Burgess-Nash Standards Are Never Lowered

COURAGE TO STEER STRAIGHT

is about the same these days in seamen, land-lubbers and business. With courage in the right, —with initiative in every plan and action, —with confidence in the present, —with faith in the future, this store is exerting every energy to be a worthy unit of the great Army of Service, steering straight in its course to be helpful to its patrons, each individually, all collectively.

To keep the pulse of the nation's business normal, everything must go on normally. The nation's industries and the business subsidiaries of industry are vital arteries of the nation's prosperity.

Already the country is proving that it can stand the shock, easily—by preserving our affairs as usual—buying what we need—saving as we always have—by eliminating waste—by keeping business going as usual.
