

Let's go Shopping with Polly

June has arrived
Thru the rain
And the sunshine
Betokening blossoms
Of every hue
Joy will she bring
To hosts of small
Children
Peace may she Carry to
Each one of you
Be cheerful
And happy
And show
What you're made of
These days when
Our lads have gone
Bravely to war

You must
Keep the wheels
Of our industries
Moving
Buying not less
But more than before
Do not deny
Your family the comfort
Or joys in this life
For by buying
You know
You keep
Many men
Working and living
And also
You're helping
Our Nation
To grow

Did you ever let Polly shop for you? She's done it for others and will be glad to help you, too. If you live out of town or are a "shut-in" in the city, write or phone her your desires, but be sure to be specific in your wishes as to color, fabric and garments desired. Purchases will be sent from the stores C. O. D.

JOY! No more uncomfortable summer days for the boy when he's obliged to "dress up," for in a suit of Kool Kloth he'll be as happy as the day is long, and still be nattily attired for any occasion. These suits of wool and linen are absolutely washable—have pinch backs and patch pockets and come in good-looking fancy mixtures. Priced $5.00 in The Boys' Shop at Benson & Thorne's. Ages 6 to 17.

LISTEN! Here's a bit of interesting shop gossip! That pretty little Hat Shop of Drahos-Luttig's, 1706 Douglas Street, will have a clearing sale Monday and Tuesday on all Midsummer hats—beauties, too! Better be there first thing in the morning if you want to secure one!

SEVERAL letters of inquiry prompt me to suggest "THE KELLLOGG" 2454 Harney St., as being a delightful exclusive hotel at which to stop while in Omaha. The rooms are so attractively sweet and clean and you receive all the pleasant courtesies of a larger hotel without paying exorbitant prices.

THE vogue for embroidery, pleating, hemstitching and picotting is unquestioned! Why almost every gown, suit, coat and hat that we wear nowadays has some of these touches to add to their attractiveness—bags and parasols, too, receive their share of adornment. Mr. Ver Mehren of The Ideal Pleating Co., Brown Block, is constantly installing new machinery and employing extra helpers to care for the increasing popularity of these embellishments of fashion. You can expect perfect workmanship if you take your garment to "The Ideal."

THE poet sings, "The rain it raineth all around—it rains on field and tree." But we don't care a fig when we can have our umbrellas neatly repaired and re-covered at The Western Umbrella Co., 19th and Farnam. Parasol frames, too, after a visit to this clever shop, come home so smart and nifty looking in their new dresses that we can hardly wait for the sun to come out for the joy of carrying them.

CHINESE file! Don't you love it? And when combined with Georgette in one of the new style collars—well! I just haven't adjectives enough to describe it, that's all. You'll have to see it for yourself at the Oriental Shop of The Eldridge Importing Co., 1318 Farnam, to appreciate its true beauty.

IT'S of primary importance to have one's feet in good condition before the hot weather sets in. Miss Johnson of The Comfort Shop, 601 Rose Bldg., by her gentle foot massage and careful chiropody has relieved many who are foot-sore and weary. She also removes disfiguring hairs and moles from the face by her electrolysis treatments.

BUSY little Miss Cole of The Lingerie Shop—and BUNGALOW Aprons! One can't mention one without instantly thinking of the other! Yes, Miss Cole has won fame and friends with those neatly tailored aprons of hers. Have you one? They're surely worth the price—only $1.25 and up—and you just should see her "Saucy Jane" house frocks, cleverest things you ever saw. Drop in at 511 Bee Bldg. and order one at once.

MR. LAMOND has just returned from the East with a veritable galaxy of the cleverest new conceptions favored by Dame Fashion for Summer Days. Pretty colored voile dresses in sunny shades of apricot, green, rose and yellow charmingly trimmed with soutache embroidery and other attractive touches. A lovely assemblage of white frocks and sports dresses. Stop at the Ross Bldg. this week and take the elevator to LAMOND'S on the 2d floor, so you can glimpse these newest of new styles.

PEWTER Tea Set! What visions it brings to mind of quaint ladies serving tea in beflowered and beruffled gowns. Perhaps you have a cherished piece of pewter which it was your good fortune to inherit—and doesn't it add dignity to your dining room? Far handsomer, though, than the pewter pieces of "Ye Olden Days" are the hand-wrought and hand-carved Chinese pewter pieces which are shown for the first time in Omaha at The W. H. Eldridge Importing Co., 1318 Farnam St. There are tea-pots, sugar bowls and candlesticks resembling silver, and so exquisitely intricate in design that it's a source of wonderment how it ever could be done. Own a piece of this wonderful pewter—you'll be proud to hand it down as a gift to posterity.

