

What is Going On in Society Circles

 Raymond Welch near Los Angeles, and from there will go to Hollywood.
 Mrs. Alfred Kennedy and Miss Jean and Master George Kennedy left Saturday night to spend the summer at West Point, Lake Minnetonka. Mrs. Kennedy will also be near her son, Gilbert, who is in the officers' training camp at Fort Snelling. During her absence Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Kennedy, Jr., will occupy the Kennedy home.

Miss Elizabeth Wade Smylie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wade Smylie, has returned from the Emma Willard school at Troy, N. Y. Miss Smylie will spend only a few days in Omaha and then leave for Colorado where she expects to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stull and William Stull, Jr., will leave tonight for their country home to spend the summer there. They will be accompanied by Miss Marguerite Stevenson of Kearney, Neb.

Mr. Fred Lake went to Culver, Ind., Tuesday with his son, Lawrence, who enters the Culver Woodcraft camp for the summer.

Mrs. Frank T. Hamilton and children left Friday for Minnetonka, where they have a cottage for the summer.

Mr. A. G. Beeson left Friday for the east to join Mrs. Beeson and to be gone a month.

Miss Eugenia Brennan left on Wednesday for a month's visit with the Misses Mabel and Mary Wyness at Oklahoma City. Miss Brennan took her degree of bachelor of arts at the recent commencement of the Nebraska State university and is assisting Mrs. Paul Rivett at the city school held at the high school last week.

Mrs. O. W. Eldridge leaves today with her youngest son, William, for a month's stay in Estes Park, Colo. She is going to recuperate from a recent nervous breakdown.

Mrs. J. W. Barnhart and son, Charles B. Barnhart, left Saturday night for Chicago, where they will embark for a steamer trip to Mackinac Island and other lake resorts. Upon their return they will stop for a visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. F. J. Hedeland, and Rev. Hedeland, pastor of St. James church, Fergus Falls, Minn.

Social Gossip.
 Echoes of the wedding at which Misses Meliora and Elizabeth Davis were attendants in Minneapolis still reach our ears. Miss Elizabeth Davis was the fortunate bridesmaid who caught the bride's bouquet as Mrs. Westen slipped away to make ready for her wedding journey. The two young women spent last week-end with Mrs. Harold Pritchett at Lake Minnetonka, then went back to spend two weeks with W. S. Dinnell, the bride's mother, and later expect to return to spend a longer time with Mrs. Pritchett.

Mrs. Thomas Heyward of Pittsburgh, Pa., and son, Thomas, Jr., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Busch.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Ewell of Evanston, Ill., and son, Marion, will arrive Sunday to spend July with Mrs. Ewell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cross, in Dundee.

Miss Gertrude Metz is in Moline, Ill., for the wedding of a schoolmate at Mrs. Somers' school in Washington, Miss Dorothea Stevens, whose marriage to Mr. Dwight Deere Wyman of Moline took place Saturday on the lawn of the Stevens home in Moline. The bridegroom is the grandson of the late Mr. Charles Deere and is a cousin of Mr. Willard Hosford of this city.

Mrs. J. P. Lord returned last Saturday from visiting in Dixon, Ill., Rockford and Chicago. She was accompanied on her return by her grandson, John Lord Vaughn of Chicago, who is with her for a visit.

Mrs. Edwin Morrison, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Tukey, returned Tuesday to Kansas City.

Miss Helen Magee of Chicago, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Wayland Magee, and Mrs. Magee at "Summerhill Farm," was with Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Lord last week for a few days.

Mr. Francis Gaines returned from Yale last Sunday and has applied for a commission in the aviation corps, which he hopes to receive within a month.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rosewater and family left Thursday for Los Angeles, where they are to live.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rodney Tyler is under quarantine on account of the illness of their daughter, Mrs. Marion Tyler O'Connor, with scarlet fever.

