

Brief City News

Have Root Print It—New Beacon Press. Metal dies, presswork, Jubilee Mfg. Co. Elec. Fans, 50-50—Burgess-Granden. Platinum Wedding Rings—Edholm.

Try the noonday 35-cent luncheon at the Empress Garden, amidst pleasant surroundings, music and entertainment—Admission—20c.

Wants Checks Sent In—All those who have not yet sent in their checks for tickets for the nature masque are requested to do so at once. Miss Arabella Kimball is anxious to settle all bills this week.

Want Victrola Records—Victrola records are wanted at the National League for Woman Service headquarters for the Young Men's Christian association club houses at Fort Omaha and Fort Crook.

May Abandon Class—Unless more applications are made for telegraph classes at Commercial High school the course of instruction, which is to begin July 10, will be abandoned. Fifteen lessons are given for $3.

Dr. Butler Faces Jury—Dr. Fletcher A. Butler of Harvard, Neb., was placed on trial Monday morning in federal court before Judge Munger and a jury. He is charged with perjury in the damage suit of John A. Moore against the Union Pacific railroad, in which suit Dr. Butler was a witness.

Eight From Albion Enlist—Eight men arrived from Albion Saturday night and enlisted in the hospital corps of the army reserve. They explained that the reason for their arrival Saturday was that they had seen a notice in an Omaha paper that enlistment for the army would be stopped Saturday.

Remembered With a Watch—Erwin Vallcamp, head of the picture framing department at the A. Hoese company, was presented with a twenty-one jewel watch yesterday by his employees on the close of thirty-sixth year with that firm.

Olin Funeral is Held at Crosby's Undertaking Rooms

Funeral services for Mrs. Mamie Olin, who shot her deaf mute son and then committed suicide, were held Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Interment was in Forest Lawn cemetery in the lot Mrs. Olin bought a few days before the tragedy. She expected her son, Gerald Brant, to be buried by her side.

Brant is in St. Joseph hospital severely wounded in the head. He will recover, but will be paralyzed for life. An operation will be performed on him Tuesday.

The funeral was held at Crosby's undertaking rooms. Rev. George L. Peters, pastor of the North Side Christian church, of which Mrs. Olin was an active member, preached the sermon. Many members of the church were among the mourners.

Dr. Peters took for his text the fourteenth chapter of St. John: "Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me."

"In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you."

"And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

Bert Olin, stepson of the deceased, accused in the suicide note of having been the "cause of all this tragedy," was present.

One of Colorado Solons Now Living in Iowa

Though a resident of Cedar Rapids, Ia., where he operates the Hotel Montrose, Charles B. Hamilton, who is stopping at the Fontenelle for a few days, is a member of the Colorado legislature and is on his way west to attend a special session.

Mr. Hamilton formerly operated the Hotel Oxford at Denver and at the end of the last session of legislature, he sold his business there and moved to Cedar Rapids. When the extra session was called, he was notified that he was expected to fill his customary place in the senate. Mr. Hamilton and Mrs. Hamilton are visiting with Manager J. F. Letton of the Fontenelle.

Dove of Peace Again Hovers over Fontenelle

The dove of peace hovers over the Hotel Fontenelle, which for the last few days has been the scene of correlative squabbles. Assistant Manager H. E. Gregory, who left a month ago, following differences with Manager Letton, has been re-instated. G. A. Cole, auditor, and brother of Mrs. W. H. Burbank, the heaviest stockholder, who was also ousted at the same time as Gregory, was not re-instated. Mr. Letton continues as manager of the hotel. All this was accomplished as the result of the annual meeting of the directors: William Rafferty of Syracuse, president of the operating company, has returned to his home.

Quebec House in England Preserved as Landmark

Westerham, England, June 10.—Quebec House, the home of General Wolfe, hero of Quebec, which, before the war, was one of the show places about London for American and Canadian tourists, has passed from control of the Canadian government to the National Trust, a semi-official body which aims to preserve historic landmarks.

The house was purchased in 1913 by the late J. B. Learmont of Montreal, who wanted to maintain it as a public monument. He died before his plans could be completed, but his heirs conveyed it to the Canadian government. Owing to the difficulty of administering a trust so distant, that government preferred that the property should be vested in an English body.

The house contains a collection of specimens of the native work of Canadian Indians and of pictures and prints illustrating the progress of the Dominion. Wolfe was not born in the house, but at a house close by which still exists. He spent most of his childhood days at Quebec House.

