WORKMEN OF STATE BARRED OUT OF IOWA

Grand Lodge Officers Take Position That Members of Lodges Must Stay by Jurisdiction.

Members of Union Pacific lodge, No. 17, Ancient Order of United Workmen of Nebraska, were addressed Friday night by Judge Joseph Oberfelder, Frank L. Evans and Nicholas Ress, members of the grand finance committee. Lodge No. 17, with seven others of Douglas county, with a total membership of 3,500, filed applications with the Iowa jurisdiction of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. One of the grand lodge officers of Nebraska maintains that these lodges cannot be absorbed by another state, more especially when that state has no legal standing or power to do business here and will resist every effort of secession on the part of these lodges.

There are a number of members in Douglas county who do not want to sever their connection with the Nebraska jurisdiction, and claim that some of the leaders are using force to carry out the scheme.

To the Women of Omaha:

Concerning our summer school, please remember the following and tell your friends and family:

- Any housekeeper may take the Domestic Science course without taking other work.
- The Domestic Science course will be given with a view to meeting present conditions.
- The summer courses are scheduled so as not to interfere with High School or College work.
- They are scheduled so that pupils may also enter upon our regular work without interruption.
- They are arranged so that one or all may be taken.
- Men and women who are employed may take any of the four business subjects in the evening.
- The course comprises two practical subjects which train for special positions, together with two co-related theoretical subjects.
- Each subject offers two lectures weekly, the assignments covering copy-writing, investigations, etc.
- The lecture course is part of that in the College of Commerce, University of Nebraska, and will be conducted by professors from that university.
- If desired, pupils may take typewriting in connection with any university subject, and at the same rate of $12.50 for the ten-weeks' term.
- If typewriting is not desired, pupils will spend only the time for the lecture period, doing assigned work at home.
- In the evening work, two lecture periods will be given between 6:30 and 8, two or three evenings, according to subjects taken.
- Summer hours for regular course are from 8 to 1, with rooms open until 4.
- No such work was ever offered before in Omaha or in any school outside the University of Nebraska.

Negro Lynched by Mob of 1,000 at Holdenville, Okl.

Oklahoma City, Okl., June 17.—Henry Conly, a negro, was lynched by a mob of 1,000 men and women near Holdenville, Okl., late Saturday afternoon, it is said. He had been positively identified by Mrs. Jesse L. Burford, wife of a well-to-do farmer, as the man who had assaulted her one week ago today.

The officers guarding Conly were overpowered and the negro was turned over to a party of men and boys, who hurried him to the Burford home, where Mrs. Burford is declared to have said there could be no possible mistake in her identification of Conly.
