Cattle—Receipts were very fair for a Thursday, 250 cars being reported in. This brings the total for the four days up to 23,187 head, which is over 8,000 larger than for the same period a year ago. The market on good desirable beeves was steady with yesterday, while other kinds were a little inclined to drag, being slow to a little lower.

The best cows and heifers and also canners were about steady with yesterday, but the medium grades have been working downward and are considerably lower than the high time last week.

Stockers and feeders were in very light supply, with feeling generally steady.

Hogs—The market opened in fairly satisfactory condition. On the strength of a continued upturn in prices elsewhere, shippers were fairly free buyers at prices that were easily 5@10c higher, with the accent on the 10c. They were in the market from the opening until well along in the morning, and their total purchases accounted for a pretty decent share of the supply.

Packers were a little slow about starting, but thes trong shipper competition again brought most of them to time, and they bought a good many hogs in fair season. These earlier purchases were anyway a nickel, and in plenty of cases 10c higher than yesterday.

The close was a good deal worse than yesterday's, and dead was the only word that adequately described it. One buyer laid out all morning, failing to even make bids, and after shippers and the other three big packers had filled their orders, somewhere between thirty and forty loads remained on first hands. The early buying had taken the cream of the crop, and it was not strange that these late hogs ran pretty much to light and mixed stuff, though there were some pretty decent hogs left at that.

Up to noon things remained at a standstill, and practically all the thirty or forty loads remained unsold. Buyers went around looking, but did little or no bidding, and sellers did not even know what sort of concessions packers were after.

The early market was, as noted mostly 5@10c higher, though odd loads picked up between 11 o'clock and noon failed to show this advance. Bulk of the hogs sold up to midday landed at $15.10@15.40, with a top of $15.50. It was safe to predict that if the hogs still in first hands were cleaned up later in the day the bottom of the bulk would be lowered somewhat.

Sheep—Packers all needed lambs again this morning, supplies proving light when measured by demand, and prices continued to improve, another quarter of the recent decline being regained on most all grades. The movement was active and the big end of the offerings changed hands by an early hour.

There was a spot or two that prices did not show more than a 10@15c upturn but for the most part of the trade was about a quarter higher, and values were generally the highest in about two weeks. Real good California springers, as good as any that have been here this season brought $17.25 the highest price paid since the first day of the current month. Mates of the Californias that sold at $17.00 yesterday brought $17.15. Natives sold downward from $17.00. Clipped fed westerns sold up as high as $15.25, the price being the highest recorded here in more than two weeks.