NO Bride's outfit is complete without several attractive blouses—and Benson & Thorne have as splendid a line as I've seen anywhere in the city for the little brides-to-be to choose from. Crepe de chine, tub silks and taffetas to wear for traveling, dream-like Georgettes in any shade imaginable for dressier occasions, sports linen blouses for golfing and tennis and dainty lingerie blouses for the Summer Days. In fact, you'll want to buy several of these exquisite blouses from the distracting array at Benson & Thorne's Blouse Section.

HONEYMOON luggage! When the train has "puffed away" and the station finally disappears from sight, won't it be a pleasure and a satisfaction to know that your daintiest and most precious belongings are packed carefully away in an Orchard & Wilhelm WARDROBE TRUNK? There's a very SPECIAL SALE, if you please, on trunks and bags—but you'd best hurry—it's only good till June 9.

SUCH a bevy of lovely tubable wash dresses as I saw at Thompson-Belden's yesterday. There were simple frocks of Gingham (yes, Gingham is in our best society nowadays) which divided honors with frocks of French and Irish linen and sheer French voile. Suitable for Graduation or Home Weddings are adorable dresses of organdy, net and point d'esprit. Really, it's beyond the power of my imagination to think of anything sweeter for Summer time. Anyway, you'll enjoy seeing the many new styles at Thompson-Belden's.

I JUST can't help mentioning that pretty little Japanese shop around the corner at 218 S. 18th St., for it has so many lovely gift ideas that I know with Commencement time drawing near you'll be glad to be reminded of it. Gifts from the Orient that any girl would appreciate on account of their charming distinctiveness. Embroidered party bags, handsome kimonoes, baskets, embroidered table napery, tea-set—in fact, innumerable fascinating things, and all so modestly priced. A visit to The Nippon Importing Co.'s Shop will be a treat—you'll enjoy it, I know!

ORCHARD & WILHELM'S Gift Shop has a whole table full of dolls—Red Cross Nurses, Betsy Ross with a cunning little story of The Flag, Boy Scouts, Sailors and dolls from France. The proceeds from the sale of them will go to French widows and orphans.

Just the most convenient thing for you to put in the bottom of your trunk when you take a trip this summer is a little folding ironing board in a flowery case that I found in one of our shops. This, with an electric traveling iron, will save you dollars and dollars on your laundry bill.

ADD grace and distinction to your Summer costume by purchasing a pair of those snowy white linen boots or pumps which have just arrived from the East for Napier's Booterie—and for YOU. You may have a fine French or a Baby Louis heel—whichever you please—and these boots and pumps are justly priced $6.00. Of course, I need hardly add: If they come from Napier's, they will fit without a wrinkle.

Handsome to wear and lace and jet gowns and very new indeed are lango filet-topped boots beaded in silver. In white and black, they are the smartest things I've seen for Summer.

Larson Now Fined for Selling Poor Grade of Milk

A. M. Larson, who conducts a dairy at Sixtieth and Center streets, was found guilty on two counts for selling milk below standard. He paid fines of $25 and costs on both counts. This dairy was raided last month and the largest supply of intoxicating liquor taken from it that has been found since the new prohibition law went into effect.

Allege Cruelty as Basis For Two Divorce Suits

Cruelty is the basis of two divorce suits brought in district court by wives. Anna Hixon is suing Clarence Hixon. They were married at Council Bluffs December 31, 1913. Josephine Paulino would be freed from Angelo Paulino. They were married in Omaha January 9, 1916.

"GLAD to see you," is the merry greeting I receive the moment I enter that pleasant Uptown shop of F. W. Thorne's, at 1812 Farnam St. The happy, friendly atmosphere there and the desire one feels to return again has made me want to christen it "The Friend-Making and The Friend-Keeping Shop." Did you see those pretty organdy Graduation Frocks displayed in the windows this week? Weren't they just "too sweet"? That one with medallion circles of ruffles was just adorable, I thought—and back in the show cases you'll find hosts of other bewitching things, fluffy nets daintily trimmed with lace and myriads of tucks and some very sheer French voiles. It's just the place for June Graduates to be outfitted.

GOING away? Then you'll want a robe, a cap and slippers to wear on the Pullman. Cleverly tucked within a flat tailored-looking silk bag are these traveling accessories imported directly from Japan to the W. H. Eldridge Co. at 1318 Farnam St. The outfit is made of pure silk pongee of super quality and beautifully bound and embroidered in rose, green, black, blue or brown. $1.50 is the price of the outfit, which is no more than you'd pay for the kimono alone. Just the thing for a honeymoon trip!

"WHAT'S more fair than a day in June?" Who in the world is more adorable than the Sweet Girl Graduate? And where is the place to buy the FLOWERS you wish to offer at her shrine Commencement Day? Why, Lee Larmon's, Fontenelle Florist, of course, for you can depend on the flowers at his shop always being fresh and colorful. One of his exquisitely arranged corsages in Colonial effects, or a box of her favorite roses will make her the Happiest Girl in the World. Phone your order to Doug. 8244, 'twill receive careful attention.

