

CONVICTS IN JOLIET PRISON IN REVOLT

Five Buildings Are Fired and Troops Called to Drive Men Back to Cells; Several Wounded. Joliet, Ill., June 5.—Serious rioting among convicts at the state prison here broke out this morning. Five buildings were set on fire. Two companies of national guardsmen were called to assist in quelling the disturbance.

The prison is on the outskirts of the city. Three fire companies which responded to the alarm met opposition from the convicts, who used bricks and tools stolen from the implement house as weapons. There are about 1,200 convicts and fifty guards.

French Outline Terms of Peace

All Conquered Territory Must Be Restored and All Damages Paid For. Paris, June 5.—By a vote of 453 to 55 the Chamber of Deputies in secret session has adopted a resolution declaring that peace conditions must include the liberation of territory occupied by Germany, the return of Alsace-Lorraine to France and just reparation for damage done in the invaded regions. The resolution, which was accepted by the government, also favors the creation of a league of nations for the maintenance of peace.

Soldiers Use Bayonets

A battle between convicts and guards was proceeding briskly when the soldiers bayoneted. They were ordered to hold their fire, and although outnumbered nine to one, they began an orderly attack with bayonets and clubbed rifles. In the course of the fighting Peter Water, a guard, was injured. Captain H. E. Ridgeway of Company E was attacked by a big negro.

Two Buildings Destroyed

At 1 o'clock all but 200 of the prisoners had been returned to confinement. The 200 were still in a corner of the yard defiant. Soldiers were not allowed to injure them and were jeered by the convicts.

Little Disorder at Registration Anywhere in U. S.

Ensign took to his heels and ran down Farnam street, with several hundred men following, crying: "Lynch him; hang him to a telephone pole." The crowd was gaining on the fugitive and at Fifteenth street he dashed into the Missouri Pacific ticket office. A dozen or more of his pursuers were at his heels and were on top of him as soon as he got through the door.
