

DRIVING CLUB WINS TO RACE AT BENSON

Council Places on File Protest Made Against Maintaining Plant Near Country Club.

The Omaha Driving club won a contest before the city council committee of the whole, involving suppression of the race track feature of the fair grounds controlled by the Douglas County Agricultural association at Benson.

An ordinance to prohibit racing or training of horses, coursing weets and wild west shows in residence districts of the city was recommended to be placed on file.

Odor, dust, noise, flies and lack of proper drainage were objectionable features claimed by L. F. Trimpe, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Underwood, Mrs. A. H. Marvin and Mrs. F. H. Sawyer, who testified before the council.

Advertising Asset. James Walsh, president of the Agricultural society, stated: "This track is known from coast to coast as the fastest in the country. It is a great advertising asset for Omaha."

Gospel Munitions Are Sent to Soldiers at Front

The American Tract society has undertaken to furnish gospel munitions in large quantities for the United States soldiers and sailors. The value and urgency of gospel munitions is set forth in the following testimonials:

Captain J. Madison Hare, the chaplain of the Fourth New Jersey infantry, while on the Mexican border, said: "I desire to thank the American Tract society for the Soldier's Text Books sent to our men. They were greatly appreciated."

Of the Soldier's Text Book 500,000 were distributed in the Spanish-American war, 5,000 were sent to the English soldiers in the war zone, 5,000 in the Dutch language, and 50,000 tracts in the Russian language were sent to the Russian prisoners in Germany.

The Tract society appeals for not less than $60,000 to supply more than 2,000,000 copies of the Soldier's Text Book and Cromwell's Soldier's Pocket Bible, also hundreds of thousands of leaflets, among them "The Converted Soldier," "Pivot Battles in Life" and "Sunny Jim's First Aid Package," all being especially prepared for and adapted to meet the needs of the men in both the army and navy.

Donations may be sent to Rev. A. W. Reinhard, field secretary American Tract society, 721 South Thirty-seventh street, Omaha, Neb. For information telephone, Harney 2128.

Missing Omaha Woman Is Located at Albany, N. Y.

Hulda Carlson, the young woman who disappeared from the Scandinavian Young Women's Christian association three weeks ago, has been located. She was found wandering about the streets of Albany, N. Y., last Friday suffering from a derangement of the mind.

Miss Carlson was formerly in the employ of T. M. Orr of the Union Pacific and it was through his efforts that she was located. Recently she was placed in the Scandinavian Young Women's Christian association for treatment, but managed to make her escape. Before leaving she withdrew her bank account of $320. She got off at Albany, thinking it was New York.

Arrangements are being made for her return here.

Marines to Conduct a Week's Drive for Recruits

In the greatest recruiting drive they ever attempted, the United States marines will conduct a national recruiting week from June 10 to 16 in an attempt to make their slogan, "Four Thousand Enlistments by Saturday Night," a reality.

Governors, mayors, business and professional men, patriotic organizations, women's clubs, schools, theaters and newspapers will be asked to co-operate in this work. An effort will be made to recruit the marine corps to full war strength at the earliest practicable moment, as it is very likely that the "soldiers of the sea" will be among the "first to fight" overseas.

New Light Looked For in Rapp-Schroeder Murder Case

The detective mixup at Chadron, Neb., is said to be more or less mysteriously connected with an investigation being made by an Omaha detective agency into the Schroeder-Rapp murder case which shocked this city in 1914.

The identities of Omahans at Chadron led careful observers to look for interesting developments, and they aver that internal affairs of the Omaha police department are involved.

Mrs. Fred Schroeder, widow of the late Councilman Fred Schroeder, who was one of the three victims of the tragedy in 1914, has retained detectives who are on the case and promise "important disclosures" within a few weeks.

Passenger Men Puzzled Over Tax on Return Tickets

Railroad passenger men are puzzled over the provisions of a passenger traffic law that is before congress. This law has to do with the taxing of tickets for rides in regular coaches, sleepers and parlor cars and proposes to add a government tax of 10 per cent to all transportation purchased after June 1.

It is easy for agents to provide for transportation purchased after June 1, for all there is to do is to add 10 per cent for the tax. That purchased prior to that date, however, is the problem. The return ends of thousands of round trip tickets are in the hands of purchasers. The proposed law does not specify whether conductors to whom such tickets are presented are to collect the 10 per cent on the returning end, or on the entire ticket. It simply provides that the conductor shall collect 10 per cent on the value of the tickets and make returns to the authorities to be designated.

Urges Council to Pave Ames Avenue With Brick

J. H. Butler, 4318 Ames Avenue, urged the city council to select brick block upon a substantial concrete base when approving material for paving Ames avenue, thirty-sixth to forty-eighth streets.

"The best will be the cheapest in the end. Bear in mind that Ames avenue will be the great artery of travel for the northwestern part of Douglas county and the southwestern part of Washington county into Omaha. Other cities are learning brick block is the best and cheapest in the long run," said Mr. Butler.

LUMBER MEN KEEP TEAMS IN STABLES

Say They Fear Strikers, While Latter Say that it is a Lockout of Union Men.

Lumber dealers and building material men generally made few, if any, deliveries by team today. Fear of violence by the striking teamsters is given by their reason.

In denial the striking teamsters say it is part of a general lockout of teamsters the material men are endeavoring to perpetuate.

The strike began with the teamsters of the C. W. Hull company last Tuesday and since then has spread throughout the city. Many teams, however, are working on moving vans, grocery delivery wagons and many other lines.

M. G. Colpetzer of the Chicago Lumber company said this morning: "We are keeping our teamsters and teams in today. The teamsters are helping to unload cars and doing other work about the yards. There has been so much violence in the last week that we are afraid to send men out on the streets with the teams. We are afraid of getting the teams cut up and the men assaulted. We are an open shop here, and the men are working, and have been working all the time."

