PART TWO MAGAZINE PAGES ONE TO EIGHT

VOL. XLVI-NO. 51.

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 3, 1917.

SINGLE COPY FIVE CENTS.

News of the Week in Social Circles: Activities in Women's Realm

The marriage of Miss Lottie Bartunek, formerly of Schuyler, Neb., fo Mr. L. R. Petracek, formerly of Milli-gan, Neb., will take place in Omaha Monday. The young people will make their home in McCook.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bridges Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bridges announce the engagement of their daughter, Emity, to Mr. Earl Byram of Decatur. The wedding will take place the latter part of June. Miss Bridges is a teacher in the Omaha schools and Mr. Byram is a prominent man of Decatur.

mest man of Decatur,

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Lay announce the engagement of their daughter, Margperite, to Mr. George Russell
Henning, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H.
Henning of Keeline, Wyo., formerly of Omaha. The wedding will take place June 27. Miss Lay is a graduate of Central High school. Mr. Henning has for the last two years been on a ranch near Keeline.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gross an-Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gross announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Elsie, to Joseph Patrick Ormsby of Chicago. The wedding will take place Monday morning at St. Peter's Catholic church, Father McCarthy officiating.

Miss Gross is a popular member of the Carter Lake club and belongs a number of dancing clubs.

The romance of the couple extends over a period of three years. They met while Mr Ormsby was in the local laboratory of the Union Pacific

Since the advent of war, plans for the wedding were unsettled, but since Uncle Sam took a survey of the coun-try's industrials, Mr. Ormsby, who was registered as an expert chemist, is now momentarily subject to call for billet as an inspector of high ex-missives at the Watertown assenal so plosives at the Watertown arsenal, so the wedding date was set. The young couple will reside temporarily in Chi-cago. Saturday-

Picnic for University of Chicago alumni at Summerhill Farm. Junior play at Brownell Hall.

Dinner-dance at Country, Field and Happy Hollow clubs.
Parties at American Field Ambulance film at Boyd, Luncheon for Brownell Hall
seniors in honor of Miss Myrtle Brown, Mrs. Thomas Brown, hostess.

War Relief Bridge Party

Mrs. E. M. Fairfield, Mrs. John L. Kennedy, Mrs. Halleck Rose and Miss Arabell Kimball will have charge of the prize table at the Equal Franchise card party Monday at 2 o'clock at the Country club. Twenty prizes donated by members of the society will be offered for the bridge game, which will be played in the usual way, doubling and redoubling.

Mrs. E. C. Twamley and Mrs. H. C. Sumney will be the doorkeepers and Mrs. A. M. Pinto and Mrs. Harry Jordan will have charge of the tables and scores. Mrs. Metcalf, prestdent of the society, has general charge of the entire affair. Other women assisting Monday will be Mesdames C. W. Russell, C. S. Stebbins, Alfred Darlow, C. H. Marple, E. W. Gunther, J. J. Sullivan, H. S. Clarke, jr.; Herbert Rogers, Harold Gifford, Arthur Remington, D. H. Wheeler, James L. Paxton, George Doane, jr., A. V. Kinsler, H. B. Robinson, C. T. Kountze and J. T. Stewart, 2d.

an orchestral overture. Following this a trumpeter will herald the appearance of Mrs. Doorly, who will read the prologue. Then comes the lovely opening dance to sunrise and a symbolic dance called the "Awakening of the Flowers."

As the fairies disappear and the flowers awaken, the Spirit of Walden Wood appears and a scene is presented in which the three fairies. Dewdrop, Stardust and Sunbeam dance, and the spirit holds converse with them.

After this the action of the masque unfolds. It is a whimsical thing with marked beauty and poetic thought in the lines. There is a humorous touch to the whole affair in the slangy, worldly language of the city youth, which is strangely at variance with the gentle utterances of the wood-land creatures.

Ind creatures.

The story relates how a very modern youth from Chicago comes to "Walden Wood," to spend his vacation. He is unacquainted with the ways of birds and flowers and spirits which abound in the woods. As he enters the fairies giggle at his strange appearance and the music suggests city ragtime and tango. This youth converses with the spirit of the wood and the bluebird and robin, but finds that he speaks a different language that he speaks a different language.

and the bluebird and robin, but finds that he speaks a different language from theirs.

