

Nebraska PAGEANT PLEASURES CROWD AT LINCOLN

Scenic Effects of Unusual Beauty and Musical Features Especially Pleasing to On-lookers at Spectacle.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Neb., June 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Pageant of Nebraska was witnessed tonight by a crowd of 5,000 people.

The forest of real pine trees at the foot of a scenic mountain made a beautiful background for the bright colored and filmy costumes of the young girls who danced to the dreamy music of the large orchestra.

The pageant, as depicted by Prof. H. B. Scott and his 300 assistants, gives a history of Nebraska from the time when the first ox team crossed its broad, but then unfertile prairies, up to the present time.

The story, which was written by Hartley B. Alexander, was beautifully carried out, the music effects being especially pleasing.

"Spirit of the West." The part which was, perhaps, the most pleasing was that carried out by Miss Charlotte Whedon as the "Spirit of the West."

Another very impressive part was the interpretation of the "Leader of the Voyagers," by G. H. Watters. The solo parts were well given and repeatedly encored.

Miss Fay Lichtensteiger, with a chorus of fairy children representing "Golden Hopes," made another impressive part of the pageant. The dance of the harvest and corn maidens was another beautiful sight.

The state song, "Nebraska," was cleverly woven into the production in several places and finally presented in choruses as "Nebraska," symbolized by tiny Miss Harry Young, danced to the center of the stage under the clasped hands of the north and the south.

The historical characters, including Ed Pettis as President Jefferson, Sterling Mutz as James Monroe, R. D. Scott as Napoleon, Victor Krause, as Talleyrand, Guy Chambers, Joseph Johnson, John Bushnell and Dwight Thomas, as Senators Douglas, Dixon, Sumner and Seward and Paul Dobson as President Johnson, were impressive and representative of the speaking parts.

The costumes was of the highest degree of art and of greatest beauty. Some of the costumes worn by Miss Charlotte Whedon as "The Spirit of the West," and "Columbia" and the choruses of "fields and prairies," "golden hopes" and "corn maidens" were wonderful in their beauty.

The Indians in a solo of which Mr. Compton Scotts as the chieftain presented a difficult tenor solo, were savagely realistic. Other remarkable costume creations were in the choruses of "grasshoppers" and "birds," the "pioneers" and "voyagers," and all of the historical characterizations. Miss Alice Howell, as "Liberty," spoke the eloquent closing lines of the presentation.

EXPECT LIBERTY LOAN TO GO FAR BEYOND ITS GOAL

speech, "Give me liberty or give me death," Mayor Ainslie of Richmond, Va., tolled the old bell of St. John's church. Throughout the nation bells and whistles re-echoed the summons to subscribe.

Before noon tomorrow officials hope every man in the country who can subscribe will have done so. At the closing hour tonight there was no telling where the total might lead and no basis for forecasting the final figures.

Number of Subscribers Large.

It seemed certain, however, that at least 2,500,000 persons will have subscribed before the books are closed. Measuring the total by the number of Liberty loan buttons which have gone out from headquarters, the number of subscribers should exceed 3,000,000.

New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are the districts from which will come the great bulk of subscriptions. There the total number of buttons distributed approaches 3,500,000. New York has taken 1,200,000; Philadelphia and Boston have taken more than 500,000 each. To San Francisco 265,000 have been sent. From several of the districts hurry calls have been received for more.

Late campaign figures, made public today by Secretary McAdoo as of the close of business last night, showed an apparent shortage of $137,000,000.

Subscriptions Grow Rapidly.

The total reported was $1,843,000,000. These reports were received afternoon at the treasury. They showed an increase of nearly $200,000,000 in subscriptions over the previous day's report.

The loan, according to reports received by treasury officials, is in every sense a popular one. By far the greatest issues which the bureau of engraving and printing will be called upon to turn out will be of the $50 and $100 bonds. For there was a heavy demand in every section of the country and in many rural communities.

The city of Washington, officials estimate, will marshal 30,000 individual subscriptions, most of them for the $50 and $100 bonds. Employees of the Treasury department alone subscribing to the $50 and $100 bonds, have taken approximately $450,000.

Many to Be Heard From.

Many thousands of banks and trust companies are yet to be heard from. This item, it is thought, will swell the total by many millions. As a rule, the banks have been inclined to hold back their subscriptions until the last minute or report only a portion of them.

The amount subscribed today, $1,843,000,000, represents actual subscriptions in the federal reserve banks, accompanied by the required 2 per cent of the amount of subscriptions. Officials believe that the reserve banks will be deluged tomorrow by a flood of last minute subscriptions.

There is yet time, however, for the man or woman who wants a small bond to get it, officials said today, for the small investor is to be favored above all others and every application for a small bond is to be granted.

In the case of oversubscriptions this would result in paying down the larger subscriptions on a proportionate basis, as announced by Secretary McAdoo.

Banks Open Until Late.

Throughout the country banks and trust companies are keeping open till late tonight to accommodate the last minute investor. The Treasury department has granted banks permission, in extreme cases, to telegraph the amount of their subscriptions to the reserve banks, telegraphing the 2 per cent of the total at the same time, but all subscriptions, to be counted, must reach reserve banks not later than noon.

The exact total of all subscriptions from every source may not be known for some time after the closing of the books because of the tremendous amount of clerical work involved in assembling returns and making tabulations.