Russ Schooner Sunk By German Submarine

Chattam, N. B., July 1.—The Russian schooner Sibens, 323 tons, from Cadiz for this port with a cargo of salt, has been sunk by a German submarine, according to cable services today.

Persistent Advertising is the Road to Success.

HAPPENINGS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Two Young Men in Stolen Motor Car Say They Wanted Joy Jaunt Before Leaving for France.

Russell Nogard, 3616 Jones street, and John Sandle, South Thirty-third street, were arrested Sunday morning by Special Officer Peterson and booked for investigation. The young men had an automobile belonging to H. F. Clark, Fort Crook boulevard, that is alleged to have been stolen from Eighteenth and Douglas streets Saturday evening. Nogard admitted taking the car, saying he and Sandle had joined the army and wanted to take one more joy ride before leaving for France. The automobile was identified at the station Sunday by Mrs. Clark, who drove it home.

Bottle of Beer Explodes. Officers Potach and Lee Fleming arrested Fred Tooka, 15 years old, 5411 South Twenty-first street, Saturday night for the illegal possession of liquor. The officers became suspicious when they saw the boy carrying the sack in the wee small hours of the night and upon investigation found the package contained four bottles of beer.

At the station the prisoner said Joe Tesohlidick, 5816 South Twenty-second street, filled the bottles from a keg and gave them to him without any charge. During the cross-examination a report like the explosion of a bomb startled the officers and caused them to grab their trusty automatics and look about for a bomb-thrower, when a dark amber fluid was noticed flowing from the sack. The heat had caused the beer to ferment and blow the cork from a bottle of "suds." To prevent further escape of the evidence the remaining three bottles were carefully placed in an upright position.

City Employees Join the Army. John Parks, who is employed in the office of his father, Street Commissioner George Parks, at the South Side city hall, and his brother, Robert Parks, from the Cudahy packing plant, enlisted in the hospital ambulance corps Saturday. Other city employees who have signed up for service are: Lee Davis, chauffeur for Commissioner Parks; Harry Horn, chauffeur for Park Commissioner Hummel, and Joe Hasford, driver in the street cleaning department.

Booze Causes Arrests. Frank Vazada, Nineteenth and Q streets, was arrested at Twenty-fourth and Q streets early Sunday morning and will be given an opportunity to tell the judge where he procured his "joy juice."

Tom O'Connor, 2217 Deer Park boulevard, who was arrested late Saturday night, will have an opportunity to tell the judge this morning just how and where he succeeded in getting enough booze to become intoxicated.

William Smith, a barber at 2501 N street, was arrested by Detectives Zaloudek and Goss, charged with the illegal possession of liquor. When the officers entered the place Saturday night Smith and another man were seated at a table adorned with a quart bottle about full of California brandy, according to the label. Three half-pint bottles containing a few drops of whisky were also found in a coal bin.

Spuds Take a Tumble. The little backyard gardens are doing their bit in reducing the high cost of living. The price of potatoes took a tumble Saturday. The morning price at local markets was 75 cents per peck, but before evening the price of new spuds was reduced to 63 cents a peck.

Three Fined $100 and Costs. Police Judge Madden did a flourishing business in less than an hour's session of closing at 4 o'clock were assessed for the illegal possession of liquor and plain drunks. The judge was very considerate in all cases, giving the drunks their choice of telling where they procured the "booze," fifteen days in jail or $10 and costs.

Fred Tooka, 5411 South Twenty-first street, the lad who was caught with the bottled beer that exploded at police station, was fined $100 and costs.

William Smith, a barber at 2501 N street, was the next man to hear the judge say $100 and trimmings just because he had part of a bottle of brandy in his possession.

Frank Kosiba, 4516 South Twenty-seventh street, drew $100 and costs upon the testimony of a drunk who said he got beer at the place.

Frank Vazada, Frank Folta and Frank Smith were each fined $10 and costs for drunkenness.

Magic City Gospel. White shoes and pumps, the kind to please every one—Cressey.

Theda Bara will positively appear at the Bessie tonight in "The Tiger Lady."

My home, in prime repair, is a bargain for anyone. Look it up. H. L. Coombs.

After July 4th, Cressey's shoe store will close at 6 o'clock p. m., during July and August, except Saturdays.

Don't fail to get in on our low cut shoe bargains at $1.00 and $1.50 pair—Cressey, the Shoe Man.

