

Let's Go Shopping with Polly

June! June! June!
 Flower-decked
 And rosy-lipped
 Laughing-eyed June!
 June with
 The flowing hair
 Blossom-blown June!
 With life, love
 And happiness
 Hearts are attune
 You bring us
 Glad greetings
 You bring
 Happy meetings
 You bring us
 Sad partings too
 Wonderful June!
 And so from
 Our Garden of Hearts
 It is true

A bouquet of brides
 We are offering you.
 And oh! little bride
 As I tripped
 Thru each shop
 I was forced
 To linger
 Aye often to stop
 To list many
 Lovely effects
 That were there
 So fresh and
 So charming
 So new and so rare
 Just look!
 Thru these items
 I've listed below
 Perhaps you'll find
 Just what you've
 Wanted to know.

SUNRANE Parasols Parasols which will oblige you from the double duty of protecting you from the rays of the sun and rain, (and what's more) they're emphatically so pretty that if you see them you'll be just crazy to own one. I found a distracting array of these Summer parasols just inside the 16th street entrance of Thompson-Belden's. Parasols in plaids and stripes—Parasols in splashy Japanese effects, pongee, Khaki Kool and all the gay new colors with the stunning Oriental shapes—Parasols with bluebirds flying around as an interior trimming—Parasols with Shepherd crooks (very new I was told) and fancy wood and enameled handles. Then there are those convenient little Auto face Parasols and Parasols "just like grown-ups" for wee girls.

DONE up in a pretty gift box and "just the thing" for a party price is a set of "Royal Window Cleaning Cloths"—they're chemically treated and polish glass without soap or water. You'll find it for 75c at The Alla Shop, 207 S. 18th St. There's "The Royal Shoe Cloth," too, for 35c that would make such a dandy little gift.

Remember, The Bee's Shopping Service is free to all its readers.

Y F. W. Thorne's Uptown Shop, 1812 Farnam, and see what he's offering you for your little folks from 12 to 12 years old. Ducky frocks of organdy, voile, batiste, crepe de chine, linen and dotted swiss at "closing-out" prices—for Mr. Thorne has decided to discontinue selling garments for little people and intends to specialize on Women's and Misses' ready-to-wear. There are adorable touches of hand-work on these pretty dresses—smocking, French knots, tucks and embroidery and such darling little coats of silk, poplin and taffeta effectively trimmed; also some coats of velour, serges and novelties in checks, which will be snug little garments for cool days and automobilizing.

A YOUNG married friend of mine has been so happily enthusiastic over her Hossier Kitchen Table that I made a special trip over to Orchard & Wilhelm's this week just to see what it was like. Now I understand the reason for her enthusiasm, for I'll never be satisfied till I have one, too. The top is of white porcelain—so easy to keep clean, and the big roomy drawers and lined flour bin made it such a desirable piece of kitchen furniture. It's really a wonder for $17.50.

BRIDES O' June! To you and to your friends who will substantially remember your wedding day, I say is there anything that will bring more harmonious happiness in your new home than a gift of a musical instrument? The A. Hospe Co. has Small Grand Pianos for $485.00 and up which will be so suitable for your Bungalow home. An upright piano, a player piano or a Victrola would all make ideal wedding gifts. Suggest it to "dad," won't you?

INVITING! Well, isn't it? If there is one place a woman loves to frequent more than another it is a shop which breathes of the scent-laden, quaint and mystic Orient. One is transported across the sea to that island of cherry blossoms just to step inside the shop of THE NIPPON IMPORTING CO., 218 S. 18th St. It's so truly Japanese! There's a new arrival of cotton crepe kimonos—such dainty colors and prettily embroidered. You just should see them.

PARTY Coats! Beautiful silken wraps to wear to the Country Clubs with dainty Summer frocks—don't you want one? Well, if you do, let me tell you there are no prettier ones in all Omaha than those I saw at Lamond's, Rose Bldg. There are silk jersey coats—radiant silk and taffeta wraps and sports coats of Khaki Kool and Shantung.