Expects Omaha Sales to Show Nicely.

"I think the Liberty loan subscriptions in Omaha will show up very nicely when the total figures are in," said R. C. Peters of the Liberty loan committee. "We cannot yet tell what the totals will be, for no one outside the banks can have any idea of the volume of work that is before the clerks to get these subscriptions properly recorded, classified and tabulated. They are still at it, and although our report must go in to the Federal Reserve bank at Kansas City by night, it is doubtful if we will be able to give the authentic totals by that time. We may have to estimate a part of the subscriptions."

"On the whole I feel that the people of Omaha have done very well in the matter of subscriptions." The committee met at the Commercial club at noon to go over the work as far as it has gone.

U. P. Employees Subscribe $750,000.

Up to Wednesday night Union Pacific employees had subscribed $750,000 to the Liberty bond fund. It is understood that employees of other lines of the system have subscribed about $500,000. It is asserted that the $1,500,000 mark will be reached before the end of the week.

One Dead, Two Injured In Aurora Auto Accident

Aurora, Neb., June 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Verne Parsons of Grand Island is dead, and Witham Mitchell and Neal B. Navarre, are in a critical condition, by reason of the overturning of Mitchell's car this afternoon.

Mitchell was at the wheel and was apparently speeding. He is the owner of the Michelson theater of Grand Island and the Ardome of Aurora and was bringing Mr. and Mrs. Navarre to Aurora for the evening performance.

Parsons was his moving picture machine operator. Mrs. Navarre, whose stage name is Lore, the girl mystic, was the only occupant of the car who was uninjured.

It is thought that the front wheels of the car entered a rut, which the hind wheels missed. Mitchell was trying to straighten the car when the rear wheels skidded across the road and the speed was such as to roll the car over.

Mitchell has three broken ribs, a broken shoulder and perhaps internal injuries. Navarre is still unconscious from the severe concussion of the brain.

OMAHA FAILS TO GET ANY SUPPORT AT WASHINGTON

the cantonment, the balance of the work to secure the prize was in the hands of Senator Hitchcock and Congressman Lobeck of this district, neither of whom took any action in the premises.

Now that Omaha has lost out and the cantonment has gone to Des Moines, business men say that the publication of a story in the World-Herald, attributing the selection to Major Leahy, one member of a committee of five, is simply an effort to bring the issue and shift the responsibility from the shoulders of the owner of the paper.

It is pointed out that while Des Moines is a good city, it is almost entirely lacking in railroad facilities, having but one through line, the Rock Island, whereas Omaha has half a dozen. Except on branch lines that connect up with main lines that are long distances away, there is no possible means of getting into Des Moines from either the north or south and no way of getting in from the east or west except over one line, which there are only two through trains each way, daily.

Business men indignantly say that if Senator Hitchcock had cooperated with the Omaha committee, instead of laying down on the job, this would have been selected as a site for one of the cantonments. They said that until the senator and the congressman from this district failed to give their support to Omaha, its chances were excellent. After this failure and without a friend at court, Omaha's chances began to wane.

"These chances waned, not because Major Leahy was a passenger agent connected with the Rock Island, but because the congressional representatives from Omaha were asleep at the switch, or else they did not believe the securing of a cantonment was worth the effort of trying for it," said one prominent business man.

Local Rock Island officials, while they refuse to permit their names to be used in interviews, assert that the success of Des Moines in securing the location of the cantonment was not so much due to the efforts of Major Leahy as to the inactivity and apparent indifference of the Omaha delegation in congress, it being contended that this inactivity and indifference gave the local Commercial club the lead in the matter.

The impression that this city was not an active competitor for the prize.

Citizens of Crete Mark Lincoln-Dorchester Cutoff

Crete, Neb., June 14.—(Special.)—Through the efforts of the Commercial club and citizens of Crete and Dorchester the automobile highway now known as the Lincoln-Crete-Dorchester cutoff has been established. Tourists have long needed a shorter and safer road than the section of the O. L. D. highway between Lincoln and Dorchester via Milford. That route crosses the railroad many times, most of them being grade crossings. The L. C. D. cutoff is much shorter and crosses the railroad only twice. The Commercial club have painted the telephone poles along the highway a broad band of white and at every crossroad the colors, orange and black, are placed. They are also sending to all the hotels and garages along the O. L. D. maps of the highway showing where the cutoff is located and also showing how much shorter it is than the Milford section.

The greatest patriotic rally ever staged in Omaha will be the Red Cross meeting Saturday night at the Auditorium, is the promise made by Chairman Wattles of the finance campaign committee and President Gould Dietz.

A call has been issued by the latter to the 30,000 members of the Red Cross in Omaha urging them to be present, as well as a general invitation to the public.

Constantine was accompanied by the former queen and crown prince and members of the family. They left the city by motor car. Prof. Georgios Stratis, former adviser of the Greek foreign office, went with Constantine as his secretary.

The proclamation of King Constantine announcing his abdication was posted throughout the streets Tuesday. It says: "Obeying the necessity of fulfilling my duty toward Greece, I am departing from my beloved country with the heir to the throne and am leaving my son, Alexander, my crown. I beg you to accept my decision with calm, as the slightest incident may lead to a great catastrophe."