Telephone South 900 and order a case of Omaha or Lactonade, the real refreshment, home beverages, delivered to your residence. Omaha Beverage Co.

The driver of a big delivery truck ran his car onto the curb at Twenty-first and Q streets to avoid a head-on collision with another car Sunday morning.

The theme of all sermons at the South Side churches Sunday was patriotism and the conservation of food. Special music and services brought out unusually large audiences to all services.

Charles Kessling, riding a motorcycle, was run down by auto near the L street viaduct Sunday morning. He escaped with a few minor bruises, but the motorcycle was put out of commission.

A small blaze at the John Skishoff rooming house, 4779 and 4721 South Twenty-seventh street, called the fire department out Sunday evening. The fire was caused by one of the roomers smoking while in bed. The damage was slight and confined to the contents of the building.

Edward Evans, aged 37, died Saturday night at his home, 2505 V street. Funeral services were held this morning from the residence to St. Agnes' church. Interment at St. Mary's cemetery.

"AMERICA FIRST!" SAYS Bobby

and then Post Toasties

Post Toasties

Post Toasties

Post Toasties

IF NEVILLE GOES TO WAR THEN?

Lieutenant Governor Edgar Howard Refuses to Enthuse Over Possibility of Becoming Governor of State.

The Columbus Telegram, of which Lieutenant Governor Edgar Howard is editor, in its last issue contains this significant editorial on the rumored resignation of Governor Keith Neville:

"For six weeks quiet rumor has said that Governor Neville would resign in order to be elected colonel of a new regiment of the Nebraska Guard, and during recent days many newspapers have openly discussed the rumor as a settled fact."

"Many friends have tried to discuss the situation with me. Many have written congratulatory letters to me. They seem to take it for granted that the lieutenant-governor ought to know all about the plans of the governor."

"The fact is I know nothing at all about his plans, and even if I did know them, still my tongue would be tied by the white ribbon of the proprieties. I suggest to all who seek information on the subject that the proper place to get information is at headquarters, and Governor Neville is headquarters."

"I view the situation with neither apprehension nor enthusiasm. I do not shrink from the duties and responsibilities which would come to me in case there should be a vacancy in the gubernatorial chair."

"I am not enthusiastic over the seeming nearness of a high honor which would be mine in case our good governor should go to war, and for reasons of my own I shall be wishing that I may not be called upon to make the sacrifice which such honors would entail."

"But why should kind friends be glad because the great honor seems to be near me, and why should others behold the approach fearfully? It may not happen at all."

Flag Raising Ceremony at First Presbyterian Church

Much pomp and ceremony attended the flag raising at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Following regular services, the congregation marched from the building and circled about the lawn. In the center had been constructed a flag pole, sixty-five feet high.

Following patriotic exercises "Old Glory" was unfurled to the breeze amid cheering.

One of the features was the exhibition drill of Boy Scout Troop No. 31, the organization which took first honor for obtaining the largest number of Red Cross subscriptions.

N. H. Loomis of the Union Pacific presided. M. A. Hall, John A. Munroe, general traffic manager of the Union Pacific, and John C. Wharton were the speakers. Mr. Munroe gave the history of the flag and told what it stands for.

The flag pole and flag were donated by the Business Men's Bible class.

Hotel Men to Stop Enroute To Minneapolis Meeting

Again Omaha is to be a mobilization point, but this time instead of concentrating soldiers it will be prominent hotel men from several western and northern states, who will stop here en route to the annual convention of the Northwestern Hotel Men's association at Minneapolis July 12.

I. A. Medlar, secretary of the Omaha Hotel Men's association, says there will be about 150 visitors who will join the Omaha men on the trip.

From Omaha they will take a special train to Minneapolis.

F. E. Zonne, manager of the Hotel Andrews of Minneapolis and an officer of the Northwestern association, is in Omaha helping in the arrangements for the convention.

Snow Cleared From the Road in Yellowstone

The following telegram received yesterday by the Omaha Automobile club, will be of interest to prospective tourists through the Yellowstone National park.

"Sylvan Pass and all Yellowstone park roads will be open by July 9. Gangs of men are clearing snow now."

Worth of American Dollar Is Much Reduced in China

Amoy, China, July 2.—The American dollar here now is worth $1.53 silver in Chinese coin. The rate in normal times is about $2.25 silver.

In St. Mary's cemetery. The deceased is survived by a wife and two children. Pneumonia was the cause of his death.

