OMAHA HAS FIELD DAY WITH IOWANS

Hammer Berger and Fleharty for Twenty Hits and Run Up Score of Nineteen to Five on Des Moines.

Pa Rourke's 1917 de luxe athletes had a field day at the expense of Jack creekers yesterday afternoon and captured the fourth game of the series from Des Moines, 19 to 5. The victory made it three out of four from the league leaders.

Krug's men started the scoring in the opening stanza and kept it up during the rest of the game. They made at least one run and one hit in every inning except the fifth, when three of our sterling wood choppers before any damage was done.

Fleharty did manage to move three of our sterling wood choppers before any damage was done.

Every athlete on the club except Bradley got at least one run and one hit. Leuschen was in only one inning and didn't get a bat. Earl Smith and Morrie Schick were the heavy hitters. Both collected four safe swats, including a double each. Smith had a margin on Morrie as he was at bat only five times while Morrie was up six.

Krug and Shaw garnered three blows apiece, while Joe Burg and Marty O'Toole manufactured a couple.

Derger First Victim.

Joe Berger was the first victim of the Rourke onslaught. Smith's single, Cooney's sacrifice and a safety by Krug netted one rum in the first. Berger disposed of Bradley and Shaw and escaped fairly well in the first. But the second stanza was his ruina-

But the second stated the gala inning with a double. Burg beat out a bunt and Brokaw walked, choking the sacks. Spahr committed an error which scored Shick and allowed O'Toole to sneak safely to first. Then Earl Smith cleaned the loaded runway with a double which bounced off the center field wall. That was the beginning Everybody took a wallop at the pill and before the round was concluded Berger had been chased to the shower and Pat Fleharty summoned for mound duty. Pat got his bumps, too, during the remaining innings.

O'Toole kept the coon creekers quiet with six scattered hits. He didn't exert himself much so Des Moines did score four runs off him.

Arnold Leuschen, the sandlot rookie, was sent into the game in the ninth to show his wares. He was nicked for two hits and a run.

The Rourkes hike today for Joplin, where they start a two-week's road trip.

Base Ball Magnates May Elect Ed Dickerson of Central League to Vacancy; Play Season Out.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 7 .- (Special Telegram.)-Resignation of Frank C Zehrung, president of the Western league, was tendered shortly before noon today at a meeting of Western i league magnates here and was promptly accepted. While there has been a suspicion that Tip O'Neill, the former president, would again be selected to head the league, a dark horse candidate in the person of Ed Dickerson, president of the Central league, was scrupp by some of the Big Row at Noon.

There was a lively row at noon over the six-youngster rule, Omaha and Sioux City coming out flatly against its enforcement and openly stating that they would not abide by it. Rourke and Hanlon took the position that to insist upon this rule was to give the fans a cheaper grade of base ball.

The statement of the magnates shows that with two exceptions all clubs are losing money, but nevertheless they are optimistic and apparently believe the game will still pay with good weather.

Omaha's Labor Strike $\mathbf{Why}?$

Omaha is suffering today from a serious labor crisis. Something caused it. Someone i responsible. Every citizen of Omaha has a direct personal interest in that responsibility.

Building operations are tied up. The earnings of hundreds of men are stopped. The convenience of thousands is interfered with.

The future prosperity of the entire city is concerned. The future welfare of every wage earner, union member or otherwise, of every home owner, of every clerk and tradesman, and of every citizen is involved.

The RESULTS of this crisis affect YOU. Therefore, the CAUSE, the RESPONSIBIL-ITY, the RIGHT and WRONG of it interests you. In order that you may judge of these things, the Business Men's Association of Omaha proposes to tell you the facts of the case.

The Business Men's Association is composed of the vast majority of the employers of Omaha. Its members believe in the "open shop." That means that they believe in working conditions which permit every man to earn an honest living, regardless of whether or not he belongs to a particular race, a particular church or a particular union.

Members of the Business Men's Association believe in fair wages, wages advancing as need be to meet the increasing cost of living.

The Business Men's Association does not believe in the "closed shop," which restricts individual enterprise and opportunity by refusing work to men who are not members of some union. The Business Men's Association does not believe in boycotts, sympathetic strikes, restriction of output and unreasonable demands that savor of persecution.

The present labor crisis is NOT a question of the continued existence of unions in Omaha. It is only a question of whether these unions shall exceed their rightful function by forcing despotic domination upon all employers-and all workers. Don't forget that.

The freedom of the EMPLOYE is at stake in this question no less than the freedom of the employer—the freedom of the EMPLOYE to work for whom he pleases and under what conditions he pleases, or whether he may work at all.

A minority of the wage-earners of Omaha are union members. The present fight against despotic use of union power is for the benefit of the majority outside the union-and for the benefit of all Omaha.

The story of the strike as it will be told in this newspaper from day to day interests YOU. Watch for it!
