RECORD NUMBER OF RECRUITS GO FORTH

Ninety-One Start for Training Quarters Monday, of Whom Sixty-Two Are Omahans.

The largest number of army recruits turned out in one day from any single station in this district left Omaha Monday, according to officials at the army recruiting station.

Friends Here, These Two Will Try to Be Together in Trenches

WARREN L. JOHNSON

HARRY R. WEINBERG

Fast friends throughout their high school days in Omaha, 1912 to 1914, Harry R. Weinberg and Warren L. Johnson, intend to remain friends in the trenches in France.

Both have resigned good jobs and disposed of their interests here to go into the regular army. Together they left last night for Fort Logan, Colo., to go into training in the infantry.

Harry R. Weinberg is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Weinberg, 2102 California street. He was graduated from the Omaha High school in 1916. For some time he has been a partner in the Bergman Jewelry Supply company. He has disposed of his interest in the company.

Warren L. Johnson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. August Johnson, 1724 Lake street. He finished high school in 1914. Since the organization of the Arnold H. Edmonston Jewelry company, Johnson has been a salesman with the company.

Both boys drilled four years in the battalion of high school cadets. They attained the rank of non-commissioned officers, and Johnson had been recommended for a lieutenantcy in the battalion.

The boys enlisted nearly a month ago, and got special permission to remain here for several weeks in order to dispose of their business interests and clear up other matters before going into training.

Largest Flags in Omaha Are Thrown to Breeze

What are believed to be the largest flags thrown to the breeze in Omaha are hung in the center of Douglas street, between the Nebraska Telephone company's building and the Hotel Fontenelle.

The two emblems were made in the hotel's linen room by the Fontenelle housekeeper. She has also made four other flags, representing the blood red emblem of New Russia, of France of Great Britain and Belgium. These will be used to decorate the hotel lobby, overhung by a great American flag.

"Alkitis" is New Drink that Tickle's the Thirsty Palate

Bert Brodick alleges that Monday he went into the L. D. Hopkins Drug store on Sixteenth and California streets, where he asked for "Alkitis."

portunity to take a drink. L. M. Price, a clerk in the store, he says, sold him the liquor. The case has been set for hearing Thursday in order to have an analysis made of the liquor sold and that found in stock to see if it conforms to the formulas prescribed by the prohibition law.

Nuxated Iron Makes Strong, Vigorous, Iron Men and Beautiful Healthy Rosy Cheeked Women

Dr. Howard James, late of the Manhattan State Hospital of New York, and formerly Assistant Physician, Brooklyn State Hospital, says:

"Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron.

Go! That's there stuff (Nuxated Iron) acts like magic. It certainly puts the ginger of youth into a man.

"If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. From my own experience with Nuxated Iron, I feel it is such a valuable remedy that it should be kept in every hospital and prescribed by every physician in this country."

Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. James, is for sale by Sherman & McConnell Drug Stores and all good druggists on an absolute guarantee of success and satisfaction or your money refunded.

Weather Bureau Has Jobs For Lads Under Twenty-One

Positions in the United States weather bureau, paying $900 to $1,200 a year to start, are now open for young men from 17 to 20 years of age. Colonel Welsh of the local weather bureau has received blanks from Washington and young men can make application to him in his office on the fourth floor of the federal building.

The opening are created because men who are now on our list of eligibles will be taken by the military draft and the departments want to fill their places," said Colonel Welsh. High school students or high school graduates ought to be able to qualify for these positions. Examinations are to be waived. Many of these young men will be assigned to aerological work which the bureau is doing in connection with aviation work.

Banquet Graduate Nurses Who Will Join Red Cross

Twelve young women, members of the graduating class of the Nicholas Senior hospital training school for nurses, were banqueted Monday night at the Hotel Fontenelle by the members of the alumni association.

Previous to the banquet Dr. J. M. Banister outlined the probable duties of the young nurses as America becomes more deeply immersed in the ordeal of war. All of the graduates expect to join the Red Cross and some have announced their intention of entering foreign service.

Nebraska Dentists Open Annual State Convention

S. A. Allen of Loup City, vice president of the Nebraska State Dental society, is in line for the presidency of the society, which is now in annual session at the Creighton Dental college and the Hotel Fontenelle.

An effort was made to stop the train, but it was impossible until after the engine had passed over the body.

Registration Notes

At noon 108 had registered at the high school.

Approximately seven out of every 100 men registered by noon claimed exemption.

Two men over age, applied for registration at 1408 Harney street. They were instructed by the federal court. They had particular reasons they should be listed.

In practically all big business houses and down town offices the young men were given at least an hour off during the day so they might have plenty of time to register.

Registration day was observed as a holiday in the federal building. There were no sessions of federal court. The clerks of the office were closed all day and some of the other offices part of the day.

Martin Hansen, who gave his home as No. 1408 Harney street, as an inmate of an ill-governed house Monday night. He was discharged Tuesday morning in order to allow him to return home to register.

An extra clerk has been assigned to work in the office of superintendent of schools, to look up ages of foreign-born residents in connection with conscription. This has particular reference to evening school attendants.

Commissioner Moorhead has ruled that laboring men who are shut out of work at present by the labor difficulties in Omaha may answer Question 4 as follows: "Temporarily unemployed due to labor disturbances."

Eleven out of the first eighteen men to register at the Central High school claimed exemption. This proved above the average, however, as only five out of the next twenty-seven were unable to deny their services to Uncle Sam.

Twenty-two Greeks appeared at the election commissioner's office in the court house in a body to inquire where they should register. They were railroad laborers and had an interpreter with them. They were registered and given buttons.

Registrars ran out of buttons in some precincts. Armed with their official registration cards, prospective army men swamped down upon Election Commissioner Moorhead and demanded exemption to wear on their coat lapels. They got it.

County Commissioner Johnny Lynch, Pete Luch and Harry Wynore all registered, although Lynch said several years have passed since they saw the sunny side of life. "Why can't we register for the money?" they demanded. "A man is only as old as he feels and we all feel under 30."

Hundreds of young men who registered would not answer the question of whether or not they claimed exemption. "If I'm needed I'm needed," said one youth. "I've got dependents, but if they don't want to exempt me, it's all the same to me. It's a cinch I won't ask for exemption."

Tangier Temple Drum corps, under the leadership of Dr. Zora D. Clark, attracted much attention on down town streets and in the rotunda of public buildings, where the drummers and fifes played stirring tunes with martial airs. It was the first public appearance of the corps. The corps visited the court-enrolled recruiting stations, many registration places and several down town stores. Dr. Clark's men played in the rotunda of the Ben building and were accorded generous applause by a crowd which quickly gathered.
