Judge Puts Stop to Police stopped in mid-career a many-witnessed case in which the United States accused Joe Tebo of introducmin liquor on the Indian reservation.

Assistant United States Attorney Saxon had examined two Indian witnesses through an interpreter and they had been cross-examined by the same circuitous method, when Mr.
Saxon called a third witness. Here Iudge Pollock interrupted.
"It is very apparent to the court,"
the said, "that the time of the court and the jury should not be consumed in going through with a trial of this character."

The judge then had a consultation with Hiram Chase, a full-blooded Indian attorney for Tebo. Chase agreed to have his client plead guilty on one of the four counts on which he was imdicted, namely, introducing liquor cn the Indian reservation. Tebo will be sentenced Friday.

It is estimated that the trial of Teho cost at least $100 in jury fees, witness fees, interpreter's lees, railroad expenses and so on. There is increasing opposition to handling this sort of "police count cases," with the big and expensive federal court machinery.

Rebekah, who will also co-operate with the Odd Fellows in the meeting.

Police Unearth a Well

Supplied Liquor Plant

The well-fortified plant of A. Robinson, colored, 112 North Eleventh street, gave over unconditionally
when Sergeant Samuelson and Offiinson, colored, 112 North Eleventh street, gave over unconditionally
when Sergeant Samuelson and Officers Creel and Troby swooped down upon it early this morning. A half emplied quart bottle on the hip of Tenth street, led to the discovery.

The officers apprehended Orchard and placed him under arrest. The dark prospect of the hold-over did not look good to Ely, so he reverted to the wise expedient of turning state's evidence against the liquor merchant so as to avoid the prohibition penalty. The police acted on his tip and returned with Robinson, one gallon of pure grain alcohol, even print of beer and one-half quart of whisky.

"Are the people of Omaha

CHURCH MEMBERS BUY LIBERTY BONDS

Thousand Dollars at Closing Session of Annual Conference at Jacobs Hall.

Two $500 Liberty bonds pledged by the Nebraska Episcopalians at the closing session of the annual conference at Jacobs Memorial hall yesterday.

Action was taken following a patriotic appeal made by C. H. Rudge of Lincoln: "Those of us who are too old ourselves to go to the front, although we have given our sons, want to serve the government in some way, and since one of the hardest shots we can give the enamy is to way, and since one of the hardest shots we can give the enemy is to assist in the Liberty loan, let us, as a body promote its success as well as individually," he said. George Thummel proposed that $1,000 be taken from the Cathedral chapter for this purpose. The vote was unanimous.

Urge Churchmen to Subscribe.

Mr. Rudge said that he expected to urge his 250 employes of his store in Lincoln to subscribe to this loan. Some have already bought bonds. Rev. S. Mills Hayes of Lincoln urged that as much as possible be done by the church people to advance the interest of the loan.

The council passed a resolution asking clergymen to mention the Lib-asking clergymen to mention the Lib-

Mrs. Bass, who is prominent in national suffrage and women's club affairs, was appointed by the government to place this work before women all over the United States. She will name a Nebraska chairman for the work before she leaves On ha. "It is the sacred duty of every woman to invest in the Liberty bonds, even if it means going without so much food or so much clothing. It is a patriotic investment made for the downfall of autocracy," said Mrs. downfall of autocracy," said Mrs. Bass. "Besides the safe investment feature, your money will help win the

"The women's bonds will be distinguished from the regular bonds by being printed on liberty blue paper. "Buy a baby blue liberty bond for baby and some for brides," Mrs. Bass

The council passed a resolution asking clergymen to mention the Liberty loan in their sermons Sunday.

Nebraska Must Be Brought To 100 Per Cent Production

Nebraska must be brought to a 100 per cent grade of production of finance, grain, live stock and other things, the committee on financing production today decided. The committee met at the Fontenelle hotel and elected H. P. Shumway, chairman, and J. C. McNish, secretary. Two hours was spent in discussing the Liberty loan.

City Sued for Death of Bayard at Auditorium

Millie Bayard, widow of the late Joseph O. Bayard, Auditorium stage-hand who plunged to his death from the loft of the building December 15, 1916, is suing the city of Omaha under the workmen's compensation act for $3,500 in district court.

On his way to the Fontenelle, Secretary McAdoo recalled a trip to the movies that he made with the mayor when he was in Omaha the mayor when he was in Omaha last September.

He went to the Strand theater last fall to see Douglas Fairbanks and was informed that Fairbanks is at the Strand this week.

"What's the old boy up to now?" McAdoo asked.

When he was told the title of the film, he said, "Gosh that's a peach. My wife and I saw it in Washington a few days ago."
