off in the afternoon. At 1 o'clock Wednesday luncheon will be served to all entrants, the 1918 officers will be selected and the plans ### for the year will be outlined. Melady Comes Back

With Retort to Stecher Caddock, has come back with a warm tetort to Joe Hetmanek, Stecher's manager, who says Caddock has re-fused to wrestle Stecher. Melady's come-back is as follows: "Mr. Hetmanek's reply to my letter of a few days ago with regard to a return match between Stecher and Caddock is as brilliant as the rest of his managerial efforts in be half of Joe Stecher. "Mr. Hetmanek does not seem to realing "Mr. Hetmanek does not seem to realize that he is no longer in position to tell people what 'they should do.' He states I am making excuses in behalf of Caddock. This is all bunk. I told Mr. Hetmanek that we would give Joe Stecher a return match, but Hetmanek is not going to dictate the time, place or terms, as he is no longer handling the champion of the world. When he had the trump card, he usually told people where to get off at. He made his own dates, and quoted his own terms, and anyple where to get off at. He made his own dates, and quoted his own terms, and anyone who did not approve of same did not get a chance to do any business with him.

"Mr. Hetmanek states there is a public demand for an immediate return match between these two boys, but Mr. Hetmanek is very much mistaken. The public wants Joe Stecher to go out and clean up a few of those fellows that he falled to defeat. If Mr. Hetmanek is wise to his position, he If Mr. Hetmanek is wise to his position, he will get busy and take on Strangler Lewis and clean up the unsatisfactory affair of a Peters defeated Plestina, and then comes Stecher who defeats Peters. All this stuff is too fresh in the minds of the public, and the quicker these fellows who are interested in the game make up their mind tha they cannot get by with the old fashloned bunk, the better it will be for the sport.

"I note Joe Hetmanek states that Joe Steeher must keep himself in condition for dubs as well as for good men, and would dubs as well as for good men, and would infer that Mr. Hetmanek picked Caddock for a dub when he made the match. I think in the future the best thing for Hetmanek to do is to be able to distinguish good men from dubs when he is making his matches, and then it will be a little easier sailing for Joe.

"Any time Caddock is defeated by a dub, we will not use the sick stuff as an alibi."

CITY NET PLAY STARTS JULY 14 AT FIELD CLUB

pion, to Defend Title, but Doubles Champs Will Not Appear.

Omaha's annual city tennis tournament will be held at the Field club, starting July 14, according to Ralph R. Rainey, chairman of the tennis committee of the Field club.

The winner of the finals will receive the title, but will not have his name placed on the cup, as has been the custom. Ralph Powell, last year's champ, will probably be on hand for the tourney, but Joe and Will Adams, doubles champions, may not appear, as Joe is enlisted in the quartermaster's corps of the regular army and expects to be called to Des Moines. Entries may be made at the Field club by telephone and must be in by 6 o'clock Friday evening. Playing will commence at 2:30 Saturday afternoon and will be continued at 5 o'clock Monday evening.

The tournament will be a patriotic one, the proceeds and entry fees being turned over to the Omaha chapter of the American Red Cross. Weather permitting, the tournament will be over in ample time for the commencement of the Nebraska state tennis tournament, which takes place at Superior July 23.

Call of Dixie Proves

Too Strong for Currie Murphy Currie, Pa's demon slab artist, found the call of Dixie too strong for him and Murphy has beat it hence. It rather left Pa and his champs in a hole, but July 7 promised to make this climate a bit too frigid for Murphy's feet, so he very graciously informed Pa of the sickness of his mother back in Fayetteville, N. C. All invitations to stick around Omaha till "we could get someone to tide us over' were flatly declined Currie was freed from further services here by suspension. Farm life is rather healthful for a pitcher these days, compared to the life of a city fellow of draft age.

DON BAKER ENLISTS-Another athlete has joined the colors and will "do his bit" in immediate active service. He is Donald M. Baker, the N. Y. A. C. speed skater, who has enlisted with the United States marine corps in Brooklyn.

For C. B. Whitney Monday Hatred of Publicity.

Some people hate publicity like the young Detroit man. He was dressed in a tight-fitting suit of the latest cut, and his whole costume was a drean of sartorial refinement. And he was plainly embarrassed when he entered the editor's office.

"I was intensely shocked to read a notice in your paper of my engagement," he began. "I cannot tell you how shocked I was. I was postively chagrined; we were all chagrined. How much for fifty copies of the paper?"—Detroit News.

Funeral services for C. B. Whitney will be held from the chapel of the Cole-McKay undertaking parlors Monday at 4:30. The body then will be taken to Spirit Lake, Ia., for burial. Mrs. Whitney and her baby son, John, will accompany the body and will spend a week with her parents there. Funeral services for C. B.
