PRETTY YOUNG MOTHERS and sweet, bright babies form an attractive sight these pleasant afternoons out in Happy Hollow court. Any number of young people have established their homes in this neighborhood and it is a delight for the mothers of these small families to meet during the baby parade. Almost any fine day you may see several of them wheeling their baby carts along the smooth walks, enjoying themselves far more than if they had turned the care over to a careless nurse. The Bee photographer snapped this little group one afternoon while they were enjoying the sunshine.

Everyone is wholesome and happy enough to suit any eugenist. Master Harold Sobotker, jr., was almost too tiny to be seen in his huge enveloping cab, so that the camera man had to set him on the sloping lawn to catch his chubby baby face. Little Miss Lois Caroline McFayden took the whole business in serious fashion and watched everything that was done with a very wise expression. Miss Adelaide Armstrong and Miss Mary Laura Vance must have been looking for the birdie which always flies from a camera for little folks, and perhaps little Adelaide saw it, for there is just a wee smile on her face.

War Relief Lawn Fete at Binnie Brae to Offer Varied Attractions

NEW YORK may have its garden festivals in the square, Chicago may have its allied bazaar, Minneapolis may have its big society base ball games and San Francisco may have its all nations ball, but for something really novel in the way of a war relief benefit it will pay you to attend the lawn fete at Binnie Brae, the John L. Kennedy home in Fairacres, Saturday from 3 to 8.

Where do you wish to begin? If you are a little society girl or boy, you'll find it no end of fun to ride the ponies or buy balloons. If you're somewhat older the fish pond may appeal to you or you'll surely like the Punch and Judy show. For people of all ages the ice cream marquee will be a drawing card and, let me tell you, Mrs. H. C. Sumney, who is in charge, has solicited some of the most delicious home-made candies and cakes that you care to taste.

Mrs. E. C. Twamley's lemonade booth promises to be a thirst-quencher of no mean ability. Sporting gentlemen and fashionable women may want a real live, blooded cocker spaniel, which is already in the hands of an Omaha fancier. This dog Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy have given for auction at the fete. For lovelorn lassies and timid bachelors the fortune teller's booth has been designed. The gypsies guarantee to tell accurately your past, present and future.

Everyone likes flowers and now that summer flowers are here in profusion few people, young or old, will be able to resist the temptation to stop at a garden booth presided over by pretty women and girls in flower-trimmed garden hats, perhaps dressed in smart smocks and bearing baskets of roses in their arms. Not long since the fashionable magazines were filled with such charming pictures of the Newport flower sale when the elite donned garden garb to make just such things as these come true.

Some of the features of the booths of America and its allies will be absolutely irresistible. For instance, Mrs. Warren S. Blackwell has secured the assistance of that popular young Italian journalist, Mr. Claudio Delitala, to prepare and serve spaghetti in typical Italian style. Pretty Mrs. Fred Hamilton and handsome Mrs. William Sears Poppleton will assist Mrs. Blackwell in Italian costume. You can't begin to think of the surprises and pretty sights that await you in the Japanese, American, French planning to appear in their prettiest and British booths and elsewhere on the grounds. 'Twould never do to tell because you need to go to see for yourself. The rarest treat of all for the truly esthetic will be found in the garage picture gallery. Past all doubt it has been learned that the Raemaker's cartoons, now on exhibit in Kansas City will be sent to Omaha for the fete. The ten original cartoons and 125 Raemaker's prints of different subjects will be on display. A few signed artists' proofs will be on sale, together with less valuable reproduction of these famous cartoons.

This lawn fete is to be a tempting little bit of all the war relief parties given in other cities. Lawn parties in clear warm weather are always attractive, but such a lawn fete as this must surely draw the crowds. Binnie Brae is sufficiently out in the country to make the event a real excursion, so that a jitney-service has been chartered for the use of those who live in town. Society will be there in good round numbers, for the sponsors themselves would represent society, were not hundreds of their friends garden party frocks and sports clothes to patronize the amiable vendors and to make the gathering a joyous success.

One beautiful thing about this war relief party is that while you will have the most frolicsome time you wish, you will do it with a sense of duty done, of contributing to a highly worthy cause.

Return of the Golfers

Mr. W. J. Foye and Mr. John Redick returned from the St. Joseph golf tournament Thursday. Mr. Foye was defeated in his match with Mr. R. W. Hodge of Kansas City Wednesday, and Mr. Redick was put out by Mr. Alden Swift of Chicago.

Mr. John S. Brady has spent last week in Chicago at a wholesale grocers' convention and has also found time to play golf on some of the Chicago links.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sharp, who attended the golf tourney in St. Joseph last week, motored with Mr. and Mrs. George Lajer and Miss Helen Murphy to Excelsior Springs from St. Joseph.

