

SECRETARY POOL BOOSTS NORTHWEST

State Official Says Prosperity Visible on Every Hand in That Section of State.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, May 23.—(Special.)—Secretary of State Pool has returned from a week's trip in the northwestern part of the state.

He says the towns up in that country are improving rapidly and at the present rate every one of them will be entitled to a new government building when he gets to congress.

Then he tells a fish story. The gang which, beside Mr. Pool, consisted of Ed Bignell, Bob Graham, Herman Smith and R. F. Scott, discovered a new fish. As this all happened since the first of May, it proved to be contrary, the story may be considered authentic.

Court Cuts Down Judgment Given in Real Estate Deal

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, May 23.—(Special.)—Henry Mohring exchanged with J. Lieber eight acres of land in the northwest part of Omaha for a half section of land in Colorado.

The court commission finds that as the plaintiff had set a price of $4,500 on the Omaha land and the defendant had sold the Colorado land for $3,200 the judgment is "grossly excessive" and that plaintiff should be required to file an additional remittitur in the sum of $2,000.