He inquires about "roof gardens" and "movies" and when he grows hungry he asks to be directed to a "beanery." After a while the youth almost succumbs to the charm of the sylvan life and he about decides to sylvan life and he about decides to remain, but finally he announces that he is going to, "can this serious stuff," and go back to the city. He invites the little ones of the woods to come with him, but only the tiny vegetables ways.

A singer attired in patriotic colors who will sing the Marseillaise, will make a fitting finale. John Bloodhart designed an attractive poster to advertise the masque. It is on display in Edholm's window.

Society Girls as Ushers

Society Girls as Usiners

Society young women in Red Cross costumes or patriotic uniforms will act as ushers at the presentation of the American Ambulance film at Boyd's theater Saturday evening. Mrs.
John Caldwell and Miss Helen Scoble will take tickets at the door. Mrs.
Harold Prifichett, Misses Meliora and Flightent Davis, Elegabeth and Erns Elizabeth Davis, Elizabeth and Erna Reed, Virginia Offutt, Esther Wil-helm and Anne Gifford are the young women who will serve under the direction of Mrs. Charles Offutt, Lieutenant Roeder comes to make an inspirational and explanatory talk in connection with the film. Six Boy Scouts will be stationed at the door of the gallery to receive the 10-cent

News of the Visitors.

Mrs. Edward R. Morrison of Kan-Mrs. Edward R. Morrison of Kansas City arrived Saturday evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P.
Tukey, for three weeks, Mrs. Louis Korsmeyer of Lincoln a sister, will also come up to Omaha during Mrs.
Morrison's stay.
The three brothers of Miss Gertrude Kopald are coming home for

(Continued on Page Two, Column One.)

the country clubs now, for on Friday

The seriousness of war times con-tinues to turn the thoughts of the elite away from social functions of all kinds. The weather, too, has been a strong deterrent from outings at club houses built to attract the gentle sum-mer breezes and to withstand the heat of tronical August. Soon, though our

Mrs. Robert Price of Chicago is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Bert Reeves and Miss Nata Prescott.

Mrs. Abel Faidy of San Francisco accompanied her sister, Mrs. Alfred Darlow, home from California last week.

The three brothers of Miss Ger-trude Kopald are coming home for day will be special feature night.

termelon bears the sign, "Well, day evenings, women's luncheon on here we are again." The situa-Thursday and married folks' dinner-tion is exactly the same with all dance every other Thursday evening. the country clubs now, for on Friday evening the last on the list, Seymour Lake Country club, came into the fold by holding its opening dimer-dance. The evening was just as disagreeable as each of the five other clubs has had, but the members came royally to open the summer season.

The seriousness of war times controlled the seriousness of war times controlled to the countrolled that its Omaha members may attend the weekly parties at both clubs. The Field club, as usual, has its din-ner-dances on Wednesday and Thurs-

Gilbert The seriousness of war times continues to turn the thoughts of the seriousness of war times continues to turn the thoughts of the lite away from social functions of all kinds. The weather, too, has been a strong deterrent from outings at club houses built to attract the gentle summer breezes and to withstand the heat of tropical August. Soon, though, our usual sunny weather will be cropping forth, I am sure. Cropping is the idea, for all this rain is just a starter for the crops in which everyone has a visual sunny weather will be cropping forth, I am sure. Cropping is the idea, for all this rain is just a starter for the crops in which everyone has a visual sunny weather will be forced to seek the cooling shade of the country clubs.

For this time the clubs are patiently waiting and going through their regular schedules each week. Seymour Lake club has children's matines on Tuesday, women's golf luncheou on Thursday and dinner-dances on Friday evenings.

One of the special features which Carter Lake club inaugurated last year will be continued this season manely, the moving nicture exhibits on the grounds Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

One of the special features which Carter Lake club inaugurated last year will be continued this season manely, the moving nicture exhibits on the grounds Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

One of the special feature which Carter Lake club inaugurated last year will be continued this season manely, the moving nicture exhibits on the grounds Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

One of the special feature which Carter Lake club inaugurated last year will be continued this season manely, the moving nicture exhibits on the grounds Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

One of the special feature which Carter Lake club inaugurated last year will be continued this season manely the moving for the proposed of the continued the weekly parties at both clubs.

June the month of brides and searcely beginning to open their blossoons because o