Pastors of Omaha Churches to Discuss Conservation of the Nation's Food Supply.

Following the suggestion of President Wilson that Sunday be set apart as a day when pastors should im-press upon their people the necessity of food conservation from the pulpits of most of the Omaha churches, com-municants and visitors will be told how to get along with less food or, at least, without wasting as much as in the nast at least, without wasting as much as in the past.

All week, so it has been said, pastors of the Omaha churches have been devoting their time to studying the food question, how to conserve the food supplies and what this conservation may mean, not only to this city, but to the United States and the cilies.

Preschers who do not talk conservation.

the allies.

Preachers who do not talk conser-quation, as a rule, will preach sermons that will have to do with patriotism.

The sermons will be patriotic and in numerous of the churches the music will be suggestive of war.

The pastor of the Rirst Baptist church, Alonzo Alvin DeLarme, announces that there will be extra services in that church Sunday in recognition of the president's request that the day be devoted to some phase of Christian patriotism, with special remembrance of the armies of the allies and especially American soldier boys at home and in Europe.

U. S. Government Indian Land Sale

THE OKLAHOMA EXHIBIT CAR, now in Omaha, has been sent here for the purpose of advertising the opening of a half million acres of Choctaw and Chicknaw Indian Lands, located in Southeastern Oklahoma, which are soon to be sold by the United States Government—on easy annual payments. All in the Oklahoma, Oil Belt. This is a chance of a lifetime, as the Government does not require you to live on these lands or improve them, and they can be bought direct from Uncle Sam at a few dollars per acre, on easy payments. Irrigation not necessary: forty-five inch rainfall. Agricultural, timber and grazing lands, close to railroads and prosperous towns.

OIL! OIL! OIL!

THE OKLAHOMA EXHIBIT CAR contains an extensive display of Okl-homa products, both agricultural and mineral, as well as numerous photographic views of Western development. For those interested in the Indian Lands we have many charts, plats, blue prints, geological surveys, etc., on car, and demonstrators are on hand to sequaint the public with the terms and conditions.
