

FLY TIME HERE; ALSO TIME TO SWAT FLIES

Two Flies Married on July 1 Would Increase to 1,700,000,000 by About August 10.

By A. R. GROH. An Omaha woman writes asking me to tell something about flies and how to get rid of them.

I gladly respond to this request, for he who can make only one fly grow where two flies grew before is a benefactor of the race.

"Swat the fly" is a little cry that rightfully takes its place beside those other battle cries, "Do your Xmas shopping early" and "Buy a Liberty bond."

"Swat the fly!" Ah, this nimble insect takes a lot of swatting. But "a swat in time saves nine million."

And I answer, "because of the immense and startling birthrate among the pesky insects."

Suppose two flies meet, plight their troth, get married and set their housekeeping in a garbage can or other nice location on July 1.

These grow up so rapidly to flyhood and get married to other flies that by July 25 the original Mr. and Mrs. Fly have 40,000 grandchildren.

These set up housekeeping in due time and by August 10, Mr. and Mrs. Fly's children, grandchildren and great grandchildren number 8,000,000.

By August 10 the descendants of the original pair number almost 1,700,000,000, buzzing happily from the garbage can to your pantry and back again.

CITY TO ADVERTISE FOR GARBAGE BIDS

Omaha to Be Divided Into Twenty Districts and Bids Are Asked for Each of Them.

The city clerk was directed by the city council to advertise for bids for garbage-hauling privileges in twenty districts prescribed by Health Commissioner Connell and City Attorney Rine.

The bids will be opened next Tuesday. Districts which do not attract bidders will be covered by city wagons as in the past.

The proposal is to grant the privileges for indeterminate periods, subject to revocation on thirty-day notice by city, upon violation of contract agreement.

Attorneys for garbage haulers urged the council to enter into contract periods of one year.

SECOND MALONEY TRIAL IS CALLED

Detective Captain Summoned to Answer Charge of Calling Commissioner Kugel "A Dirty Rat."

Captain Stephen Maloney has been cited by the city council to appear Thursday morning at 10 o'clock to answer second charges against him, filed by City Attorney Rine at the request of Superintendent Kugel.

These charges specify that Maloney called Mr. Kugel "a dirty rat" and declared in public that Kugel had conspired with Paul Sutton to give false testimony against Maloney.

These second charges will have right-of-way over the first charges, which temporarily were stopped when Mrs. Margaret Melson became ill and attendance of a party of Omahans was required at Chadron.

Should Not Take Long. "This should not take long to dispose of if we confine this second hearing to Maloney," said the mayor.

declaration that Maloney's public outburst against his superior officer tended to work against the welfare and discipline of the police department.

It was at the request of Mr. Kugel that the city council decided to hear the new charges before concluding the first charges.

"This is not only Kugel's matter, but it is an insult to all of the commissioners. If you are looking for discipline you can't stand for such language," announced Commissioner Butler when the city clerk read the second charges again.