Messrs. C. E. Yost, W. B. T. Belt and Arthur S. Rogers left Friday for New York to be gone ten days.

Mrs. Luther Kountze, who went to Chicago to meet her son, Harkness, upon his return from Exeter and was stopping at the Chicago Beach, has been retained by the illness of her daughter, Gertrude, who went over with her and was taken with scarlet fever and is now in quarantine with a nurse in an apartment on Sixty-third street, while Mrs. Kountze and Harkness are at the Blackstone in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Kelly left Saturday for Chicago, where Mr. Kelly will teach and lecture at the National Summer School of Music at Lake Forest during July. In August Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will return to Omaha to spend the winter.

Mr. Richard Page has arrived from school at Lawrenceville and will not go to France next month as a volunteer in the ambulance corps. He was barred at the last moment by his youth and the fact that he would have had to enter for the duration of the war instead of for six months.

Mr. Charles Young of Chicago, formerly of Omaha, was in the city Thursday.

Dr. J. W. Duncan has returned from a month's post graduate work in Boston and New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Blomfield-Brown and daughter, Bertha, sailed Thursday on the "Maui" from San Francisco for Honolulu.

Mr. Elmer I. Neville has gone east and is in New York with his son, Eugene, from Exeter.

Mrs. C. E. Babcock of Chicago was at the Fontenelle last week. Mrs. Babcock was formerly of Omaha and has many friends here.

Mr. Harold McConnell returned last week from Los Angeles.

Mr. Denman Kountze returned from school in Cleveland.

Mrs. Moshier Colpeter was hostess Thursday of the cooking club, which met at her home for luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Don Neely and Mr. and Mrs. W. Davis motored to Tekamah Friday night for the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hopewell in honor of their guest, Miss Florence Riddell, formerly of Omaha, but now principal of schools in Manchester, Ia.

Baumann-Sexton Wedding.
 St. Bridget's Catholic church, South Side, was the scene on Wednesday morning of the marriage of Miss Verna Sexton and Mr. George Baumann, Rev. Father Borer performing the double ring ceremony. The Lutheran wedding march was played by Miss Ella Gibbons and Miss Marie Brady sang an Ave Marie preceding and "Oh, Promise Me" following the ceremony.

The bride's gown was of georgette crepe and taffeta, embroidered in silver thread and seed pearls. Her tulle veil was held in place by a band of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas.

Her only attendant, Miss Estelle McCarron, wore a gown of citron shade, made also of the georgette crepe and taffeta, and with this was worn a large picture hat of milan. She carried Mrs. Ward roses. Mr. John L. Sexton, brother of the bride, served as best man.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sexton, for the immediate family and close friends. The young couple left immediately for Denver and will visit Yellowstone park and various places of interest in and around Denver. They will be at home August 1 at 2342 South Thirty-fifth street.

Wedding Date Set.
 The marriage of Miss Alice Carter and Dr. Sanford Gifford, whose engagement was announced two weeks ago, has been set for July 11 and will be a home wedding, with only the two families present. Dr. Gifford has signed up with the medical corps of the army for two years and is expecting to be called at any time, so that an early wedding has been decided upon. Miss Carter is at present in the east, where she was bridesmaid Friday at the wedding of a school friend in Portland, Me., and will be home next Thursday.

Ostenberg-Smith Wedding.
 The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith in Alliance was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday morning, when their youngest daughter, Dorothy, was united in marriage with Mr. William H. Ostenberg, Jr., of Omaha. Only the relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Rev. J. B. Carns performed the ceremony. Promptly at 9 o'clock the bridal party came down the stairs to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Elna Bowman, and took their place beneath an arch of ferns. They were unattended and the service was very simple. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. The rooms were decorated in pink and white and the table was banked with pink and white roses.

The young couple left on the noon train for Omaha, where a wedding breakfast was served them Thursday morning at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ostenberg. They will take an extended wedding trip in the east before returning to Hoffman, where they will be at home after August 1.

