Vice Admiral in Charge of Allied Naval Forces Serves Coffee to Rescued Sailors.

(By Associated Press.)

Base of the American Flotilla in British Waters, June 24.-The spec tacle of Vice Admiral Sims, now acting commander of the allied naval in home waters, serving hot coffee to survivors of a submarined ship was witnessed by the people of this village last night, when a British destroyer reached its dock with fifty-five members of the crew of a tor-pedoed British merchantman. Admiral Sims appeared among the crowd of townspeople on the quay and greet-ed many of the survivors with a handshake and helped to make comfort-able four injured members of the crew who were taken away in ambulances. Charles Dalton of New York and charles Dalton of New York and several American negroes were among the survivors. Dalton said the ship had been torpedoed without warning and sank within a few minutes. But as the wireless was able to send out an S. O. S. the destroyer arrived within an hour and rescued three men clinging to wreckage and all of the remainder who were in boats.

HAPPENINGS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

John Petlom Walks Calmly Over Blood Stains Where He Shot Wife on Short Visit to His Home.

Unconcerned as the detectives who accompanied him to his home yesterday, John Petlom, accused murderer of his wife, 5213 South Eighteenth street, calmly walked over the blood stains upon the sidewalk, where his wife, with a babe in arms, had fallen, after he had shot her.

His request for some clean clother was granted him, and Captain Briggs and Detective Fleming escorted him to the house. Last night, he received a visit from two neighbors, who were granted a two minutes' interview with him by Captain Vanous.

In talking to the men, the prisoner held to his story that his wife had shot him first. The visitors told the officers at the station that they had walked home from work with Petlom on the night of the murder and that he appeared to be in a good humor.

Last night Mrs. P. Zalenka, Mrs. Petlom's mother, 1708 N street, asked Captain Vanous for permission to get a cradle. little wagon and some get a cradle, little wagon and some clothes for the children out of the house, which has been locked since the crime was committed. Petlom was brought from his cell and asked if he would allow them to get the chil-dren's things from the house. He said they could take anything they needed, but his clothes and personal belong-ings. He appeared at ease showing no worry. Captain Vanous said, "John you are in a bad fix." Petlom replied, "Well, she started it."

Carried Insurance.

Mrs. Petlom was a member of the Degree of Honor, carrying a $1,000 which neighbors say was divided among the husband and children.

A short funeral service will be held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Korisco's chapel, thence to the Bohemian hall, where Otokar Charvat will officiate. The Degree of Honor lodge will attend in a body and have charge of part of the services.

INFORMATION ON SCHOOLS OR TRAVEL

'Ask Mr. Foster" Bureau Has Been Established in Omaha to Answer All Sorts of Queries.

You can "Ask Mr. Foster" now it Omaha about your vacation trip or about a suitable school for your son

Mr. Foster, himself, was here to superintend the inauguration of the work.

This unique service is now established in thirty-five cities of the United States. The offices are standardized. The young woman who is superintendent of each office is prepared for her work by a course of study of from four to six months. They know all about schools, summer and winter camps, hotels, resorts. They suggest places to go and can give all particulars of them off hand. After the decision is made they will purchase tickets, reserve the Pullman accomodations, attend to the baggage, engage the hotel rooms, give cards of introduction and supply all needed information to make the trip one of pleasure and profit. And there are never any fees charged or accepted. The service is supported by the railroads, steamship lines, hotels, etc., of the country. The motto of the service is "Glad to help you."

Grows in Scope.

Grows in Scope.

The service was established twenty years ago by Mr. Foster in St. Augustine, Fla., and its sphere of usefulness was such that it has grown to its present great proportions.

The information is gained chiefly by actual visitation. The superintendents travel a great deal and incorporate what they learn into reports, which go to the executive offices in New York and are tabulated there and sent out to be studied by the there and sent out to be studied by the superintendents in all the offices. Five men are kept traveling all the time. One woman is at present making a four mouths' trip, visiting every city and resort of importance in the coun and resort of importance in the country. Thus routes are covered from Newfoundland to Panama and from Alaska to Florida. In time of peace Europe and the Orient are also visited for information.

For the mere asking this service will write out your itinerary in detail, giving exact information concerning the service of railroad and steamer lines how and where connections are lines, how and where connections are made and what are desirable stop-ping places. It will tell you of the character, situation and rates of ho-

For motorists, the service is well equipped for supplying data concern-ing tours, giving location of hotels and garages and making all sort of help-ful suggestions.

garages and making all sort of helpful suggestions.

Very definite, complete and satisfactory information is supplied concerning schools and summer and winter camps. All is done without fees, Inquiries are answered by mail when stamp is enclosed with the inquiry.

Last year the offices of the service were visited by 1,046,000 persons. Miss Stein, who has charge of the local office in the Burgass-Nash store, came here from Jacksonville, Fla., where she had charge of the office. Before that she was in New York, Washington and Atlantic City.
