costly the supplementary volume may be from the editorial point of view, the price of it to all who purchase the Britannica during the present sale will not be more than that of a corresponding volume of the Britannica.