Country Clubs Plan Fellowship Gatherings During Summer Season

JUST to have a club house with perfectly patent reasons for being is not enough for the Omaha country clubs. That is, their function is not merely to furnish a place to take meals and play golf and dance. To some extent each of the clubs is arranging various plans for promoting fellowship among its members. The get-together spirit which animates people is being cultivated and directed in various ways.

Happy Hollow club has instituted an entertainment committee consisting of Mr. Frank C. Bulla, chairman, Miss Henrietta Rees and Mrs. F. J. Jumper. Last week this brainy committee met and conceived a host of brilliant ideas for the entertainment of the patrons of Happy Hollow club. Their first step has been to call a meeting of all women members at the club house Tuesday at 2 p. m. There they will submit their propositions, to be adopted or discarded by those attending the meeting.

If their plans go well the women of the club will soon have formed a kensington group to sew for the Red Cross or War Relief organizations with summer headquarters at the club house. Special arrangements will be made for their accommodation so that any who have dreaded the warm days in the sewing rooms downtown will be able to work in comparative comfort in the cool of the country club one afternoon a week. Other tentative plans include a woman's card club to meet one afternoon a week, a dancing class for women on another afternoon and special musicals and exhibitions of esthetic dancing on club dinner nights. They also plan to give Mr. High Cost of Living a deadly blow at a High Cost of Living dinner during July. An inexpensive dinner will be served and prizes will be offered for the most appropriate costumes worn.

Mrs. A. V. Shotwell has in charge the get-together scheme which the Field club tried last year. The first of the Tuesday women's brigade parties was given last week with rather successful results. This will be continued throughout the summer if the members desire. The first of the children's matinee dances will be given Friday.

Carter Lake club has more family spirit than the other clubs can be expected to inspire, because so many of its members live on the grounds. Its special cottagers' meals are weekly gatherings for the Carter Lake family. On alternate Wednesdays cottagers' luncheons and dinners are given, the luncheon being the event of the week. The children's matinee is given on Tuesday beginning this week, Friday is the day for the cottagers' bowling club and Tuesday and Saturday are dinner-dance nights.

Notes of June Weddings.

Miss Helen O'Brien will return Monday from Kansas City, where she went last week to attend the marriage of Miss Nora Hardesty to Mr. Arnold Honigser of this city.

Miss Hardesty was the thirteenth member of this year's graduating class at the College of Bethany in Topeka, of which Miss O'Brien was also a member. For this reason she called together the other twelve girls to serve as bridesmaids at her wedding Saturday night.

The wedding was a large church affair in Grace cathedral, Topeka, and Bishop Wise, formerly of Omaha, who succeeded the late Bishop Mills-paugh in charge of the diocese, performed the ceremony. The young people have taken the old Colonel Richmond property and will come to make their home in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fairchild announce the marriage of their daughter, Alma Sarah, to Mr. Lysie Henry Crapenhost of Arlington, Neb. The ceremony was performed Friday in Lincoln by Rev. C. W. McCaskill of the University Place Methodist church. Mrs. Crapenhost has been a teacher in Park school during the last year. After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends after July 1 in Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew F. Musin announce the marriage of their daughter, Anna Katherine, to Mr. Clarence A. Phillips of Omaha. The bride is a graduate of the Omaha High school and for the last year was a teacher in the Miller Park school. The ceremony was performed in Lincoln on Wednesday. After a motor trip through Nebraska and Iowa Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will make their home in Omaha.

News of Departing Guests.

Mrs. F. S. Cowgill returned to Chicago Thursday after nearly three weeks' stay at the Blackstone. Mr. Cowgill, who came over for the weekend, left Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoxie Clarke left Monday for Villa Belvedere after prolonging their stay in Omaha several days to accept invitations from friends who continued to make plans day after day for their entertainment.

Miss Frances Nash leaves today for her summer home at Heath, Mass., and will be accompanied by her niece, Miss Frederica Nash, and Miss Virginia and Bennie Cotton, who will be at Spring Lake, N. J., with their grandmother, Mrs. Herman Kountze, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crandell and daughter, Alice, came from Chapman, Neb., Monday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Katharine Davenport, on Wednesday. They are guests until Monday of Mrs. Crandell's sister, Mrs. J. W. Fisher. Mr. James Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher, obtained leave from the great Lakes training station to attend his cousin's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Metz left Thursday for Buffalo after only a week's stay here. Mr. Metz was anxious to get to Buffalo, where he expects to go in business unless he enters the army service.