BABY Sister will look her daintiest and most loveable when all "dressed up" in one of the charming little pique coats which are shown at Benson & Thorne's Toy Shop. There's the first walking coat and smocked style; each has its bit of hand or machine embroidery. Ages 6 months, 1 and 2 years, and priced $2.75 to $3.95. 'N such cunnin' little hats to match. She should have one of those, too.

Be very explicit if you write your wants to Polly. She doesn't know unless you say so that blue is more becoming than pink and that your bust measure is 40 instead of "a perfect 36."

THERE are so many wonderful things in that beautiful Oriental Shop down the street—I mean "Eldridge's," at 1318 Farnam—that pen points splutter and pencil points break when I endeavor to treat them adequately in a small item like this. If you want the "Gift Ideal" for the S. G. Graduate, why not choose a Party Scarf—one of those soft, clinging Japanese silken affairs of Kinchi or Resedo silk in delicate rainbow tints—or one marvelously embroidered? Why, they fairly whisper of soft moonlight nights, gay promenades and happy events to come! Those rainbow scarfs are $2.75 and $3.50. The embroidered ones, $5.00, $8.00 and $15.00.

GINGHAM has "Come out of the Kitchen" and is shown as one of the most attractive features for Summer afternoons. Crisp and fresh as a cool breeze are the pretty plaid and checked frocks of Anderson gingham shown at Benson & Thorne's. There's one model with a dainty girly color and vest that you'll fall in love with the minute you see it. 'Twas a delightful surprise to me for $7.95.

THERE'S for your inspection a most complete showing of comfortable, cool, white boots and Oxford for the season's Sports wear at Napier's Booterie, Rose Bldg. This carefully designed footwear imparts to the feminine foot grace and style and beauty and at the same time adds comfort and ease to the wearer with its low inch and a half heel and welt sole. The high-topped laced boots in linen are $6.00—the same style in buck, $8.00. You'll surely want one of these attractive models to wear with your Summer sports costumes. Mail orders prepaid, subject to refund should they prove not entirely satisfactory.

IT WON'T be nearly so difficult for him to "pop the question" if he has one of Edmonston's little diamond engagement rings to present to "Her"—and just listen to this! With every diamond ring amounting to $50.00 or over a handsome Tiffany wedding ring will be given free. Ask Mrs. Nieman, at Arnold H. Edmonston's pretty Jewelry Shop, 211 Rose Bldg., to explain "How to Buy a Diamond." It will interest you immensely, I'm sure.

Send to "Polly" if you see anything that you like mentioned in these columns.

WANT to know of a restful place to stop when you're in Omaha on a shopping tour? Then let me direct you to "THE KELLOGG." Take a Farnam car from the depot to 24th street—it's just a block over from there to 2454 Harney Street. The accommodations and service are excellent.

MISS Cole of The Lingerie Shop, 511 Bee Bldg., is introducing a new house dress for prospective mothers which she calls "The Comfort Frock." I'm sure little mothers-to-be will be so delighted with its trim neatness that they'll want at least two or three of them. One of Miss Cole's "Sassy Janes," those practical, clever and original house frocks I've mentioned before in these columns is going to take a trip to Florida tucked away in a little bride's trunk. Miss Cole makes things to order, you know.

A unique little gift box for a bridal kitchen shower that contains five different sized measuring spoons has this verse on the cover:

"Measure carefully your salt,
 Your sugar, pepper, spice;
 Then whatever you may cook
 Will surely turn out nice."

Dear Friends:—
 With Patriotism our hearts are overflowing, but we must be normal, good sense to be showing—for buying means many a mouth to be fed, when you buy Summer garments, you're paying for bread. Be a "stay-at-home" soldier, for in each walk of life, if you try to be normal, you'll aid in the strike.

Sincerely yours,
 POLLY.