Mrs. Margaret E. Kohn, aged 81 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. H. Copenhaver, 4117 South Twenty-seventh street, last night. The body will be sent to Nebraska City, her home, Tuesday for interment. Mrs. Kohn was here visiting her daughter when stricken.

William D. Curran, aged 67 years, died this morning at his home, 2407 N street. He is survived by his wife and two sons, John and William, and one daughter, Mrs. M. Shummy. Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence to St. Agnes' church. Interment at St. Mary's cemetery.

White Footwear For the Fourth

Not only correct in style, but the correct footwear to give you the greatest amount of pleasure and comfort. We are showing complete stocks in white buck, Palm Beach and canvas, moderately priced from—

$4.00 up

FRY SHOE CO.

16TH & DOUGLAS

FRY SHOE CO.

FRY SHOE CO.

FRY SHOE CO.

FRY SHOE CO.

DECREES RETURN TO MANCHU RULE

Chang Hsun Announces Restoration of Dynasty and Overthrow of President Li Yuan Hung.

BULLETIN. Washington, July 3.—The restoration of the Manchu dynasty in China has been demanded of President Li by General Chang Hsun and other military leaders, according to State department advices from Minister Reisch today. Civil war in China is feared if the military leaders have the power behind them that they seem to have.

(By Associated Press.) Chang Hsun Active.

General Chang Hsun, who is military governor of Anhwei province, has taken a prominent part in the recent internal troubles in China and a dispatch from Peking, June 18, said that he had assumed the power of dictator. At that time it was reported that Li Yuan Hsun was virtually a prisoner and that friends of the president were not permitted to enter the palace. General Chang Hsun is reported to be the strongest of the military governors in China, and there has been various reports in the last few weeks that he would make an attempt to reinstate the Manchu dynasty.

A dispatch from Peking, June 25, reported that all the provinces which declared their independence of the government of Li Yuan Hung in May and June had ceased their war-like preparations. At that time it was reported that General Chang Hsun had expressed the hope that a settlement of the crisis in China would be reached.

Li Yuan Hung Has Trouble. General Li Yuan Hung became president of China, June 6, 1916, after the death of General Yuan Shi-Kai.

Soon after Yuan had attempted to change the form of government in China to a monarchy. Since his accession to the leadership in China, he has had much trouble with the northern military leaders, including General Chang Hsun. The present difficulties of President Li arose over his refusal to uphold the decision of the cabinet to break with Germany and it had been reported that he was opposed to the entry of China into the war.

On June 10, after the revolt of several of the northern and central provinces, General Chang Hsun demanded that President Li issue an ultimatum dissolving parliament. The president refused to accede to the demand and also declined to offer his unconditional resignation. A day or two later, however, he yielded to the demand of the rebel leaders for the dissolution of parliament, but the acting premier refused to countersign the decree and resigned.

After this the Kuo Min-Tang, one of the strong political parties in China, which had supported President Li, withdrew its approval of his course.

After several days' delay President Li succeeded in appointing an acting premier and the latter countersigned the mandate dissolving parliament. It had been reported that the southern provinces, in which Dr. Sun Yat Sen and his followers have much power, would revolt as a result of the dissolution of parliament.

General Chang Hsun, who is military governor of Anhwei province, has taken a prominent part in the recent internal troubles in China and a dispatch from Peking, June 18, said that he had assumed the power of dictator. At that time it was reported that Li Yuan Hsun was virtually a prisoner and that friends of the president were not permitted to enter the palace. General Chang Hsun is reported to be the strongest of the military governors in China, and there has been various reports in the last few weeks that he would make an attempt to reinstate the Manchu dynasty.

A dispatch from Peking, June 25, reported that all the provinces which declared their independence of the government of Li Yuan Hung in May and June had ceased their war-like preparations. At that time it was reported that General Chang Hsun had expressed the hope that a settlement of the crisis in China would be reached.

Li Yuan Hung Has Trouble. General Li Yuan Hung became president of China, June 6, 1916, after the death of General Yuan Shi-Kai.

Soon after Yuan had attempted to change the form of government in China to a monarchy. Since his accession to the leadership in China, he has had much trouble with the northern military leaders, including General Chang Hsun. The present difficulties of President Li arose over his refusal to uphold the decision of the cabinet to break with Germany and it had been reported that he was opposed to the entry of China into the war.