At the Hoagland Lumber company's office it was stated, "We thought it best to keep the teams in the barn until this thing quiets down."

At 513 North Sixteenth street, headquarters of the Teamsters' union, scores of teamsters were gathered checking over lists of the men out on strike. Their business agent said, "The building material concerns generally have begun a lockout. They ignored us and our demands entirely."

The police chief protests against issuing a license to Paul B. Fitch, druggist, 624 North Sixteenth street, who was arrested for having liquor in his possession. He was fined $100 and costs in police court. His attorneys appealed. District court sustained the lower court's decision. Fitch's attorneys say they will carry the case to the state supreme court.

Arrest Follows Opening Of Bottle of Near Beer

Opening a bottle of near-beer came near causing the downfall of Mrs. Mattie Holmes, 2127 South Sixteenth street. According to her version, together with Miss Lulu Cornish, she was asked by R. T. Richie to come into his room in a neighboring apartment and open a bottle of near-beer. Mr. Richie says that while they were drinking, Mrs. Holmes reached into his trousers pocket lying on a chair and extracted $9. All three were discharged.

Omaha Ad Club to Aid in Sale of Liberty Loan Bonds

The Omaha Ad club will get into action to help sell Liberty loan bonds.

President Robert B. Wallace made this announcement upon receipt of a letter from President Herbert S. Houston of the Associated Ad Clubs of the World, in which the international president points out the work the ad clubs of the country can and must do to aid this movement.

President Houston has appointed twelve committee chairmen, one from each regional reserve bank district, these chairmen to fill out their own committees from among Ad club members in their district and work out the details of marketing the bonds quickly. William H. Besack of Kansas City is appointed chairman of the committee for this district. President Wallace of the Omaha Ad club wrote Chairman Besack saying that the Omaha Ad club members are at his disposal and that they stand ready to co-operate at once in the movement.

Omaha Ministerial Union Offers to Aid Uncle Sam

The Omaha Ministerial union, at its regular meeting Monday, passed resolutions of confidence and endorsement of the government in the war and offered to assist in any way it can.

Rev. Dr. E. H. Jenks, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, read a paper on "The Bible in Literature."

"No other book," he said, "has left its imprint upon literature in anything like the volume the Bible has. Our greatest writers draw from it continually. Milton used to read a chapter in the Hebrew every morning and meditate upon it for an hour. Shakespeare, though he died five years after the King James' version was published, drew copiously from it. The beautiful 'Idylls of the King' are directly inspired by it."

"It is the greatest book ever given to man, and remains today, in the commercial phrase, 'the best seller.' It is a book of poetry, drama, short stories, a book that in loftiness of diction, beauty of expression, interest of narrative and perfection of detail is unequalled by any other."

"Our greatest men have been most familiar with it. Abraham Lincoln in his declaration about the union, used Christ's own words, 'a house divided against itself cannot stand.' On many other occasions he showed his familiarity with the greatest book."

City Dads Want More Facts On Connell Food Ordinance

City commissioners wish further information on Health Commissioner Connell's ordinance for protection of foodstuffs against flies, dust and human handling, before they recommend passage of the measure.

The health commissioner said the ordinance was approved by grocers, fruit dealers and the health committee of the Commercial club. The commissioners believe such approval should have been made in regular open council meeting.

The purpose of the ordinance is to protect foods from contamination. City Solicitor Fleiharty will examine the merits of the case and report back to the city council.

OMAHA "Y" STARTS WAR FUND DRIVE

Twenty Thousand Dollars is Sum Omaha Workers Hope to Raise in National War Week Campaign.

Omaha has started its drive to raise $20,000 as its share of a $60,000 state fund in the National War Week Young Men's Christian association campaign for $3,000,000. Money raised will be used for the welfare of American troops.

Although no subscriptions were taken Sunday more than $5,000 was voluntarily subscribed. The work in Omaha and in the state will be under the direction of C. A. Musselman, state secretary of Nebraska's Young Men's Christian associations.

"We intend to canvass Omaha and the state thoroughly and ask for private subscriptions," Mr. Musselman said. "We have forty teams now working in Omaha and expect to augment this number by several additions before the week is over."

The interest with which the campaign is meeting is shown by a report from Nebraska City, where $1,400 was subscribed Sunday at a patriotic meeting in half an hour.

Two Found Loaded Up With Empty Flasks

Another fracture of the "bone-dry" law was discovered when Officer Vance found A. G. Wright, 812 North Twenty-seventh street, and Edward Herzog, 5742 Reed street, Benson, enjoying uncalced for levity in front of the Northwestern depot at an early hour. A search of the men revealed a quart bottle on the hip, in which remained another swig or two of red evidence. An inner pocket gave forth an empty half-pint. The men could not recall exactly where they had purchased the stuff of their undoing. The desk sergeant booked them on a charge of drunkenness and unlawfully having intoxicating liquor in their possession.

WHERE ARE THEY MARRIED?

Realizing $5 is a large donation from a man earning but $2 a day, Mr. Howe called the Serbians before him and inquired their reasons for their generosity.

"It was the American Red Cross which saved Serbia before the Germans invaded and devastated the country," they told the general manager, "and there isn't a Serbian in the world who wouldn't give his all for the American Red Cross."

Serbians Appreciate Work of th U. S. Red Cross

In looking over the list of Armour employees who donated to the Red Cross during the Omaha campaign last week General Manager Howe came across the names of two Serbians, father and son, employed as assistant butchers at $2 a day. Each had given $5 to the Red Cross.
