

I Am Your Greatest Enemy

I am more powerful than the combined armies of the world.
I have destroyed more men than all the wars of the world.
I am more deadly than bullets or shrapnel.
I have wrecked more homes than the mightiest of siege guns.
I am responsible for wasting in the United States alone more than $300,000,000 Each Year

I spare no one and find my victims among the rich and the poor, the young and the old, the strong and the weak.

I make widows and orphans. I massacre thousands upon thousands of wage earners every year.

I am so big that I cast my shadow over every field of labor, from the turning of the grindstone to the moving of every railroad train.

I, your greatest enemy, I am everywhere--in the home, on the streets, in the factory, at the railroad crossing and on the lakes, rivers and the seas.

I destroy, crush and maim the helpless.

I take all but give nothing.

You are warned against me, but you heed not the warning.

I Am Carelessness