MRS. A. E. DAVISSON, of Lincoln, chairman of home conservation for the Nebraska Conservation and Welfare commission, acquits temporary chairman "representing the women of Nebraska to act between housewives and the government," club women of the developments since she was chosen to act at the Conservation congress last month, in a circular letter sent out last week:

"Some misunderstanding resulted in regard to which organization this chairmanship represented. After several conferences with different authorities it became clear that the delegates to the conference had the power officially to recommend an appointment only to the body calling the conference, and that there had been no request from the National Council of Defense for any appointment," she writes.

"The Conservation commission approved and made permanent the recommendation of the delegates, after the following tentative plans for an election by the women of the state. Later there may be an appointment from Washington of a Nebraska woman to act as executive leader of woman's work in the state. In this case the committee on conservation in the home would be one of several committees acting under this executive head.

"The Nebraska Conservation commission is auxiliary to the State Council of Defense. Governor Neville and Mr. George E. Copeland, the latter being vice chairman of the Council of Defense and food conservator of Nebraska, has expressed a desire to coordinate all work. The first project in the woman's work has been the organization of canning schools.

"A mailing list is now being completed of all groups of women in the state and material regarding food conservation will be sent as the work develops. As chairman of the home work in conservation, I shall depend on your co-operation and would appreciate any suggestions regarding the work. On the appointment of an executive head for woman's work in Nebraska I shall gladly co-operate with her in every possible way."

The girls' club of the High School of Commerce enjoyed a treat Tuesday afternoon when Miss Grace Miner told them the story of the opera "Robin Hood" and played selections from the opera on the victrola. Miss Miner is the Nebraska member on the governing board of the National Story Tellers' league. She won a gold medal for the National league, as well as a diploma and gold medal for herself by her story telling at the San Francisco exposition.

Mrs. N. H. Tyson will be hostess for Benson chapter of the P. E. O. sisterhood Monday at 2:30 o'clock.

Business in connection with the soldiers' and sailors' work will be discussed by Omaha Woman's Christian Temperance union Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock in the agricultural rooms at the court house.

If the weather is favorable, chapter B. K. of P. E. O. sisterhood will arrange an automobile picnic in the country Saturday for the closing gathering of the year.

At the Young Women's Christian association vespers service at 4:30 o'clock Mrs. Homer C. Stuntz will talk on "Young Women's Christian Association Work in Indian and South America." Mrs. Stuntz has lived in both countries and is well acquainted with the work done there. The Be-Gab-Mis club will meet Monday night for a scenic roast. Wo-Pla-Lo club meets Tuesday

"Important Phases of Conservation" will be discussed by H. B. Fleury Wednesday afternoon when the Women Voters' Conservation league meets at the home of Mrs. A. C. Anderson, 1730 South Twenty-eighth street. Mrs. Rose Ohaus will discuss needs of the hour from a welfare viewpoint.

A busy group of Red Cross workers are the women of Bemis Park circle who meet Tuesdays at the home of Mrs. F. J. Birss to make hospital spirits. Forty-eight women sewed at Mrs. Birss' home last Tuesday. "Many of these women will sew in neighborhood circles, who would not go to the downtown headquarters to work," said Mrs. Birss. "More neighborhood circles should be started," she added.

Frances Willard Woman's Christian Temperance union will hold a short business meeting Wednesday at the Young Women's Christian association. They will adjourn as early as possible in order to attend the canning school.

Benson Woman's club held its last meeting of the season Thursday at the city hall. The meeting adjourned for the Omaha-Benson annexation

Girls of the Loose-Wiles factory have organized a club with the following officers: President, Vera Howland; vice president, Eldora Gantz; secretary, Eva Woodward. Miss Hazel Evans is to be leader of the club. The girls have chosen for their name, "Wo-Pla-Lo," meaning work, play, love.

