Women at Poor Farm Are Being Taught How to Knit for Soldiers

In Need of Yarn—The knitting detachment of the National League for Women Service, under the leadership of Mrs. E. P. Peck, has begun its work among the "shut-ins."

One pathetic incident illustrating not only the necessity of donations for yarn since the detachment will be called upon to furnish the material to groups being formed, but waste of energy at a time when the cry of the whole world is "conservation," is as follows: An old woman at the poor farm who is to become a member of Mrs. Troup's division has occupied her time all day long knitting socks and then unraveling the work, only to reknit them because of the lack of yarn.

Mrs. Troup is also trying to arouse interest among the women at the Deaf and Dumb Institute, who have accomplished such beautiful work making hospital supplies.

First Aid Class—The Young Women's Christian Association, under the Red Cross society, will organize another class in first aid, to begin Wednesday evening at 7:30. Those desiring to enroll in the class should register at once, as the class will be limited.

Red Cross Film—The American Ambulance Field Service film, which has aroused tremendous interest all over the country, is to be shown at the Boyd theater on the evening of June 9 under the auspices of the Colonial Dames, the proceeds of the sale of tickets at $1 apiece to go to help this branch of the service.

Over Thirty-five Thousand—Red Cross headquarters at 1219 Farnam street were kept busy Monday counting the money and receiving new memberships of people who had been overlooked in the last campaign.
