Puncture Musser's Emery Ball for Six Hits and Give Omaha Victory, Five to Three. to Three.

Paul Musser's surreptitious emery ball is no puzzler to Earl Smith and Hal Brokaw. Conclusive evidence of this assertion is contained in the story of Omaha's victory over Des Moines yesterday, 5 to 3. Earl and Hal are the lads who won Earl and Hal are the lads who won the conflict for our terriers. Smith made four hits, including a home run and a triple, and Brokaw made two. Smith made two of the five runs and so did Brokaw. It was Smith who hammered out the hits that enabled Brokaw to count.

Smithy opened on Musser in the opening stanza. He cracked a triple to center and a moment later salloned to center and a moment later galloped home on a wild chuck.

Earl's auspicious start gave his mates so much confidence and spirit they went out and made a run themselves. Krug walked, went to sec-on! when Hartford mussed up Brad-ley's grounder, took third when Cof-fey dropped Brottem's fly and scored in Schick's sacrifice fly to right. That was the only Omaha counter Smith and Brokaw failed to help manufacture.

manufacture.

In the second stanza Brokaw singled to center and sneaked to second on Spencer's wide throw to the diamond. He was sacrificed to third by Merz and scored on Smith's single to Score: Wichita, Joplin.

While all this was going on Otto Merz kept the Boosters in order by allowing but five hits. The quintet of blows netted the coon creekers three tallies.

Cass' single and steal in the first followed by a sacrifice and a wild pitch scored one for the enemy. A walk, force out and Spahr's double counted another in the fifth and in the ninth Sweeney poled a home run over the right field lence for the third Des Moines tally.

The last game of the Omaha-Des Moines series will be played today, starting at 3:15.

The Rourkes hit the road for a trip of two weeks after today's game, so fans will have their last chance for some time to see our heroes in action.

Brokaw subbed in center for Shag Thompson, who is suffering from a boil and a sore hoef. It might he said Hai did a pretty good job of aubbing.

good job of aubbing.

Des Moines put up some messy ball in the first two stanzas, making two errors in each frame, but the Boosters settled down as the game progressed.

Musser made a motion that should have been counted as at least seventeen balks, but as we perhaps have mentioned before, there is no such thing as a balk in the Western deague.

The Bourtes seventees the seventees we have been controlled to the western deague.

Western seague.

The Rourkes stopped the game time and sgair to insist that Musser was throwing the emery ball, but Miller refused to admit it. Toward the latter part of the same, however, he did pocket one of the balls.

In addition to his three hits which counted in the scoring Smith garnered a single in the fourth. In the second he put the hall over the fonce, but it fell foul a few inches. So he was content with a single in this frame and postponed the circuit drive until the seventh. Hunter didn't even go back on the homer, it was such a long, hard drive.

signed a contract with President Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh club. It was announced that Wagner will appear at first base in tomorrow's game with Brooklyn.

No statement was made as to the salary Wagner will receive under the new contract. For the last two years it is said he has been receiving $10,000 and according to some reports it was because of a reduction that the veteran failed to report this spring.

After signing a contract Wagner sent the following telegram to August Herrmann, chairman of the National Base Hall commission:

"Finding the call of base ball too strong to resist, I desire to continue pear at first base in tomorrow's game

Finding the call of pase pail too strong to resist, I desire to continue to play the game I love and to which I owe all I possess, and I hereby petition the National commission to grant my request for reinstatement so that I may play with my old club to-

COAST GRAPPLERS SHY AT PLESTINA

Unable to Get Matches, Omaha Wrestler Starts Home; To Make Tour of Iowa.

Marin Plestina, Omaha heavyweight grappler, who went to San Francisco in May to wrestle Ad Santel, is coming home.

After beating Santel Plestina remained on the coast in the hope that he might land another match or two. he might land another match or two. But after the coast crop of wrestling persons watched Marin maul Santel around the ring they decided they wanted none of his game and the Omaha man couldn't even get them to speak to him on the street, they were so careful to avoid him.

Plestina remained on, however, in the hope of landing a match. He so careful to avoid him.

Plestina remained on, however, in the hope of landing a match. He stayed until after the Lewis-Zbyszko match. But neither Lewis nor Zbyszko wanted any of Plestina's game and Marin decided to come home. Coast promyters tried to match Marin with Lewis and Zbyszko, but both said "nay, nay." Plestina once threw Lewis at Lexington, Ky., in forty-three minutes.

In company with Pete Loch, his manager, and Farmer Burns, Plestina intends to make a tour of Iowa just before his clash with Henry Ordeman at the Omaha Auditorium July 4. The Omaha man contemplates a tour of about two weeks and expects to appear in all of the larger Iowa towns, where he will make sweeping challenges to all the wrestlers in the world.

All Choked Up With Catarrh? Why Continue Makeshift Treatment?

Sprays and douches will never cure you.

Catarrh is annoying enough when it chokes up your nostrils and air passages, causing painful and difficult breathing and other discomforts. But the real danger comes when it reaches down into your lungs.

This is why you should at once realize the importance of the proper treatment, and lose no time experimenting with worthless remedies which touch only the surface. To be rid of Catarrh, you must drive the disease germs out of your blood. Splendid results have been reported from the use of S. S. S., which touch only the surface. The man who used to say, "Tell me what you eat, and I'll tell you what you are," might say, today, "Tell me what yousmoke-and I'll tell you what you are."

The man who thinks before he smokes is very apt to select a cigar which will afford him a highly pleasant smoke, without the heaviness that men, less thoughtful in their smoking, mistake for pleasantness.