Vesta chapter kensington club of the Eastern Star will meet with Mrs. W. A. Smith Thursday at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. E. G. Drake of Beatrice, state regent for the Daughters of the American Revolution, will be a special guest at the Flag day tea at the home of Mrs. F. R. Straight. Mrs. Drake is also supreme president of the P. E. O. sisterhood.

The Business Women's council will meet as usual at the court house Tuesday. Rev. C. N. Dawson of the Dietz Memorial Methodist church will talk and women of the same church will serve luncheon between the hours of 11 and 2.

Mrs. F. R. Straight, retiring regent, will entertain Omaha chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Daughters of 1812, at a Flag day tea at her home Thursday at 2:30. Robert Covell will give a patriotic talk and Mrs. Fred Clarke will give vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. M. A. Kohn, Mrs. C. H. Aull, former state regent, will assist the hostesses.

Committees for next year's work of the West Omaha Mothers' Club culture club were named at the final meeting Friday as follows: Program, Mesdames J. A. Hamilton, C. T. Hutchinson, R. E. Winkler; music, Mesdames Thomas Cooper, R. C. Dozier and Newell Jones, and social, Mesdames P. J. White, T. F. Bonorden and W. E. Baehr.

Rev. Charles Fleming and choir will conduct vespers services at the House of Hope, Florence, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

LOBECK STOPS OFF IN OMAHA FOR DAY

Enroute to Washington from Portland, Where He Attended Funeral of Senator Lane.

Congressman Lobeck spent Saturday in Omaha enroute from Portland, Ore., to Washington. He was one of a delegation of nine congressmen and six senators sent from Washington to attend the funeral of Senator Lane of Oregon. He also visited in San Francisco.

"I was at the Presidio there and saw them building the cantonments for the army camp," he said. "One of the biggest problems we have to deal with is that of lumber. It is going to take an immense quantity just to build these cantonment cities and the wooden ships will require still more. No doubt General Goethals saw the impossibility of getting enough lumber when he changed the plan for 2,000 wooden ships."

Regarding the possibility of Omaha getting one of the cantonment cities, he said he had done all he could and it is now up to the War department. He advised Commissioner Manly of the Commercial club to present Omaha's advantages to General Barry in Chicago as the best means of getting one of the camps.

"It looks as though we are in for a long fight in this war unless something unexpected happens," he said. "Russia is practically out of it and we will probably have to finish it with our other allies."

"The submarine problem has not been solved. The authorities have received as high as 1,000 letters in a single day on the subject. They have received some suggestions that may work out into practical means of fighting the subs, but nothing has been invented yet that promises to put a definite and final quietus on the subs."

Two Band Concerts in The Public Parks Sunday

Ancient Order of United Workmen Military band, under leadership of Frank P. Mooney, will play in Mandan park Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2:30. First Regimental band, Uniformed Rank of Knights of Pythias, direction of Dan Desdunes, will play in Riverview park at the same hour. These concerts are given under auspices of the city park department.

Next Wednesday evening concerts will be given in Bemis and Clearview parks.

Commissioner Hummel and his staff have prepared parks, playgrounds and bathing places for many visitors who will be expected on Sunday.

Police Seize Receipts Of Rivers-Young Fight

Ogden, Utah, June 9.—Joe Rivers of Los Angeles in his fight here tonight with Al Young of Oklahoma was awarded the referee's decision in the fifth round of a scheduled fifteen-round bout on a foul.

The decision was unpopular and raised such furor as has seldom been seen here. The receipts, totaling $1,322, were taken in hand by the police and will be divided among three charitable organizations, the police chief said.

Rivers was threatened with arrest when he appeared at the box office to claim his share of the purse.

Bank Clearings Mark Up Gain of Over Forty Per Cent

Omaha bank clearings for the week marked up a gain of over 40 per cent over the corresponding week last year.

Bank clearings for the week were $35,145,078.59, while the clearings for the same week in 1916 were $23,035,918.12. The gain is over $10,000,000.
