BASE BALL GAMES ON BATTLE FRONT

Canadians Will Challenge Americans in Diamond Contests Played in New World War League.

British Headquarters in France, May 28 (Via London), May 29.—The old adage of "all work and no play" has its application in war as well as in peace.

The base ball season on the western front is in full swing. Under the very shadow of Vimy ridge a great game was played yesterday before an all-khaki audience in a rough grandstand erected for the officers and other spectators, including General Horne, commanding the First British army, who has become an enthusiastic fan.

The game was between teams representing two Canadian brigades. In fact all the teams in what may be called the World War league are now composed of representatives of the numerous Canadian bodies and all the players are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the American forces to arrange for an interleague series.

LEONARD KNOCKS OUT FREDDIE WELSH

New York Lightweight Puts Blink on Former Champion by Blow in Ninth Round of Match.

New York, May 29.—Benny Leonard won the world's lightweight championship by knocking out Freddie Welsh in the ninth round of a ten-round match here last night.

Welsh's downfall came at the end of a series of rushes by Leonard that drove him from corner to corner. The champion had taken a severe beating during the early rounds and the punishment had begun to tell when the gong for the ninth round sounded.

Leonard, fresh as the moment he had entered the ring, jumped forward and met the champion as he was leaving his corner and delivered a shower of lefts and rights to the face and head.

Gets Smashing Right. Welsh, vainly trying to ward off the blows, worked his way into Leonard's corner, where Leonard succeeded in reaching him with a smashing right to the jaw.

His strength gone, he strove weakly to strike a fighting pose. As he left the ropes Leonard landed and Welsh hit the floor. He struggled to his feet twice more, but each time he was met by Leonard's rights to the face and head and again he fell to the floor.

The champion took the count of nine before he arose from the last knock down. He tried to stand, but fell across the ropes.

It was only a question of moments when he would have fallen and been counted out. At this point Referee McPartland leaped between the two men and pushing Leonard away carried the defeated champion to his corner.

A score of men occupying ringside seats jumped into the ring and, lifting the new champion to their shoulders, carried him in triumphal procession around the hall.

While the crowd was cheering itself hoarse, Welsh sat in a daze in his corner. When he had recovered some-

CARDINALS WIN, WILSON HURLING

Reds Can't Find Opposition Pitcher, While Two Cardinal Twirlers Are Lifted From Box.

Leonard weighed in at 144 pounds; Welsh at 136 1/2. Freddie Welsh won the world's lightweight championship by receiving the referee's decision after out-boxing Willie Ritchie, the American title holder, in a twenty-round bout in London, July 7, 1914.

Leonard was born in New York City in 1896. His recent knockout of Ritchie Mitchell of Milwaukee caused him to be regarded as a contender for the world's title.

Leonard, the new world's champion lightweight, will not "wait for conscription" but will enlist in the U. S. army after a six-round bout in Philadelphia next Monday night, his manager, Billy Gibson, announced after the fight.
