THREE-I LEAGUE IS FORCED TO SUSPEND

War Conditions Compel Organization to Close Parks After Losing $25,000 During Season.

Chicago, July 4.-War has forced the Three-I league, one of the oldest minor leagues of the country, to close its parks. The organization will suspend its season next Sunday, President A. R. Tearney announced today. The eight clubs have lost approximately $25,000 since the start of the season eight weeks ago,

Although the league faced almost unprecedented weather conditions early in the season, President Tearney said subscriptions of the Liberty loan and Red Cross and the general lack of interest in the game, owing to the war, contributed largely to the league's failure. 'I have found that base ball has no business trying to survive in the smaller cities with the country at war," said President Tearney tonight, "The people have lost interest in base ball in the smaller cities where the war spirit is becoming more intense."

Omaha at Sloux City, 2 games; Lincoln at Des Moines; Wichita at St. Joseph; Denver the fourth league to suspend since the The closing of the Three-I makes of the season two months ago. The Virginia league was the first to fall. Then the North Carolina league suspended after less than six weeks of operation. The Northern league gave up yesterday because of heavy financial losses. Several other leagues are reported to be near col-

Under the ruling of the National Association of Professional leagues, the Three-I will retain its player and territorial rights. Although the players were permitted to seek employobliged to report next spring to the club holding their contract this sea-son. The Three-I league has been in operation eighteen years. It is composed of Peoria, Rock Island, Moline, Rockford, Quincy, Alton, Blooming-ton and Hannibal, Mo..