The bride is a graduate of the Alliance High school and an accomplished musician. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Ostenberg, Jr., and their two daughters, Kathryn and Virginia, and Mr. Clark C. Denny, all of Omaha.

At the Clubs on the Fourth.
 Both the Country and Field clubs will have their regular dinner dances. Seymour Lake Country club and Carter Lake club are planning special dinner dances for the night of the Fourth. At the former club a special program of all kinds of sports and effertaining Mesdames W. O. Hamlein of Chicago and Mr. John Parratt of Fremont at a week-end party.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Roberts will have seven guests at dinner July 4; H. C. Christiansen, four, and H. L. McWilliams, four.

An orchestra will play at the club both afternoon and evening of July 4 and will play through the dinner period. The new bath house will be used for the first time and bathing and water sports will add to the amusements.

Events to Come.
 The first bridge party for the women of Happy Hollow club will take place Thursday afternoon, July 5, at 2 o'clock, following the regular ladies' day luncheon. Mrs. F. J. Jumper or Miss Henrietta Rees of the entertainment committee will take reservations of those who plan to attend until the day before, when all must be in.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Guy Kiddoo to sew for the war relief. The meeting, which was scheduled for Wednesday, was changed because of the Fourth.

Members of the University club of Omaha will give a dinner Tuesday at 7 o'clock to all enlisted university men at Fort Omaha. The list includes sixty-five noncommissioned and twenty-two commissioned officers.

Here and There in Society.
 Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Marsh and children will spend July with the former's parents in Blair. Mr. Marsh will return each Saturday for his regular services.

Miss Florence Moore attended the wedding of her cousin Arthur Baldwin to Miss June Breidenficht in Fremont Thursday.

Miss Ruth Thompson has returned from New York City, where she took one of the principal parts in "Gypsy Love" to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson. Miss Thompson has a four-year contract with Andrea Dipple, former manager of the Chicago Opera company, and expects to return to New York in August to prepare for her next role.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Burkenroad arrive Sunday night for a ten days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Max Burkenroad.

Mrs. O. M. Halligan of Atchison, Kan., spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wilcox.

Miss Hessie Scieraside of St. Louis arrived this morning to visit Mrs. A. Hene and Mrs. D. Wells.

Miss Lula Walker of Bellwood, Neb., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Marti.

Miss Mary Cull has gone to New York to spend the summer studying with Chaulias Muskango. The first of September she will go for a short rest at one of the summer resorts before returning to Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jacobberger and children spent last week in Beatrice with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kimball.

Mrs. C. A. Prince of Pueblo, Colo., is the guest of Mrs. W. S. Wilcox for the summer.

Events of the Last Week.
 Several motor loads of friends of Judge and Mrs. W. A. Redick surprised them last Monday night after they had established themselves in their new home in Dundee, by calling to give an informal housewarming. The party included:

Messrs. and Messdames—
 Will Burns, Charles T. Kountze, W. J. Foye, Joseph Barker, B. H. Sprague, John Redick, Messdames—Arthur Remington, J. T. Stewart 2d, Mr. J. DeForest Richards.

Wednesday night Mrs. F. A. Nash gave a picnic supper on her lawn for Nash and Henry Cartan of San Francisco, who are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. E. W. Nash. Alberti-Wiley Wedding.
 A pretty ceremony took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Verna Wiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wiley, of Salt Lake City, and Mr. Lynn S. Alberti were united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Loren Andrus, in Council Bluffs. Rev. F. W. Evans of the First Presbyterian church performed the ceremony before an improvised altar of palms and ferns in the living room. The bridal couple marched down the stairs to the strains of the Lahengrin wedding march, played by Miss Florence Senior. The bride wore a gown of white net with lace trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of white bride roses and sweet peas.

Thirty-five relatives and friends attended the ceremony. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the table decorations and in the refreshments. The young couple