HOW I would love to be a little girl again just to be able to wear a "Little Sister" dress! They are too cunning for words—so practical and inexpensive and at the same time becoming and attractive. Mothers of little girls 2 to 6 years old will be perfectly delighted with these pretty chamber and gingham frocks in The Tots' Shop at Benson & Thorne's. There are semi-empire middie and bloomer styles—and just imagine it! all the style of a much higher priced garment for only $1.25.

DECIDEDLY new, and very, very smart, indeed, are the new Stock Ties which have just arrived at Lucien Stephen's Shop for Men, 1901 Farnam St. They come in popular colors, polka dots and stripes and are priced 50c. These swaggar neck hix'n's, which are just as stylish for women as men, are highly favored in the East now to wear with sports attire.

JUNE BRIDES, ATTENTION! Pray let me assist you, for shopping's a strenuous task. Here's a list of the shops you may visit, or I'll shop for you if you but ask:

THOMPSON-BELDEN'S will show you your gown, some blouses and frocks from LAMOND'S, a hat from the hat shop of DRAHOS & LUTTIG'S is sure to bring praise and renown. F. W. THORNE will be so "Glad to See You," his showing of togs is alluring. THE WESTERN UMBRELLA SHOP makes a sunshade to match the new silk you're securing. To trim any frock with embroidery and such THE IDEAL PLEATING CO. delights to. THE LINGERIE SHOP makes you most anything, and a "Saucy Jane" surely incites you to do your own housework. At ORCHARD & WILHELM'S a trunk or a bag I'd secure, or a fine kitchen table—a saver of labor—full many a meal 'twill insure. BENSON & THORNE have sweet blouses and smocks, Kool Kloth suits for brother and wee sister's frocks. For the latest in boots or pumps let me state that NAPIER'S BOOT-ERIE is most up-to-date. For flowers see LEE LARMON, for gifts with much style ORCHARD'S or ELD- RIDGE'S are quite worth your while. SILVER and jewelry at EDMON- STON'S shop—for things Oriental, at the "NIPPON" we'll stop. Then over to HOSPE'S to buy a piano, or pictures perhaps, or a splendid Victrola—and footsore and weary our shopping must cease, so we'll hie to MISS JOHNSTON for Comfort and Ease. And if out of the city you happen to dwell, just take your bag up to THE KELLLOGG HOTEL.

Sincerely yours,
POLLY.

Health Talks

(BY DR. BURHORN.)

Nervous debility or exhaustion, also popularly known as nervous prostration or nervous weakness or neurasthenia, is becoming alarmingly prevalent.

The wear, tear and strain of modern life is concentrated upon the nervous system. The care and consequent fret, worry and labor of this age are greater than ever before known.

The human body in every function is controlled by the nerves—a vast network of nerves reach every portion of the human body and govern the operations of every organ and every function of the body.

Exposure to wet and cold, falls, jars, shocks or anything that injures the spine or causes a misplacement of one or more of the vertebrae, producing nerve pressure, is the direct cause of 95% of the human ailments.

Chiropactic Spinal Adjustments free impinged nerves, allowing nature to assert herself, which consists in eliminating bodily poisons and building up resistance and putting the body in the best condition possible.

Chiropactic has proven potent and efficient in all manner of diseases, including those of the head, stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, as well as headaches, back aches, rheumatism, lumbago, tonsillitis, bronchitis and the very large class known as women's diseases.

Dr. Burhorn is a graduate of the Palmer School of Chiropactic, and has one of the finest equipped offices in the west, located on the fourth floor of the Rose Building, corner 16th and Farnam streets. Sanitarium accommodations for out-of-town patients. Phone Douglas 5347 for appointment.

A Big Opportunity for the Right Man

We Are Establishing 5000 Service Branches In U.S.

We want one man in your town and general community to take charge of The Riley-Schubert-Grossman Company's local Service Branch—to represent this great $5,000,000 mail order company—to handle all our business where you live.

Not necessary to buy merchandise, or have experience. We do the selling, advertising work—you supervise the business that comes in. We rent and furnish an office for you. Right over your desk you may handle $20,000 to $50,000 in mail orders a year.

Remember, we back you with the great stocks of merchandise of the fastest growing mail order house in Chicago. Our big catalogs—which go into city and farm homes everywhere—list thousands of bargains in Apparel, Household Supplies, Furniture, Groceries, Machinery, Farm Implements, Automobile Supplies, etc., etc.

We assume all expense—therefore must have a trustworthy manager who can be depended upon to accept and O. K. orders accompanied by big sums of money.

To ONE Man in Your Town

We offer this unusual opportunity. You may be the man we want—a retired merchant or farmer or ex-rural free delivery man, or bright ambitious young man. Do not answer unless you enjoy a reputation above reproach. If you are the right man we can make you the leading merchant of your locality.

We are going to decide the matter quickly. Write to Pres. Grossman Personally—Today! Write fully about yourself, in strict confidence. Let President Grossman know what you have been doing for the last five years.
