Miss Ruth Dyer, Boone; Miss Etta Linn, Scranton, Ia., and Miss Edna Jeppson, Mead, Neb., were in the city for the Green-Hutchinson wedding and were the guests of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Reynolds left last week to visit their son at Berkeley, Cal. On their return trip they will be accompanied by their daughter, Miss Hazel, who spent the spring with her brother.

Miss Jean Richards has returned home from Iowa City, where she has been attending the state university.

Mrs. Van Fosson entertained the members of the South First Street Chapter of St. Paul's Guild, Monday afternoon. Red Cross work occupied the afternoon and refreshments were served. The guild has decided to discontinue meetings during July and August, but a picnic at the lake is planned for the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hackwell of Langham, Canada, Miss Pauline Searer of Des Moines and Mr. H. Davidson of Clarinda are the guests of Mrs. E. L. Sterner on Glen avenue.

Monday evening Mrs. Gould, Mrs. Crumenacker and Miss Bullin entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Green, who were married Wednesday. The rooms were very prettily decorated in patriotic colors. A number of novel features were introduced, making the affair a very enjoyable one and the bride and groom received many useful gifts.

Miss Flummer, whose marriage to Mr. G. P. Grosvenor takes place tomorrow, was the guest of honor at a party given Monday evening by Miss Phoebe Spenser and Miss Virginia Pinckney at the home of Miss Pinckney. The preparation of a biographical book for the bride and groom occupied the greater part of the evening. Refreshments were served at one long table. A huge fire cracker was used as the centerpiece, which disclosed a number of charming gifts when the fuse was lighted.

Wednesday evening Miss Lone Armstrong of the public library left to attend the national convention of the American Library association at Louisville, Ky. Miss Armstrong will visit at her old home in Indiana before returning home.

Miss Sadie Barrett has been the guest of honor at a number of entertainments this week. Last Saturday evening Miss Mamie Robinson of Shelby, Miss Barrett's old home, gave a very delightful miscellaneous shower for her. The Delta Alpha class of Trinity Methodist church gave a shower for her at the home of Miss Monroe on Monday evening. Tuesday afternoon the Trinity Aid society gave a reception for her at the home of Mrs. Robert Beasley. A very delightful program was rendered and the bride was presented with a beautiful glass water set.

Tuesday afternoon the Garden club was entertained at the home of Mrs. John G. Woodward. No program was given, but a number of the members brought flowers from their gardens. Mrs. Woodward was assisted in entertaining by Miss Dailey, Mrs. A. P. Hanchett will be the hostess next Tuesday.

Tuesday evening Miss Florence Senior gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Verna Wiley, who is to be married next week. A magic wand was presented to Miss Wiley, which granted every wish mentioned by the poem, which had been composed by the guests for her to read.

At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon Miss Emma Hutchinson and Mr. W. H. Green were married at the home of the bride's parents on Franklin avenue. Rev. George A. Ray performed the ceremony. The rooms were beautifully decorated with peonies, palms and smilax. In the bay window of the living room a bower of wedding bells and smilax was arranged and under it an altar was formed by draping tulle between two flower vases of pink and white peonies. Donald and Richard Green and Clark and Howard Hutchinson stretched the white tulle which formed the aisle, through which the members of the bridal party passed. Little Harold Krumenacker carried the ring in a tulle. The bridesmaid was Miss Myra Hutchinson, sister of the bride and the best man was Mr. John Sorenson. The bride wore white embroidered organdie and her veil was caught into cap form with swansonia. She carried a white Bible and a shower of swansonia. The bride wore pink marquisette with pearl and lace trimmings. Miss Margaret Morehouse and Mrs. J. W. Beardsley furnished music before the ceremony and Miss Morehouse played the Lohengren wedding march. The pink and white color scheme was carried out very attractively in the dining room, where a buffet luncheon was served after the ceremony. Miss Frances Hutchinson, Mrs. E. C. Hutchinson, Mrs. J. J. Short, Mrs. George Gould and Miss Gladys and Miss Lucille McMillen assisted in the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Green will take a short wedding trip and will be at home after July 25 at 212 East Pierce street.

Wednesday afternoon the Ideal club held its annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Thomas Metcalfe at Elmridge. The luncheon was served on the lawn and the afternoon was spent in Red Cross work and in discussing plans for the new year book.

Wednesday evening Mrs. Howard Smith entertained in honor of Miss Verna Wiley. The evening was spent

A Matter of Feeling.
Some one asked a scientific gentleman attached to one of Uncle Sam's bureaus at Washington whether, in his opinion, any of the so-called inanimate things can feel pain. "There is nothing surer in the world," said he, "than you never observed how a piano falls and groans when the average performer strikes it!"—Philadelphia Ledger.
