AN ATTRACTIVE HOME
BUILT TO LIVE IN, NOT TO RENT.
BEAUTIFULLY FINISHED AND DECORATED IN THE VERY BEST RESIDENCE DISTRICT.

This is one of the best built homes in Omaha. Stone foundation and basement, solid brick above; slate roof. The coal bin and fruit cellar of tile. Practically no cost for painting or repairing.

Library with built-in bookcases, solid cherry; halls and staircase of oak; dining room is paneled in Venetian oak. All floors are hardwood. Large double storm windowed and screened sun porch, connected with both the library and dining room by French doors. The walls of the first floor and upper hall are covered with hand-decorated burlap, except the music room; three bath rooms. Large closets with outside windows, wardrobes and chest of drawers. There is a laundry fruit cellar, furnace room and space which can be finished for a billiard room in the basement, which is cemented throughout. Large soft water cistern, gas, not water heater for summer use.

So well built that 15 tons of coal will heat it throughout and with solid brick walls, it is wonderfully cool in summer. At the very crest of the hill, there is always a breeze there if anywhere. It is convenient to the car line and in the choicest residence section of Omaha. The price is very reasonable and terms will be made to suit the buyer's convenience. Owner leaving the city.

Cattle—Receipts were moderate this morning, making the total for the two days 10,259 head, the lightest for a number of weeks back and slightly smaller than a year ago. Buyers were out in the yards in good season in the morning and everything desirable in the way of killers was disposed of at an early hour, beeves being quoted strong to 10c higher. The advance was most noticeable on good to choice yearlings. There was nothing very toppy in sight to test out the full strength of the market, but there were cattle good enough to bring $13.20. Stockers and feeders were in light supply and about steady.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice beeves, $12.50@13.35; fair to good beeves, $11.50@12.50; common to fair beeves, $10.25@11.50; good to choice yearlings, $12.00@13.25; fair to good yearlings, $11.00@12.00; common to fair yearlings, $10.00@11.00; good to choice heifers, $10.25@11.25; good to choice cows, $9.75@10.75; fair to good cows, $8.75@9.75; common to fair cows, $7.00@8.75; prime feeding steers, $10.00@11.00; good to choice feeders, $9.25@10.00; fair to good feeders, $8.50@9.25; common to fair feeders, $7.00@8.50; good to choice stockers, $9.50@10.50; stock heifers, $8.25@10.50; stock cows, $7.00@10.00; stock calves, $8.50@11.00; veal calves, $10.00@14.25; beef bulls, stags, etc., $8.00@10.75.

Hogs—Fairly liberal supplies of hogs were on hand again today, 148 cars, or about 10,600 head, being reported in. For the two days the supply totals 17,570 head, being more than 1,000 larger than a week ago, but about 3,000 smaller than two weeks ago, and a falling off of nearly 1,000 head as compared with the corresponding days last year.

Early rounds of the trade were absolutely dead. Shippers were doing nothing and packers early 10c lower bids failed to interest salesmen, as Chicago was coming nearly steady. In the end, however, killer buyers had pretty much their own way. Shippers never did furnish much competition and sellers finally gave in and cashed the bulk of their holdings at largely 10c lower figures.

In the middle of the market there were one or two spots when good hogs sold not over 5c lower, but these were just flashes, and for the most part it was 10c lower trade.

Bulk of the offerings sold at $15.15@15.30, the latter price being the day's top.

SHEEP.

The lamb trade was another very draggy deal. Packers were out for fresh declines, but sellers, who are fighting the break harder each succeeding day, held out for steady for quite a while, and although they had to make small concessions in the end the decline was smaller than on most recent days.

A pretty good share of the offerings had been sold, the more desirable end of them at least at prices that ranged from around 10c lower on best kinds to as much as 25c lower on others.

LUTHERAN MEETING IS GREAT SUCCESS

Clergymen and Laymen Express Satisfaction With Celebration of Reformation Anniversary Here.

Omaha's celebration of the 400th anniversary of the Protestant reformation was a great success. At the closing sessions of the three days' meeting the local clergymen and leading laymen expressed great satisfaction with it.

"The celebration has bound the Lutherans of Omaha and vicinity together more than ever, though they have always worked in unity of spirit," said Rev. Dr. O. D. Baltzly.

The two big mass meetings in the Auditorium were splendidly attended. The big choir came in for a large share of commendation. Under direction of John S. Helgren and with singers from all Lutheran choirs in the city it proved itself one of the very finest choirs ever heard in Omaha.

Rev. Prof. C. J. Sodergren of the Augustana Theological seminary, Rock Island, Ill., addressed the morning session, Tuesday, in Immanuel Lutheran church, on "The Christian Luther and Lutheran Christian."

Commanding Leader.

"Luther," he said, "was a man of the greatest brilliancy and of commanding leadership. At the age of 25 years he was already a professor and with such success that student and teachers came from all over the world of his day to sit at his feet. At the age of 27 years he was elected by seven monasteries to bring an embassy from them to the pope at Rome.

"Even apart from the reformation, Luther was the most masterful personality of his age. Carlyle speaks of him as 'unsubduable granite, rising high into the heavens.'

"His life is most admirable. His was the ideal Christian family life. His work as a preacher and pastor was the marvel of his fellow-laborers. When the cholera broke out Luther stayed with the sick and ministered to them. Oh, he was afraid. He tells us he was afraid, 'but I held Christ by the hand and was strengthened,' he said."

On the second part of his subject Prof. Sodergren said:

"A Lutheran doesn't need to be told, 'You must lead a Christian life,' any more than a living man needs to be told 'You must breathe.' The light within makes him live a Christian life with joy and peace in the Lord and his faith."

Rev. Dr. V. G. A. Tressler of Wittenberg Theological seminary, Springfield, O., delivered an address on "The Historical Interpretation of Dr. Martin Luther."

Rev. C. N. Swihart, pastor of Grace Lutheran church, presided. The prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Ringer of Council Bluffs.

The closing session of the celebration was held Tuesday afternoon in Kountze Memorial church. Rev. Dr. P. M. Lindberg of Immanuel Deaconess' institute presiding. The principal address was by Rev. Dr. Gustav Andreen, president of Augustana college and Theological seminary, Rock Island, Ill., on "Our Heritage." The choir of Kountze Memorial church sang at this service.

Celebrations like the one in Omaha are being held all over this country this year and also in many foreign countries. There are more than 75,000,000 Lutherans in the world.
