Will Prohibition Be Adopted As a War-Measure?

An Investigation of the Results in Nineteen "Dry" States

Nation-wide prohibition as a war measure would affect everybody in the United States. The good results of such a policy have been praised continuously in the press of the belligerent countries, and are cited in America by prohibition advocates to explain the great strides of the "dry" movement in the United States during the past two years.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for May 26th, the results of this nation-wide canvass is shown. This is the first non-partizan investigation of the kind ever made.