On June 10, after the revolt of several of the northern and central provinces, General Chang Hsun demanded that President Li issue an ultimatum dissolving parliament. The president refused to accede to the demand and also declined to offer his unconditional resignation. A day or two later, however, he yielded to the demand of the rebel leaders for the dissolution of parliament, but the acting premier refused to countersign the decree and resigned.

After this the Kuo Min-Tang, one of the strong political parties in China, which had supported President Li, withdrew its approval of his course.

After several days' delay President Li succeeded in appointing an acting premier and the latter countersigned the mandate dissolving parliament. It had been reported that the southern provinces, in which Dr. Sun Yat Sen and his followers have much power, would revolt as a result of the dissolution of parliament.

General Chang Hsun, who is military governor of Anhwei province, has taken a prominent part in the recent internal troubles in China and a dispatch from Peking, June 18, said that he had assumed the power of dictator. At that time it was reported that Li Yuan Hsun was virtually a prisoner and that friends of the president were not permitted to enter the palace. General Chang Hsun is reported to be the strongest of the military governors in China, and there has been various reports in the last few weeks that he would make an attempt to reinstate the Manchu dynasty.

A dispatch from Peking, June 25, reported that all the provinces which declared their independence of the government of Li Yuan Hung in May and June had ceased their war-like preparations. At that time it was reported that General Chang Hsun had expressed the hope that a settlement of the crisis in China would be reached.

Li Yuan Hung Has Trouble. General Li Yuan Hung became president of China, June 6, 1916, after the death of General Yuan Shi-Kai.

Soon after Yuan had attempted to change the form of government in China to a monarchy. Since his accession to the leadership in China, he has had much trouble with the northern military leaders, including General Chang Hsun. The present difficulties of President Li arose over his refusal to uphold the decision of the cabinet to break with Germany and it had been reported that he was opposed to the entry of China into the war.

On June 10, after the revolt of several of the northern and central provinces, General Chang Hsun demanded that President Li issue an ultimatum dissolving parliament. The president refused to accede to the demand and also declined to offer his unconditional resignation. A day or two later, however, he yielded to the demand of the rebel leaders for the dissolution of parliament, but the acting premier refused to countersign the decree and resigned.

After this the Kuo Min-Tang, one of the strong political parties in China, which had supported President Li, withdrew its approval of his course.

After several days' delay President Li succeeded in appointing an acting premier and the latter countersigned the mandate dissolving parliament. It had been reported that the southern provinces, in which Dr. Sun Yat Sen and his followers have much power, would revolt as a result of the dissolution of parliament.

General Chang Hsun, who is military governor of Anhwei province, has taken a prominent part in the recent internal troubles in China and a dispatch from Peking, June 18, said that he had assumed the power of dictator. At that time it was reported that Li Yuan Hsun was virtually a prisoner and that friends of the president were not permitted to enter the palace. General Chang Hsun is reported to be the strongest of the military governors in China, and there has been various reports in the last few weeks that he would make an attempt to reinstate the Manchu dynasty.

A dispatch from Peking, June 25, reported that all the provinces which declared their independence of the government of Li Yuan Hung in May and June had ceased their war-like preparations. At that time it was reported that General Chang Hsun had expressed the hope that a settlement of the crisis in China would be reached.

Li Yuan Hung Has Trouble. General Li Yuan Hung became president of China, June 6, 1916, after the death of General Yuan Shi-Kai.

Soon after Yuan had attempted to change the form of government in China to a monarchy. Since his accession to the leadership in China, he has had much trouble with the northern military leaders, including General Chang Hsun. The present difficulties of President Li arose over his refusal to uphold the decision of the cabinet to break with Germany and it had been reported that he was opposed to the entry of China into the war.

On June 10, after the revolt of several of the northern and central provinces, General Chang Hsun demanded that President Li issue an ultimatum dissolving parliament. The president refused to accede to the demand and also declined to offer his unconditional resignation. A day or two later, however, he yielded to the demand of the rebel leaders for the dissolution of parliament, but the acting premier refused to countersign the decree and resigned.

After this the Kuo Min-Tang, one of the strong political parties in China, which had supported President Li, withdrew its approval of his course.

After several days' delay President Li succeeded in appointing an acting premier and the latter countersigned the mandate dissolving parliament. It had been reported that the southern provinces, in which Dr. Sun Yat Sen and his followers have much power, would revolt as a result of the dissolution of parliament.

