

Nebraska COMMERCIAL CLUBS FOR LIBERTY LOAN

Organizations of the State
Elect Officers and Pledge
Support to the Administration.

For the third successive year, J. W. Steinhart of Nebraska City was yesterday elected president of the Nebraska State Association of Commercial Clubs. H. B. Watson of Kearney, secretary-treasurer, was re-elected.

Vice presidents, one from each congressional district, were elected as follows:
First, S. P. Cresap, Nebraska City; Second, C. C. George, Omaha; Third, Fred D. Wolt, Fremont; Fourth, H. A. Hahn, David City; Fifth, R. A. Blake, Hastings; and Sixth, E. P. Walters, Broken Bow.

By a new ruling the district vice presidents, with the officers, are to constitute an executive committee, which will meet four times a year in the various districts to transact such business as may come before it. Alliance was chosen as the meeting place for next year.

Pledged Support to Administration.
The association pledged its support to President Wilson and Governor Neville in the present crisis, and pledged its co-operation in bringing about the draft registration. The association recommended to individual Commercial clubs that they support the Red Cross movement.

Protest against the proposed increase in express rates will be made by the organization. M. H. Vaughn, Nebraska City, was delegated to appear before the Railway commission in Lincoln at the hearing.
Resolutions recommend that Commercial clubs and individuals, men and women, help the Liberty loan. They pledged the support of the organization to the campaign of the Young Men's Christian association for $60,000 in Nebraska to help look after the soldiers in the camps and at the front. They commended the active work already done in Missouri river navigation by the various organizations, and urged further activity along this line. They recommended that the Red Cross be organized by state units.

Stands By the Congress.
In a resolution addressed to the policy committee of the Nebraska Conservation congress, the Commercial Club's association said:
"This association does hereby endorse the conservation movement in all particulars, and offer to it our full and complete co-operation. We offer and pledge to the officers of the state association and every officer the resources of 100 member organizations.
"We believe that the grand patriotic work you have undertaken should be followed up by permanent organization, to carry out and complete the work so successfully launched by the congress now in session.
"If our association can be of assistance to you at this time, it is the unanimous wish of the convention, that we extend to your congress our assistance and co-operation."

Wood River Commencement.
Wood River, Neb., May 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Commencement exercises of the Wood River High school were held at the school auditorium Thursday evening with a large attendance. The class consisted of five girls and three boys. Dr. Edward Moore Furman of Kearney delivered the address on "The Measure of a Man." Leo Sanders received the scholarship.

Wet Grounds Stop Game Between Omaha and Links

Tabor Man Dies Suddenly.
Tabor, Ia., May 25.—(Special.)—Curtis Rhode died very suddenly at his home here Wednesday about 2 a. m. His death resulted from heart trouble that was brought on some years ago by heavy lifting and straining in handling big cakes of ice. Mr. Rhode had been a semi-invalid for several years. His widow and daughter, Eva, about 15 years of age, survive him. He was 37 years old.

Commencement at Emerson.

BELL-ANS
Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package proves it. 25c at all druggists.

Stepbrother and Stepsister Are Married at Red Oak
Red Oak, Ia., May 25.—(Special.)—A marriage license was issued here yesterday afternoon to Ernest Chaney and Miss Gladys Gail Sprague of Villisca, who are stepbrother and stepsister. Miss Sprague is the daughter of C. A. Sprague and the stepdaughter of Mrs. Sprague, while Mr. Chaney is the son of Mrs. C. A. Sprague and stepson of Mr. Sprague.
An ingenious crank has figured out that since the marriage Mr. Chaney is husband and stepbrother of his wife, son-in-law of his father and brother-in-law of himself. His wife can also lay claim to a similar distinction of relationship.
Mr. Chaney and Miss Sprague were married Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the Christian parsonage, Rev. J. A. McKenzie performing the ceremony. They will make their home on a farm southeast of Villisca.

Prof. Lefler Speaks at Elwood.
Elwood, Neb., May 25.—(Special.)—The annual commencement exercises of the Elwood High school were held at the opera house Wednesday night. Diplomas were given to six girls and two boys. Professor Lefler of Peru gave the address of the evening. His subject was "Brass Tacks."

Will Make Improvements At Tuberculosis Hospital
Kearney, Neb., May 25.—(Special.)—Chairman E. O. Mayfield and Henry Gerdes of the State Board of Control, spent the past two days in Kearney on a tour of inspection of the state institutions here. The plans for improvement of the state tuberculosis hospital include purchase of additional lands adjoining the present grounds on the east and on which is located a residence property.
It is the intention to use the latter as a residence for the hospital superintendent if the purchase is made. The construction of a septic tank, near the power company tail race, is also assured. New boilers are also in need in the heating plant, but as it is impossible to get them at this time the state will have to transfer two of the old boilers from Lincoln and use them temporarily.
Overhauling the old administration building, so it may be used as quarters for the hospital help, will also be undertaken.

Sturgis Commencement.
Sturgis, S. D., May 25.—(Special.)—The seniors of the Sturgis High school gave their class play last night, "The Betty Wales Girls and Mr. Kidd." The commencement exercises take place tonight. The class of 1917 consists of the following graduates: Marjory Le Master, Viva Gibboney, Jessie Wagner, Glenn Harlocker, Clara Weber, Alyce Fruth, Mary Kelly, Gladys Horlocker, Nelle Wenke, Frae Phillips, Corinne Goiens.

Soldiers' Home Notes
Grand Island, May 25.—(Special.)—James Walton has asked for a thirty-day furlough to visit his children.
Messrs. Henry Gerdes and Mayfield, members of the board of control of state institutions, visited Burkett yesterday. They spoke highly of the conditions they found here.
Those who have recently asked for furloughs are Mr. and Mrs. Reed, for thirty days; P. M. Krum, for four days; James Walton, for thirty-two days; Mrs. M. Keplinger, for sixty days; and Mrs. Rundall, for ten days. Victoria Keiser has returned.
Mrs. Martha Hungerford and William Henderson are members who have recently been admitted to the home. Mr. and Mrs. William Gould recently received their discharge.

Rev. John Grant Shick of Grand Island will deliver the Memorial sermon at the home chapel on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Soldiers from the York company of the National Guard, a band from Grand Island, a double quartet, male and female; the drum corps and the Grand Army post will attend.