General Chang Hsun, who is military governor of Anhwei province, has taken a prominent part in the recent internal troubles in China and a dispatch from Peking, June 18, said that he had assumed the power of dictator. At that time it was reported that Li Yuan Hsun was virtually a prisoner and that friends of the president were not permitted to enter the palace. General Chang Hsun is reported to be the strongest of the military governors in China, and there has been various reports in the last few weeks that he would make an attempt to reinstate the Manchu dynasty.

A dispatch from Peking, June 25, reported that all the provinces which declared their independence of the government of Li Yuan Hung in May and June had ceased their war-like preparations. At that time it was reported that General Chang Hsun had expressed the hope that a settlement of the crisis in China would be reached.

Li Yuan Hung Has Trouble. General Li Yuan Hung became president of China, June 6, 1916, after the death of General Yuan Shi-Kai.

Soon after Yuan had attempted to change the form of government in China to a monarchy. Since his accession to the leadership in China, he has had much trouble with the northern military leaders, including General Chang Hsun. The present difficulties of President Li arose over his refusal to uphold the decision of the cabinet to break with Germany and it had been reported that he was opposed to the entry of China into the war.

On June 10, after the revolt of several of the northern and central provinces, General Chang Hsun demanded that President Li issue an ultimatum dissolving parliament. The president refused to accede to the demand and also declined to offer his unconditional resignation. A day or two later, however, he yielded to the demand of the rebel leaders for the dissolution of parliament, but the acting premier refused to countersign the decree and resigned.

After this the Kuo Min-Tang, one of the strong political parties in China, which had supported President Li, withdrew its approval of his course.

After several days' delay President Li succeeded in appointing an acting premier and the latter countersigned the mandate dissolving parliament. It had been reported that the southern provinces, in which Dr. Sun Yat Sen and his followers have much power, would revolt as a result of the dissolution of parliament.

General Chang Hsun, who is military governor of Anhwei province, has taken a prominent part in the recent internal troubles in China and a dispatch from Peking, June 18, said that he had assumed the power of dictator. At that time it was reported that Li Yuan Hsun was virtually a prisoner and that friends of the president were not permitted to enter the palace. General Chang Hsun is reported to be the strongest of the military governors in China, and there has been various reports in the last few weeks that he would make an attempt to reinstate the Manchu dynasty.

A dispatch from Peking, June 25, reported that all the provinces which declared their independence of the government of Li Yuan Hung in May and June had ceased their war-like preparations. At that time it was reported that General Chang Hsun had expressed the hope that a settlement of the crisis in China would be reached.

Li Yuan Hung Has Trouble. General Li Yuan Hung became president of China, June 6, 1916, after the death of General Yuan Shi-Kai.

Soon after Yuan had attempted to change the form of government in China to a monarchy. Since his accession to the leadership in China, he has had much trouble with the northern military leaders, including General Chang Hsun. The present difficulties of President Li arose over his refusal to uphold the decision of the cabinet to break with Germany and it had been reported that he was opposed to the entry of China into the war.

missal of parliament by President Li. An official dispatch to the Chinese embassy at Washington, Peking, June 20, said that President Li had issued a decree calling for an immediate election for members of parliament.

Hsuan Tung, son of Prince Chun, ascended the throne of China December 2, 1908, under the regency of his father. On December 6, 1911, Prince Chun abdicated as regent and February 12, 1912, the youthful emperor abdicated the throne and the Chinese republic was established. Since that time the emperor had virtually been a prisoner of President Yuan and Li.

In February of this year, it was reported that Hsuan Tung would be brought to the United States to complete his education, and it was said that President Li had approved the plan for the Manchu emperor to come to the United States.

Former Justice Moody Dies at Haverhill Home

Haverhill, Mass., July 2.—William H. Moody, former associate justice of the United States supreme court, died at his home here at 1 a. m. today.

Justice Moody retired seven years ago because of ill health. He was secretary of the navy and attorney general in the cabinet of President Roosevelt, and was appointed to the supreme bench in December, 1906.

league that they will donate to the Red Cross 10 per cent of the receipts of all the games of the coming series between the Yankees and Washington, including a double-header on the Fourth of July.

Bee Wants-Ads Produce Results.

NINETY PER CENT OF MINERS AT TWO TOWNS STRIKE

Globe, Ariz., July 2.—Ninety-two per cent of the copper miners employed at Miami and Inspiration, Ariz., quit work this afternoon in response to a strike call, according to a statement issued here late today by leaders of the Metal Mine Workers Industrial union, which is affiliated with the Industrial Workers of the World.

Yanks to Con